Marry At Christian Church On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John Gary Piper

Picture by Master Studio

Miss Nona Belle Bruton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royd W. Bruton of Roseburg, became the bride of John Gary Piper of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Piper of Independence, Ore., Sunday, August 7, at the First Christian church. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the impressive single ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of 200 friends and relatives.

An all-pink motif was carried out in the decorations to match the gowns worn by the bride and her attendants. Huge floor baskets of gladioli, flanked by candelabra holding tall pink tapers banked the altar. Decorations were in charge of Miss Carrie Miller.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the pipe organ and accompanied Miss Marilyn Dixon, who sang, "Because," preceding the ceremony and at the close of the service sang, "The Lord's Prayer." Both Mrs. Grow and Miss Dixon were in pink formal gowns. Mrs. Grow played the traditional wedding marches.

All of the bride's attendants were classmates in the 1948 Roseburg high school class. The carzies were lighted by Miss Lorraine Losee and Miss Edith Poirot, who wore pink dotted Swiss gowns with wristlets of pink rosebuds.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a floor length gown of pink marquisette fashioned with a Princess bodice and full skirt with lace inserts. Lace inserts also trimmed the short puff sleeves and edged the train. Her finger-tip veil was of pink nylon and was held in place by a coronet of pink orange blossoms. She carried a large colonial bouquet centered with pink carnations with a sunburst of pink rosebuds and tied with loops of lace and pink satin ribbons.

Miss Irene Trapalis was maid of honor and wore a gown of pink dotted Swiss fashioned with a full skirt made with three tiers of ruffles. Miss Nancy Radabaugh and Miss Ardyth Andrus were bridesmaids and wore gowns of pink or gandy fashioned to match the maid of honor's. The attendants wore halo bonnets and carried colonial bouquets of Shirley Temple gladioli.

David Piper of Independence was best man for his brother and Tom Carter and Charles Taylor were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a pink flowered crepe dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Baskets of pink gladioli formed the room decorations. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over a pink foundation and was centered with a three-tiered cake decorated in pink and white and topped by a bridal couple and flanked by candelabra holding pink candles. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Earl Agee, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Roy Havens.

Mrs. O. D. McAllister and Mrs. E. P. Blundell, aunts of the bride, posed. Mrs. Ralph Sinclair and Mrs. William E. Albin, aunts of the bridegroom, served the cake. Mrs. L. A. Miles and Mrs. Grant Osborn assisted in serving. Miss Carrie Miller had charge of the guest book and Miss Mary McKinney was in charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of fuchsia-colored gladioli. Following a honeymoon to coast points, they will be at home to their friends at 1118 Fairhaven.

The bride was recently chosen as "Bride of the Week" on Lawson's Jewlry store KRNR radio program. Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg high school in 1948, after which the former was employed at the Roseburg branch of the U. S. National bank. The bridegroom is employed at Robertson's Shell service station.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John Piper and son, David, of Independence, Ore.; (parents and brother of the bridegroom); Dr. and Mrs. D. G. Clark of Harrisburg (grandparents of the bridegroom); Mr. and Mrs. A. Bruton of Drain (grandparents of the bride); Mr. and Mrs. William E. Albin of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sinclair and two daughters

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC AT PLAYMORE

The American Federation of Musicians Local 539 held the annual picnic Sunday at Playmore gardens. The delightful event portrayed an enjoyable concert of all local members in "Jam session" with a number of outstanding soloist numbers.

Dick Firman, delegate to the National convention held in San Francisco in June, gave an interesting report of the fine work and protection of musicians under the direction of James Petrillo. In his talk, he expressed the Roseburg's local membership as desirous to extend cooperation to all civic organizations in the musicians presenting music and quoted a wire from President Truman to James Petrillo for success in his program to go into effect at once for the sincere enjoyment of the public and the protection of musicians.

Election of officers gave chairs of honor to Wanda W. Althaus, president; Edward Kenny, vice-president; Bruce V. Gilley, secretary-treasurer and executive board members: Dick Firman, Lou Franco and Pete Wright.

Marry At Impressive Home Wedding, Aug. 4

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick M. Stora Jr.

Picture by Clark's Studio

Miss Shirley Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd N. Wilson of Roseburg, became the bride of Frederick M. Stora Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Stora Sr., also of Roseburg, at the home of the bride's parents, August 4, at eight o'clock in the evening. Rev. W. A. MacArthur of the First Methodist church performed the impressive single ring ceremony in the presence of 25 relatives and close friends of the couple.

The decorations were large baskets of white gladioli flanked by candelabra in front of a large picture window.

Mrs. Gordon Stewart played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Marilyn Dixon, who sang "At Dawning" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. Miss Patsie Claghorn of Seattle, Washington, lighted the candles. She wore a green faille suit and brown accessories.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a pink gabardine suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a large white orchid tied with white satin streamers and Stephanotis. Miss Gloria Gaston was maid of honor. She wore a brown gabardine suit with white and ice blue accessories. Her bouquet was a white gardenia circled with blue carnations and tied with blue ribbon and net.

King Moore was best man. A reception followed the ceremony. The bridal couple cut the first piece of the wedding cake and Mrs. John Havens, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake. Mr. L. F. Wilson presided at the punch bowl and Miss Aylene Gibson was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of tan and brown and the bridegroom's mother wore pale blue with brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias and rosebuds.

For traveling the bride wore the suit in which she was married. Her corsage was a white orchid. After a short wedding trip to California, the couple will be at home in Alameda, Calif., where Mr. Stora is stationed by the U. S. navy.
