

Masons Conduct Cornerstone Laying Ceremony For New High School At Reedsport

By S. S. SMILEY
Foggy weather, followed by a light drizzle, failed to keep a large and enthusiastic crowd from attending the laying of the cornerstone of the new high school at Reedsport Monday evening.

This traditional ceremony was performed by officials of the Masonic grand lodge of Oregon, after a metal box containing interesting records had been placed behind it.

Laying of the cornerstone was performed by Shalor Eldridge of Portland, grand master of Masons in Oregon, assisted by grand lodge officers and local Masons "filling in" for grand lodge officers not present.

Frederick Hunter, former grand orator of the Grand Lodge, gave the address, stressing the importance of the public school to the community and to the country at large, and warning of the danger to our public school system from our own indifference and from organizations opposed to it.

Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Donna Abbott of Gardiner, accompanied by Mrs. Georgina Durbin, and Mrs. Roy Henderson of Reedsport, accompanied by Mrs. Grover, who sang patriotic songs, and by the high school band of Waldport.

Visitors were introduced by Herman Huse of Reedsport, worshipful master of Aurora lodge No. 59, A.F. & A.M. of Gardiner.

Grand lodge officers present were: Shalor Eldridge, Portland, grand master; Worth Harvey, Eugene, deputy grand master; H. D. Proudfoot, Portland, grand secretary; Enoch B. Carlson, Portland, grand marshal; John Shouse, Springfield, grand sword bearer; William Dillman, Burns, grand senior steward; George

160 Arrested, $40,000 Seized In Gaming Den Raid

MAPLE SHADE, N. J., July 29.—(AP)—One hundred and sixty men were arrested and $40,000 confiscated here Thursday in a state police raid on an armed gambling joint.

Despite an armored lookout station in which police said they found a revolver and pistol, the 18 raiders captured every occupant of the one-story concrete block building without firing a shot.

Listed officially as a plumbing warehouse, officers found the interior to contain "several gross" of dice, several cartons of playing cards, scratch sheets, blackboards listing every major race track in the country, a ticker tape system with an underground wire, and slot machines.

Police said most of the players came from Philadelphia and Camden—only 10 miles away—and there was evidence that a limousine service had been bringing many of them here.

They also said they expected to connect the local gamblers with a New York ring.

Many officers who took part in the raid were "fresh from the recent raids in Newark," which broke up a policy ring operating between the New York metropolitan area and Ohio, police said.

Murray, Portland, grand tiler; and Henry Beckley, Elkton, Jess Hays, Bay City, and Kenneth Spencer, Florence, district deputy grand masters. The former two took Grand Lodge parts for the ceremony.

Members of Aurora lodge assisting were L. Mortimer Bailey as grand chaplain; J. L. Melvin as senior grand deacon; Herbert Bender, junior grand deacon; Howard Pike, senior grand steward; S. S. Smiley, grand treasurer. Dale Holden of North Bend lodge No. 140 served as junior grand steward.

Among the guests were Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction; W. M. Campbell, Roseburg, assistant Douglas county school superintendent; Tom Lillebo, mayor of Reedsport, contractor for the building, and a past master of Aurora lodge No. 50 of Gardiner; and Byron Serfling, Gardiner, chairman of district No. 13.

An occasional communication of the grand lodge of Oregon was opened at the hall in Gardiner, after which the members drove to Reedsport, assembled at the Fir Grove auto park, and marched to the scene of the ceremony nearby, which started at 7 p.m.

Following the ceremony, a crab salad feed was served to about 80 members in the Masonic hall in Gardiner.

Been downtown lately? What with underground wires being laid through the streets many are complaining of being "jack-hammer happy." New street lights will be worth it, though.

K-R-E-N-E . . . is a new plastic that makes the ultimate in shower curtains. Saw some at JOSSE'S that allow you to enjoy a livable scene while soaping under the shower. Imagine gazing at "Showboat" from under the spray! Struth, though, this shower curtain is called "Screenprint" and one of the many patterns available is a scene from "Showboat." You can buy Callaway bath towel sets to match—or you can buy either singly. Matching bathroom window curtains by Krene also available at JOSSE'S.

It's good to see so many out-of-state cars here, about . . . without exception tourists are exclaiming and complaining . . . exclaiming about the wonderful scenery and complaining about the highways.

Everybody loves a bargain. And bargains are in vogue at EXCEL DRESS SHOPPE. Cast your eye on these specials: Dressy dresses, mostly large sizes . . . Half Price! Scan the table containing T shirts, shorts, raincoats and blouses. All 1.99 and real buys. There is a selection of sun dresses and house dresses (mostly large sizes) of cotton and seersucker materials—priced to sell! For a five dollar bill you can buy Artist Mode, Nemo or American Lady foundation garments that were formerly 10.95 to 12.95. All at 124 N. Jackson street, right downtown.

Did you realize that Labor Day, football and back-to-school time is just around the corner? Hard to believe that deer hunting and chilly nights are in prospect when the Fourth of July seems only yesterday.

Roseburg is known as the "coffee drinkers' city" in the west of the Missisippi. Coffee drinking is a result of good coffee and good coffee is the result of good preparation. UMPQUA VALLEY HARDWARE comes to your rescue at this point with not less than five brands of coffee makers ready to be wrapped and tucked in your shopping bag. They have Universal percolators and Sunbeam vacuum coffeemakers that produce the stuff automatically, no less. Choose from the lines of gleaming, stainless steel coffeemakers from the bitty size to giant 12 cuppers. At UMPQUA VALLEY HARDWARE downstairs store.

Puzzle-of-the-week: Where do the convertible coupes go all winter that we see all summer? Motorcycles, too.

A couple of doors down the street is our favorite coffee shop—The ICE CREAMERY. Famous for snacks and sandwiches, fountain confections plain and fancy. The ICE CREAMERY is a rendezvous for folks from eight to eighty.

One thing we like: the smile and "thanks" we get with every purchase, large or small. Courtesy hasn't gone out of style—not at the ICE CREAMERY at any rate. See for yourself.

Pearls are generally considered the most universally popular gem. And pearls are in abundance at ASHCRAFT JEWELERS, 106 S. Jackson St. One, two and three strand pearls await your selection or you can choose the "Victoria" pearls set with a delightful cameo. Complete pearl outfits are very reasonably priced. . . . try on pearl bracelets, necklaces and other jeweled items set with rhinestones and other gems. A strand (or more) of these simulated pearls are indispensable to every girl's costume. And that's a gift hint. At ASHCRAFT'S . . . remember.

It must be a plot—we're sure that automobile spring manufacturers had something to do with the condition of the North Umpqua Road . . . sure drums up business for them anyway.

One thing about pastries and bread . . . if it isn't FRESH it just isn't good. At CLEO'S BAKERY you're assured, every time, of really fresh bread and pastries. Take Orange Chiffon Cake, for example, yes, take it home Saturday because it's a special then. And for an extra, tempting lift to summer dinners get a dozen (or more) of dinner, butter or napkins rolls. As we said, they're freshly home-made. CLEO'S is a few steps south of the Star theater.

Ever resent having to drive behind a logging truck? Don't. If it weren't for logging and logging trucks it'd be Roseburg would be less than a one horse town. Logging and lumbering butter EVERYONE'S bread, don't they?
