EDDIS CARAWAY BECOMES BRIDE OF GEORGE REYNOLDS AT GLENDALE RITES

A popular Glendale couple, Eddis Nadine Caraway and George Edgar Reynolds, Jr., were married Saturday evening, July 18, in a beautiful candlelight service at the Presbyterian Church in Glendale, Rev. J. K. Howard officiated.

Gloria Wunsch, pianist, and Mrs. Mildred Sether, violinist, played for the ceremony, and Bob Lewis sang, "Because" and other appropriate selections.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Ed Caraway, was dressed in traditional white slipper satin and lace. Her maid of honor, Betty Lee Caraway, and her bridesmaids, Dorothy Lee Reynolds, and Jeanene Miller, were dressed in pink and blue. The flower girl, Kay Edson, wore dainty blue and the candlelighters, Helen Bates and Shirley Oaks, were dressed yellow. All the attendants wore headbands of yellow flowers and tulle.

Monty Bates was the best man, and Ruel Meissner and Richard Reed were ushers.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Rugs and floor lamps were placed attractively about the room, and huge bouquets of gladiolas and carnations were used for decoration.

Myrtle Wunsch and Veima Edson assisted at the reception table which was decorated with the bride's bouquets placed in an attractive circle. An outstanding feature of the table, in addition to the traditional bride and groom cake, was the punch bowl which was carved from ice.

Mrs. Reynolds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Caraway of Glendale, and Mr. Reynolds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds, Sr., also of Glendale. Mrs. Reynolds was born here, and both young people have attended the Glendale schools. Following a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will attend Oregon Tech, where he will major in electrical engineering, and she will take a secretarial course.

Marry At Church Ceremony In Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. LeBron Camp Preston

Picture by Kenneth-Ellis, Eugene

Ivy and white tapers together, with tall baskets of white gladioli decorated the chancel and organ of Central Presbyterian Church in Eugene Sunday, June 26, for the wedding of Miss Benjie Charline Harmon to LeBron Camp Preston of Roseburg. The Rev. Paul S. Mellich, pastor, heard the couple repeat their vows at three o'clock in the afternoon.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harmon of Eugene and Mr. Preston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Preston of Roseburg.

Dressed in white slipper satin the bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her dress was made with a fitted bodice and long sleeves and the skirt was trimmed with tiny ruffles of satin and lace fashioned over hoops. Her train was full court length and she wore a fingertip veil of illusion held in place by a starched lace Dutch cap dotted with seed pearls and tiny wreath of white flowers.

Her flowers consisted of a cascade of staphanotis centered with a white orchid and she carried a lace and linen handkerchief loaned by Mrs. E. D. Hamacher of Medford and her Job's Daughters prayerbook.

Three college friends of the bride, all from Klamath Falls, were her attendants. Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Mason, who wore orchid marquisette, made with full bustle back. The skirt caught at the hemline with tiny bows to reveal orchid lace ruffles on matching taffeta slip. She wore long marquisette mitts and in her hair an arrangement of shattered white carnations and carried a large bouquet of the white carnations.

Miss Mary Havens and Miss Barbara Osburn wore frocks like that of the honor attendant and carried smaller bouquets of the white carnations. Miss Jean Young, sorority sister of the bride, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." Preceding the ceremony the organist played a melody of Tau Kappa Epsilon sweet-heart songs. Jack Rickel of Roseburg was best man and the ushers were John Braun of Wenatchee, Wash., and Ted Ranlett of Spokane.

Mrs. Harmon, mother of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of mauve chiffon over satin, matching orchid headress and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was in grey crepe, floor length, with which she wore a matching grey and orchid headress and an orchid corsage.

The refreshment table for the reception in the Mirror Room of Eugene Hotel was bordered with pink sweet peas and fern, a colonial bouquet of pastel flowers centering the table. Mrs. Ralph Pence presided at the reception. Mrs. James D. Nally Sr. of Nashville, Tenn., aunt of the bride, Mrs. James Burrows of McMinnville, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jane Weber of Portland served the cake. Miss Eleanor Thomas of Klamath Falls presided at the punch bowl and Miss Jean Young had the guest book. All wore floor-length dresses of pastel shades with corsages of pink roses and white carnations.

The couple drove to Seattle for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a light blue suit with grey accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will be at home in Eugene.

Both the bride and groom are 1949 graduates from University of Oregon where she was a Sigma Kappa and he a Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. James D. Nally Sr., Nashville, Tenn., who is remaining indefinitely to visit in the Harmon home, Jack Rickel, Richard C. Preston, Miss Ruth A. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Preston and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Preston, all of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Yelton, Miss Jane Weber and Miss Clydene Bush, all of Portland; Mrs. James Burrows of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bishop, Mrs. Eleanor Thomas, Miss Shirley Mason, Miss Mary Havens, Miss Barbara Osburn, Mrs. Carl Mason, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, and John Hamacher of Medford; John Braun of Wenatchee, Wash. and Ted Ranlett of Spokane.

MISSION RALLY AND SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC IS LARGE AFFAIR SUNDAY

The joint mission rally and Sunday school picnic of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Roseburg and St. John's Lutheran church of Sutherlin was a large and very enjoyable affair of Sunday at the veterans hospital picnic grounds.

The morning service opened at ten-thirty o'clock with Rev. Richard Gross of Cottage Grove presenting the powerful sermon on the text, "We must redeem the times." The joint choir of the two churches, under the direction of Mrs. H. Perkey, sang "O Praise and Bless the Lord," by Bach. There were more than 200 members and friends of the two churches in attendance. A delegation from Trinity Lutheran church in Cottage Grove and also from Trinity Lutheran church in Oregon City also enjoyed the occasion.

The entire offering for the day was set aside for the mission treasury of the Lutheran church. A potluck luncheon was enjoyed at noon with ladies of both congregations in charge. Games and contests were enjoyed by the young as well as the adults in addition to a baseball game played by men of the two churches and a team of veterans from the hospital.

W.B.A. HAS INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The W.B.A. held an interesting meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Cecil Hays on West Lane street Thursday afternoon. A good attendance was present and plans were made for a picnic luncheon at one o'clock August 11 to be held at the Havens-Wellie home on Fullerton street. Members are asked to each bring a guest as a prospective member.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Hays served lovely refreshments.

To make a Nesselrode frosting for a white cake add a little rum marshino cherries, and a few chopped marrons to a boiled frosting. Sprinkle the top of the frosted cake with shavings of sweet chocolate.
