

Mrs. Roger Olmscheid and Susan Jo

Picture by Master Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Olmscheid and their two and a half year old daughter, Susan Jo, have arrived in Roseburg from their home in Sioux City, Iowa, to spend the remainder of the month visiting Mr. Olmscheid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Olmscheid, on East Douglas street, and with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Knudson (Wanda Olmscheid). They made the trip west by train.

Mr. Olmscheid is general agent for the Occidental Life Insurance company with headquarters in Sioux City. He attended the Roseburg schools, prior to serving in the navy during world war II.

MARY ELIZABETH MORRIS BECOMES BRIDE SUNDAY OF MELFORD BARTZ

Miss Mary Elizabeth Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Morris of Gardiner, became the bride of Melford Otto Bartz, of Lawrence, Kan., at the M. E. church at Gardiner Sunday, August 14th, at four o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. R. L. Dunn of Roseburg performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a two piece white pique dress with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped by a spray of baby orchids. Nancy Baldridge and the bride's brother, Samuel L. Morris Jr., were attendants.

Mrs. Ray Fuller, pianist played "The Bells of St. Marys," preceding the wedding and accompanied Mrs. William Kranz, Mrs. Ronald Heckman and Miss Betty Erickson of Gardiner (the three are sisters), who sang, "I Love You Truly." At the close of the ceremony, Mr. Morris Jr., sang "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed, at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut and served. An interesting feature is that Mrs. R. L. Dunn of Roseburg and Miss Mable Mallory, who had just arrived from Lawrence, Kan., for a visit, were former school teachers of the four Morris children, while they were residents of Lawrence, Kan.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Morris, parents of the bride; their oldest son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Morris Jr., and children from Longview, Wash.; a brother and sister of the bride, James and Rose Marie Morris, and William MacDowell, Yuba A. Angus, Virginia Grubbe, Florette Janelle, Evelyn High, Louis A. High, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Dunn of Roseburg, Miss Mable Mallory, of Lawrence, Kan., Clare Melvin, Mildred Honeyman, Louise Kranz, Ruth Heckman, Mrs. H. Erickson, Betty Erickson, Shirley Humphrey, Mrs. Pauline Heckman, Mrs. Mary R. Sagaberd, Marie Fuller and Mable Simons.

Dr. and Mrs. Dunn and Miss Mallory enjoyed the fellowship in the Morris home and a delightful dinner preceding the wedding ceremony. The bride was graduated from Lawrence, Kansas, high school in 1949. Her family moved to Gardiner two years ago and she remained in Lawrence to complete her high school education. The bridegroom is a senior at Kansas University in Lawrence, where he is majoring in electrical engineering. They will leave August 22 for Lawrence to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKay

Picture by Clark's Studio

Miss Phyllis Croy, daughter of Mrs. Eva Lakey, Tenmile, and Leslie J. Croy, Spray, Oregon, became the bride of Jack McKay, son of Mrs. Jack McKay Sr., of Bend, Oregon, Saturday, August 6, at 8 o'clock in the evening in a candlelight ceremony in the Tenmile church. Rev. W. W. Appleplay performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

The church was decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Minnie Melius and Mrs. Loue Wood. Large bouquets of pastel gladioli were flanked by candelabra, entwined with fern and rosebuds, which held white candles. A bower of roses and ivy served as the background. The pews were marked by large white bows.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Norma Murdock played softly on the piano, and accompanied Mrs. Vera Stackhouse who sang, "Because" and "My Hero," preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Stackhouse played the traditional wedding marches. The candles were lighted by Kay and Conrad Lakey, sister and brother of the bride. Little Linda McDaniel was the flower girl. She wore a colonial style pink organza gown with matching poke bonnet style halo. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white duchess satin gown, with a fitted bodice, a yoke of charitably lace and long lace sleeves which came to a point at the wrist. Her finger tip net veil, edged with matching lace, fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and rubrum lilies, and wore a double strand of pearls.

Miss Wilda Hall of Sweet Home, Oregon, was maid of honor and wore a gown fashioned of orchid nylon and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bride's uncle, Warren Lockwood, was best man and ushers were Douglas and Edward Croy, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Lakey, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue ensemble with white accessories. Mrs. McKay, the bridegroom's mother, was in a royal blue dress with matching hat. Both mothers wore corsages of gladioli.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lockwood. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, and was graced by a three tiered wedding cake and punch bowl. Pouring and assisting were the Mesdames Irma Vance, Lois McDaniel, Ann Lockwood, Bette Lockwood and Eva Lakey. Miss Lois McKay, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride chose a luggage brown suit with emerald green accessories. Following a honeymoon to coast points, the couple will make their home in Tenmile.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Morris of Myrtle Point, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Spencer of Coos Bay, Miss Wilda Hall and Mr. Lucky Jenkins of Sweet Home, Oregon, Mrs. Jack McKay Sr., and Miss Lois McKay of Bend, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Kreiger and son of Grants Pass, Oregon (maternal grandparents of the bridegroom), Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Croy, Edward and Mary Lou Croy of Spray, Oregon.

MRS. CLARK LEEDY IS GUEST SPEAKER AT JAY-CETTE MEETING
Mrs. Clark Leedy was guest speaker on the subject of making corsages at a very interesting meeting of the Jay-Cettes Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Al Fray. Mrs. Leedy, who has been attending school in New York, is home for the summer to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins, on Riverside Drive in Laurelwood. Mrs. Leedy demonstrated the making of corsages during her talk.

Mrs. Clark Taylor reported on the recent hayride sponsored by the group for members and the Jay-Cettes.

Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Fray to Mrs. Leedy, guest, and Mrs. Charles E. Hart, president, Mrs. Don Gum, Mrs. Clark Taylor, Mrs. Al Hughes, Mrs. Walt Brittelle, Mrs. Le Roy Inman, Mrs. Robert Sablin, Mrs. Eldon Howard, Mrs. George McIntosh, Mrs. John Patton and Mrs. Glenn Scott.
