Following the showing of the pictures, delicious refreshments were served.

EARTHQUAKE SURVIVORS.—Makeshift tents and cots in a square at Ambato, Ecuador, serve as a temporary shelter for survivors of the earthquake which devastated a large portion of this small South American country. Ambato, city of 20,000 population, was in the center of the 4,000-square-mile area rocked by the quake. An accurate death toll may never be known because many of the victims are buried beneath tons of rubble and most survivors have scattered.

PARTY LINE.—The rising cost of puppy biscuits in Holland, Mich., poses quite a problem for Beauty, who recently became the proud mama of an even dozen pups. The white registered collie has a near-record number of mouths to feed and should be boning up on the thought that "They come cheaper by the dozen."

The next regular meeting will be at a noon potluck luncheon August 24th at the church.

Appetizers For Summer Buffet

By GAYNOR MADDOX

For a summer buffet, to serve with iced tea or coffee, make appetizing "tulpas" out of shrimp and tomatoes. Garnish the tray with "calla lily" sandwiches and radish "roses."

Shrimp Tomato Tulpas (8 servings)
Two 5-ounce cans shrimp, drained, 1 cup grated cabbage, 1/2 cup finely diced celery, 1/2 cup minced green pepper, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 8 tomatoes.

Shred shrimp, reserving 8 for garnish. Add cabbage, celery, green pepper, onion, mayonnaise and lemon juice; mix thoroughly. Chill. Wash tomatoes. Using a sharp knife, cut from center of bottom to stem end petal fashion; hollow out center slightly. Pile stuffing in center of each tomato; garnish with whole shrimp.

Deviled Shrimp (4 servings)
One 5-ounce can shrimp, drained, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 4 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 2 1/2 cups milk, 3 hard-cooked eggs, sieved, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1/8 teaspoon tabasco, 1 cup buttered soft bread crumbs.

Break shrimp into pieces; add lemon juice. Melt butter, add flour, dry mustard, pepper and paprika. Stir to a smooth paste. Add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add shrimp, sieved eggs, parsley and tabasco. Turn into individual scallop shells or casseroles. Sprinkle with bread crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes or until brown.

Herring Potato Salad (Serves 6)
One quart diced, cooked potatoes, 1/2 cups smoked herring, coarsely chopped, 1 teaspoon finely minced onion, 2/3 cup French dressing, 1 hard-cooked egg, diced, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, sliced pickled beets and dill pickles.

Use firm potatoes which will not break when diced. Blend with herring and onion, pour French dressing over and let stand half an hour. Add egg and parsley, toss all lightly together, pile high in serving dish and garnish with beets and pickles.

Add grated Swiss cheese to a cream sauce for abbage of cauliflower. The creamed vegetable may then be put in a casserole, topped with buttered bread or cracker crumbs, and baked.

SHE KNOWS A BETTER WAY.—While Shirley May France and other swimmers train for the grueling task of swimming the English Channel, Mrs. Eetta Hills, above, of Southsea, England, prefers to make the crossing in a more leisurely manner. Astride her "waterbike," Mrs. Hills chats with radio announcer Derek Roy, who has arranged a race across the Channel between Mrs. Hills and a gentleman challenger. The English housewife pedaled across the Channel as a young girl, and is confident she can beat all comers.

Next time you make double boiler scrambled eggs stir in some cottage cheese just before serving. Let the cheese heat through. Add crisp triangles of toast, currant jelly, and coffee, and you'll have a delicious breakfast.
