Ten Girls Awarded Honors At Camp Tyee Council Fire Other Activities Reported

Ten Camp Fire girls were awarded the Tyee honor at Camp Tyee at the council fire held last Saturday night at Council Rock. This is given the outstanding camper in each cabin. Each girl attending camp was presented a session honor, representing a gold nugget painted on a patch of brown leather, in keeping with the camp theme, "Frontier Days."

Friday of last week was girl government day and each camper turned in her application to lake the place of a counsellor. #### Portland Faces Walking Threat

PORTLAND, July 30-(A)-The PORTLAND, July 30—(P)—The threat of a bus and streetcar strike Sunday faces Portland.

A long delay in promised arbitration led AFL motormen to call the strike—to be averted only if arbitration proceedings start in the meanwhile.

The union and the Portland traction company agreed March 31 on arbitration of demands including a 25-cent hourly wage increase. The long illness of L. C. Stoll, chairman of the Portland labor management committee.

Stoil, chairman of the Porciand labor management committee, prevented the start.

Stoil was to have been chairman of the arbitration board. The union in voicing its strike threat proposed that the other two officers of the labor-management committee select another ment committee select another chairman. One of the officers rep-resents employers, the other la-
