Western Douglas county swim-ming classes, conducted under Red Cross supervision at Lake Cleawox, are coming to a close, reported Douglas Simms, execu-tive secretary of the local chapter. tive secretary of the local chapter. The program, said Simms, has been very successful in that 30 participants qualified for begin-ner certificates; 18 participants qualified for intermediate certifi-cates; 10 successfully completed the swimmers course, and 12 qualified for junior life saving certificates.

certificates. Robert Sund, water safety chairman at Reedsport, advised that an additional class in senior life saving is being conducted un-der the able tutelage of Miss Jan Parker, Red Cross water safety instructor at Lake Cleawox.

Instructor at Lake Cleawox. Those who successfully com-pleted the junior life saving course are: Richard Bachmeir, Bobby Brummette, Daniel Camp-bell; James Campbell, BiH Earls, Jack Jensen, Donald Hevel, Lorie Johnson, Larry Kirk, Richard Kirk, Irvine Orie and John Town-send
