

Typo Union Head Arouses Anger By Pension Maneuver At Convention; Faces Election Campaign Battle

OAKLAND, Calif., Aug. 18. — (AP) — President Woodruff Randolph got paid-up pension benefits for himself and other international typographical union officers on the ITU books today. But he's going to hear plenty about it.

Spokesmen for the anti-Randolph minority within the union seized upon the pension voted by the 91st ITU convention yesterday. It was steamrollered through, they said; and it was illegal in the first place.

The administration forces denied both charges.

The anti-Randolph bloc earlier suffered another major defeat. It could muster only 50 votes to 258 in trying to block an amendment giving the ITU chief full power to approve or reject all local contracts.

Randolph interpreted the decision as a rebuke to locals at odds with his collective bargaining policy.

The opposition group — the ITU's "independent party" — indicated it was prepared to make the pension an issue in the forthcoming union election campaign along with Randolph's strict contract policy.

Meanwhile, Charles Tucker of Indianapolis, a party caucus leader, announced a tentative and partial slate to oppose Randolph and his "progressive party."

For president, Clifford G. Sparkman, long-time president of the Detroit local; first vice president, John R. Evans, Washington, D. C.; defeated by Randolph in the May, 1948, election, and secretary-treasurer, George Barte, Chicago.

Two more vice presidential candidates will be picked later. The election — by mail ballot — is set for next May 17.

Randolph has given no indication he intends to step down. His personal plea in favor of pensions for international officers led to lobby talk that he would not seek re-election. Friends have discounted the speculation.

This is what the convention, by a one-sided vote, granted:

Pensions of one-half the highest pay of ITU officers and employees who have served 20 or more years.

Randolph has 20 years already — 15 as secretary-treasurer; the remainder as president. His union salary now is $10,000 a year. The three vice presidents and secretary-treasurer receive $7,500 each.

Pensions of $10 per week for each two-year term for officers and employees with less than 20 years service. (In essence, that means if a man serves for two years, he receives $10 a week; if he serves four years, he gets $20 per week and so forth.)

The convention previously increased weekly checks for the ITU's 7,000 pensioners from $15 to $16.

Brothers Cross Atlantic Ocean In 20-Foot Sailboat

DARTMOUTH, England, Aug. 18. — (AP) — Two daring British brothers completed today an epic 2,700-mile Atlantic crossing in a homemade 20-foot sailboat.

Stanley Smith, 30, and his brother, Colin, 29, both veterans of the Royal air force, set foot on land for the first time since leaving Halifax, N. S., in their cockleshell craft 43 days ago.

After successfully braving storms, thirst and starvation for more than six weeks without aid, the brothers had to accept a tow from a harbor launch to make their triumphant entrance. The wind failed them 500 yards off shore.

The Smith brothers emigrated to Canada last February. While on the liner crossing the Atlantic, they designed their little craft with the idea of using it on cruises through the Canadian lakes.

After they built it the craft looked so seaworthy that they decided to have a sporting try at crossing the Atlantic.

They christened their craft the Nova Espero (New Hope) and set out from Halifax.

Their father, Stanley Smith, is a coxswain in the lifeboat service at Yarmouth, Isle of Wight. He flew to Dartmouth yesterday to greet his sons.

Army Numbers Lag While Other Units Increase

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. — (AP) — The Defense department reported today that the army lost rank in July while the Navy, Air Force and Marines gained.

The combined armed forces strength on July 1 was estimated in preliminary reports as 1,616,600. This is an increase of 2,300 over the 1,614,300 on June 30.

Army strength on July 1 stood at 658,500 compared with 660,500 on June 30.

Army personnel officials said they expect a pickup in enlistments, and added there is no present plan to reimpose the draft.

Two more vice presidential candidates will be picked later. The election — by mail ballot — is set for next May 17.
