Plywood Wins Softball Series Opener

Squirts Lose, 6 To 4, After 6th Frame Tie

Baughman's Pitching. Better Team Batting Offset Victors' Errors

The Umpqua Plywood softball team has its pitcher, Roy Baughman, to thank for the 6-4 win it garnered out of the Scherner Squirts in the first of a two-out-of-three game playoff series at Finlay field last night.

Six bobbles by the millworkers put the Squirts in scoring position enough times to make the game an interesting nine-inning affair, but Baughman held the opposing batters to four scrittered hits. I ran acrothe two runs that were needed to put Plywood in the winning column.

Two Squirts pitchers failed to hold the Plyword nine. 'aloh Sanstede gave un five hits in seven innings, while Swede V_ug, coming in late in the game, was tapped for three bingles. Vang Wild in Ninth Plywood's final run, in the ninth, came as a result of four consecutive walks assued by Jang.

Squirts gained a 2-1 lea going into the second, ien Lovell Baker, who singled, scored after the catch on a fly-out. Then Fr-d Scherner tallied in the same frame on a Plywood error. Plywood's J. White scored the ist run of the game on a walk and three bassed balls.

In the third, a Squirts error—their only one in the game—proved to be costly. Saughman got to first on the bobble, while Bill Garrison, who drew a base hit, scored or the same miscue. In the —cantime, Charlie Hopkins scored after Bill Marsters filed out.

Plywood went ahead in the seventh when Baughman, who singled, put the score at 5-4 by crossing home on Garrison's double. And in the ninth, the mill-workers scored when Vang walked across a run.

A sizable crowd saw Sanstede strike out one man; give up five walks. Vang struck out one, gave up e walks and Baughman fanned three, limited bases on balls to two.

LaBelle Tough Bout; Dusette Will Take On Russian Meanie

Navy Al Williams, the Chicago villain who meets Pierre LaBelle in a three-fall wrestling preliminary at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night, is currently the hottest grappler now knocking over top-flight matmen in the Pacific Northwest. Williams, one of the truly great veterans of the sport, has been unbeaten in the Northwest since his return some weeks ago. He doesn't count losses because of disqualification—and he has dropped numerous technical verdicts because of unnecessary roughness and the use of illegal tactics.

Chiefs To Battle
Powers Tonight

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs are especially anxious to win tonight's game, when they meet the Powers Athletic club in an exhibition tussie at Finlay field. Last year—just about this time—Powers defeated the Chiefs by a 5-3 score. The Chiefs are extremely anxious to erase this black mark from the books forevermore, according to Chiefs Manager Earl Sargent.

Tonight's contest may be a grim affair, as either Vic Lewis or Wally Richardson take to the hill. Every pitching device in the book is expected to be used by either of the revenge-seeking hurlers, Manager Sargent divulged.
