

Racing Fans Given Thrills On Third Night

Joe Hungerford Hurt; Lucky Ticket Holders Make Biggest Returns

Douglas county's horse racing fans got plenty of thrills last night at the fairgrounds, where the third night of the 10-day horse meeting was run off before 2,300 spectators.

Besides the meet's leading jockey getting hurt, a million to one chance materialized, and the biggest return of the season was made to lucky ticket holders.

Joe Hungerford was thrown from his horse Lee Moore after the first race and sent to Mercy hospital with a fractured ankle. Hungerford had ridden three winners in the first two days but the accident puts him out of commission for the duration of the season.

In the sixth race the six-horse field finished the event in the exact order of their starting posts, one through six, supposedly a million to one chance.

Payoff Horse
And in the third race a payoff of $16.20 for a $2 ticket was made for the ripest haul so far this meeting. Payoffs for win tickets were good all evening, with one $9.80 and two $7 returns, and a pair of $6 payoffs, besides the big one.

Tonight's racing will complete the first part of the 10-day running, as Oregon law prohibits Sunday races. But the track and the pari-mutuel windows will open Monday night for business as usual.

Disabled veterans of both wars from the Roseburg Veterans' hospital will be guests of the Umpqua Jockey club at the races Monday night. Approximately 70 vets, expected to attend will be given box seats.

A five furlong thoroughbred race has been added to the agenda for tonight, making eight races, four quarter horse sprints and four of the longer thoroughbred variety.

Jockey Strauss Wins
In the opening race last night Kay Vee, under Jockey Bob Strauss, broke first and led all the way to skim across the finish line a one-length winner in a 220-yard quarter horse event. Lee Moore broke right behind the victor and held second on the turn, but Diamond H pulled past on the stretch, to place. Lee Moore showed and then dumped Joe Hungerford.

In the second running, a five-furlong thoroughbred race, Boynton broke after Tets Bets, but went right to the rail and into the lead after the turn, by a length. Bienvenue was second by two and pushing hard and closed to a half-length on the back stretch. Tets Bet and Padre Juan went wide the rest of the way, and El Mosco moved up to third. DOUGLAS COUNTY SWIM MEET ENTRIES

Above are two Roseburg swimmers expected to help bring home the bacon in Sunday's swimming meet to be held at the Roseburg municipal pool, starting 7:30 p. m. The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored all-county meet is expected to draw entries from over the county. A large number of local swimmers are scheduled to participate, according to swimming Coach Bill Evans. Left above is Devon Avon and right is Iver Hilde, two outstanding swimmers on the local team. Entries are being taken until 5 o'clock Sunday night. No entry fee will be charged and the meet is free to the public. (Staff photo.)

Douglas County Swimming Meet Here On Sunday

Douglas county novice swimmers will be at the Roseburg pool Sunday night to participate in the first annual Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored all-county swimming meet.

Roseburg swimming coach Bill Evans said entries are continuing to pour in and a large turnout of contestants is expected to be on hand.

Several entries from Drain, Myrtle Creek and other points in the county have indicated they will compete.

Coach Evans said the Roseburg team will have a considerable turnout for nearly every event.

Highlighting the affair will be a swimming competition between the Roseburg team and members of the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman Al Hughes, assistant police chief, said any novice swimmers in the county are eligible to enter provided they sign up by 5 o'clock Sunday. Meet time is 7:30 p. m.

The swimming meet is free to the public.

Ellis Kinder Pays Off To Red Sox Team

Washington Shutout 6-0; Sox Only Two Games Behind Yanks

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Editor
Ellis Kinder, dropped by the New York Yankee organization eight years ago, is finally paying off on the $65,000 investment made on him by the Boston Red Sox in 1947.

Entrusted with few starting assignments the 35-year-old Kinder showed only a mediocre 4-4 record by June 12 this season.

Then, without warning, Kinder got hotter than the mid-summer weather. He reeled off 11 straight victories in games in which he was a starter. His only defeat during the last two months came in an relief role.

Kinder reached his peak last night when he shut out the Washington Senators 6-0, on three singles. It was his fifth straight triumph and his 15th of the year against five defeats. Not even 18-game winning Mel Parnell, the league's biggest winner and Kinder's teammate, has pitched better during the last eight weeks.

Six Runs Off Six Hits
The Red Sox collected only six hits themselves, but benefitted by Dick Weik's wildness to tally six runs in three innings to win their eighth straight from the Senators.

The victory enabled the Sox to remain four games behind the pace-setting Yankees, who came from behind to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-4. It also kept them in second place, a game in front of the Cleveland Indians, who shut out the Chicago White Sox, 2-0. The hapless Senators now have lost nine straight and 32 out of their last 36 games.

The National league pennant race is all knotted up again following Brooklyn's victory and St. Louis' defeat last night. Brooklyn won a 6-4, 12-inning thriller from the Boston Braves, while the Cardinals bowed to the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-2.

Phillies Beat Giants
The fifth place Philadelphia Phillies moved to within half a game of third when they beat the New York Giants, 7-1. They trail the fourth place Braves by a fraction of a percentage point. Chicago's Cubs whipped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-4, in the battle for the cellar. Detroit divided a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns, winning the second game, 4-2 after the Browns had won the opener, 4-3. Rain halted the second game after six innings.

Tommy Henrich was the big gun in the Yankees' victory over the Mackays. After four Philadelphia errors had enabled the Yankees to pull even at 4-4, Henrich singled in two tallies in the sixth to break the tie, then hammered his 22nd home run in the eighth to give relief pitcher Duane Pillette the victory.

Mike Garcia, with help from Alton Benton, pitched the Indians to their shutout win over the White Sox. A home run by Bob Kennedy, followed by Garcia's double and Dale Mitchell's single, accounted for the two runs off Randy Gumpert.

Brooklyn blew a 4-0 lead in the ninth, but came back to tally twice in the top of the 12th to beat the Braves. Duke Snider's double and Red Barrett sent in the tie-breaking runs.

Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner batted in five runs with a single and his 33rd homer to wreck the Cardinals. Cliff Chambers scattered seven hits for his ninth victory against three defeats.

Marcel Cerdan Returns To "Get My Title Back"

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(AP)—Marcel Cerdan is here to "get my title back."

"I came back to the United States to win," the former middleweight champion said shortly after docking yesterday on the Ile De France.

Cerdan will meet middleweight champion Jake Lamotta at the Polo Grounds Sept. 28. Lamotta won the title from Cerdan last June when the Frenchman had to give up because of a shoulder injury.

Wrestling Fans Assured Hot Action On Tonight's Program

Two strong contenders for the Pacific coast junior heavyweight wrestling championship, George Dusette and Al Williams, tangle in the one-hour grappling headliner at the Roseburg armory tonight.

The winner has been promised a match against Frankie Stojack and possibly an eventual meeting with Jack McLaughlin of Vancouver, B. C., who copped the crown from Stojack. It will be Williams' hammerlock and usual villainous tactics against Dusette's new combined headlock-full nelson attack.

A three-fall special skirmish is also attracting considerable interest, opening the program at 8:30 p. m. The bout will bring together Al Stasz, fast-moving whip-wristlock expert, against Tony Falletti, the rough and tough Italian from Brooklyn. The match should pack plenty of wallop because Falletti is determined to avenge a defeat suffered at the hands of Stasz here some weeks ago.

Elton Owen will be on hand to referee both bouts.

Dick Jacobson Wins Tennis Title From Strickling

Close action was the rule in this week's finals for the junior men's city tennis singles tournament which saw Dick Jacobson edge his doubles partner, Ronnie Strickling, for the city crown.

Although extended in all three sets, Jacobson set down his opponent 7-5, 6-4, 7-5.

Jacobson had won his way into the finals by previously defeating Larry Henninger, Gene Henry and Ronnie Groves. Strickling reached the finals with wins over Roy Van Horn, John Rauschert and Wayne Henninger.

Marlen Yoder, Y.M.C.A. general secretary and tournament director, said only one match has been played in the doubles tournament. As a result, he said definite playing dates must be arranged in order to finish the play. Failure to play these matches by the dates given will result in a forfeit, he said.

All first round matches must be completed by Aug. 23. Slated for the first round are Wilkerson, Henry vs. Morgan-Booth, and Rauschert-Weber vs. Jacobson-Strickling. Van Horn-Henninger will meet the winner of the first matches and W. Henninger-Groves will play the second winners, with play to be completed by Aug. 28.

The final playoff round will be played before Sept. 3.

In addition, Yoder asked that all competitors remember to play consolation games so that a consolation winner may be determined.

Umpqua Chiefs To Face Grants Pass In Sunday Game

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs face Grants Pass in the final southern Oregon league battle of the current baseball season Sunday at Grants Pass.

In other league games throughout southern Oregon, Myrtle Creek will be visited by Medford, Ashland goes to Crescent City and Prospect plays at Central Point.

The Chiefs must win this one to keep from finishing in a possible tie with either Ashland or Central Point, depending upon whether the latter two clubs win their games this week.

If Roseburg loses and Ashland or Central Point or both wins, a playoff will be held to decide the league winner.

Medford and Myrtle Creek are in the unenviable position of trying to place as the anchor team in the four-way Shaughnessy playoff. One must drop out, and Sunday will determine which team does the dropping.

The four top teams will play for the Shaughnessy cup starting Sunday, Aug. 28.

LAST HOPE WINNERS

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 20.—(AP)—Wimbledon winners "Pancha" Gonzales and the veteran Frankie Parker were this nation's last hopes in today's national doubles tennis semi-finals at Longwood.

They are down for what seems certain to be a sizzling match against Australia's top aces, left-handed Jack Bromwich and Billy Sidwell.
