Pope Acted Against Reds Because U. S. Didn't, Claim

ROME, July 28.—(AP)—The communist press reacted quickly Wednesday to the interpretation by the Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, of the recent excommunication decree of the Roman Catholic church. The communists said that the decree was inspired by political motives. L'Osservatore printed an editorial interpretation of the decree of July 13, saying it automatically excommunicated those professing "anti-Christian and materialistic" concepts of communism while serving as a stern warning to those who favored

Murray Directs Union To File Non-Red Oaths

NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—The international executive board of the CIO Steel Workers union Wednesday unanimously directed the union's officers to file non-communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley law.

The action came after a speech at a closed meeting by union President Philip Murray who has been one of the strongest holdouts against signing the affidavits. The resolution adopted by the board said the union "dedicates its entire membership to the unfinished task of repealing the Taft-Hartley act and restoring the Wagner act with improvements designed to safeguard labor's basic rights."

However, the resolution added that "in order to safeguard the interests of the membership and to go forward with the organization of the unorganized within our jurisdiction," the board directs all the union's international officers and officers of local unions to sign the non-communist affidavits.

Murray has insisted all along that the steel workers union is free of communist influence, but he has asserted that it objects in principle to a requirement for union officers to sign such affidavits.

A union spokesman explained that the steel workers could not take advantage of the election procedures of the Taft-Hartley act unless they complied with the affidavit requirement.

The board acted on the day before the union is to press its case for wage increases, pensions and insurance benefits before a presidential fact-finding panel.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 28.—(AP)—Cowboys Gerald Roberts and Clay Carr, accused of leading a strike of rodeo contestants early this month at Reno, Nev., were fined $500 each today by the International Rodeo association and the Rodeo Cowboys association.

The fines were announced by R. Hoffman of Cheyenne, I.R.A. president, and E. N. Boylen of Pendleton, Ore., I.R.A. commissioner.

They said IRA and RCA directors agreed in a joint session here July 25 to reimburse the Reno Rodeo and Livestock association for $4,000 which it had to add to its July 4 purse in order to hold its Rodeo.

The contestants struck to enforce a demand for a bigger purse.

The announcement said the strike was "unauthorized" and that RCA contestants already had competed for two days at Reno under published rules and prizes.

Butcher Hurts Eggs, Apples At Union Picket

KLAMATH FALLS, July 28.—(AP)—An egg and apple throwing episode at an Oregon avenue grocery resulted Wednesday in the arrest of Andy Giger, 35-year-old butcher, on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Tom Fay, an AFL trucker, filed the charge, asserting he was hit by an apple as he pulled up to the store where the meat-cutters AFL local had set up a picket.

Giger readily admitted that he threw a few eggs and apples trying to drive the picket away. He said that when Fay drove up, he took him to be a body guard sent out to aid Russell Wilson, the picket.

Giger posted $25 bond and asked for time to talk the situation over with a lawyer.

The trouble with the union stems from Giger's employment of a non-union butcher. Giger said the man in question is a student of Oregon Technical Institute who told his employer he did not want to join a union.

Giger said he told him that he could go to work anyhow as other markets are "getting away with violations." He asserted the union is afraid to come to grips with the big markets and is seeking to make an example out of his suburban place.

Giger is a member of the union. The picket was still marching in front of his place this afternoon.

Sprout Beard Or Take Ducking, Festival Edict

JACKSONVILLE.—The moss in the old watering tank up by the city hall has been scraped off again for use in dunking the men who sprout whiskers as ordered by the Jacksonville Lions club for the Gold Rush Jubilee, Aug. 6 and 7.

The executives did not say whether the barefaced boys would be chased afoot or horseback, but they did say they were adding ice to the watering tank to make the dip more enticing for those who aren't growing whiskers.

The manly dandies are free to choose the style of adornment they feel most enhancing. Right now the most popular styles seen sporting about town are multichops, Van Dykes, goatees, sideburns, handle-bar mustaches, and the good old villainous killer-dillers.

The Jacksonville Gold Rush Jubilee is sponsored by the Jacksonville Lions club, with a full program of events for the two days.

Fire volunteer Leonard Hugg, chief of the volunteer firemen, said there was a possibility the blaze had been deliberately set.

The fire burned out an overhead phone cable, and halted phone service to North Elgin for most of the day.
