

Mr. and Mrs. La Vern Marsters

Picture by Clark's Studio

Miss Barbara Schell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schell of Roseburg, became the bride of La Vern Marsters, son of L. L. Marsters of this city, and Mrs. Carl Jensen, of The Dalles, at the First Presbyterian church July 22, at eight o'clock in the evening. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

The decorations were baskets of yellow gladiolas and pink chrysanthemums, flanked by candelabra holding white candles and a huge icicle floor candle centering the altar. The aisles were marked with white satin ribbons and the pews were marked with white satin bows tied with sprays of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Homer Grow played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Joseph Deets, who sang, "Because," and "O Perfect Love." Joyce Ball of Yuba City, Calif., wore pastel blue and lighted the altar candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white nylon marquisette gown fashioned with tiers of lace ruffles from the waistline front to the hemline. The skirt ended in a full court train and the yoke of the bodice was outlined with a lace ruffle. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was edged with wide lace and was held in place by a coronet of starched lace embroidered with seed pearls. She wore a double strand of pearls and carried a fan fashioned of silk lace and centered with a white orchid outlined with staphenotis.

Miss Euarda Westlund was maid of honor; Mrs. Don Reed and Mrs. Jeffery Currier were bridesmaids and Sandra Schell, cousin of the bride, and Myrna Marsters, step-sister of the bridegroom, were flower girls. They wore gowns of contrasting shades of blue. The matron of honor carried a large white tulle heart outlined with yellow roses and the bridesmaids carried white tulle hearts outlined with pink speciosum lilies.

Dale Lander was best man and ushers were Wilford Schell, brother of the bride, and Wesley Ashworth Jr.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Bess Tharp of Berkeley, Calif., and the punch was served by Mrs. M. E. Mumbler of Roseburg.

The bride's mother wore a grey ensemble with green accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a gold suit with brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of purple orchids.

Friends and relatives gathered later at the home of the bride's parents to see the couple off. For traveling the bride chose a blue suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Following a honeymoon to The Dalles, Oregon coast points and to Washington, the couple returned to Roseburg, where they will remain until next month, when they will move to Corvallis, where Mr. Marsters will attend Oregon State college.

The bride and bridegroom were recently featured on Lawson's jewelry store bride-of-the-week program over KRNR radio station.

Picture by Clark's Studio

Miss Jean Wilcox, daughter of George M. Wilcox of Oakland, became the bride of E. Jerry Whipple, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whipple of Drain, Saturday, July 2, at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Cottage Grove Methodist Church. Rev. W. N. Byars, of Drain, performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

Mrs. Gordon Stewart of Roseburg, cousin of the bridegroom, played the wedding music and accompanied Jim Whipple of Drain, brother of the bridegroom, who sang, "At Dawning," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Norma Jean Wilcox, niece of the bride, and gowned in a turquoise blue formal, lighted the candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white satin Princess style wedding gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, scalloped bodice and long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist. The skirt ended in a full court train. The circular veil was edged with lace and was held in place by headband of satin, net, seedpearls and edged with lace. She carried pink rosebuds and staphenotis with a shower of white satin ribbons. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Jim Whipple, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of sea-foam green moire taffeta. She carried a matching net fan with flower corsage.

Miss Dorothy Jerauld of Drain, half-sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. William Upham, son of Portland, and Mrs. Dale Woodruff, of Eugene, were bridesmaids. Miss Jerauld wore a pink faille taffeta; Mrs. Upham wore yellow faille taffeta and Mrs. Woodruff wore blue faille taffeta, designed alike with full skirts and short sleeves. They carried fans to match their gowns and corsages of pastel blossoms.
