

Umpqua Chiefs Down Grants Pass, 7-1

Winners Score All Tallies In First 3 Frames

Victory Crowns Chiefs As Tentative Champions Of So. Oregon League

Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs became tentative Southern Oregon league champions by defeating Grants Pass, 7-1, their final South ern Oregon league action of Sun day afternoon. The game was played on the loser's field.

In 14 league games, the Chiefs lost only three times—once to Myrtle Creek and twice to Central Point.

The official league champion will be determined in the Shaughnessy playoffs, at which time the four top clubs will participate in a single elimination series. Ashland, Central Point and Medford are the other three clubs. Myrtle Creek, defeated 8-3 by Medford yesterday, was eliminated from Shaughnessy play.

Yesterday's game at Grants Pass saw the Chiefs get all their runs in the first three innings. Grants Pass' lone tally came in the sixth inning, with Al Fleishman doing the allaying.

Grants Pass used two pitchers in an attempt to halt the Chiefs' scoring drive. At the top of the third, Jack Lutz replaced starting pitcher McComas, and two more runs were scored off the new pitcher.

Roseburg garnered 15 hits off both hurlers, including home runs by Earl Hampton and Barney Koch, a triple by Mel Krause and a double by George Sanders.

Chiefs Win Early Hampton started the Chiefs off in the right direction by getting a base hit his first time at bat. George Sanders scored him in with the triple, then Jerry Huggins singled in Sanders.

Barney Koch started the second frame with a one-base hit; scored on pitcher Krause's triple. Krause scored on Hampton's home run—the fifth one for the Chiefs' third baseman this year.

In the third inning, West drew a base hit and scored on Koch's home run. Chiefs' batters continued to tap the ball, but no more Roseburg runs were scored.

Starting hurler Mel Krause won the game for the Chiefs. He gave up only seven hits. Don Reed took over in the seventh, after Krause had the game sewed up.

The Chiefs are tentatively scheduled to battle the north Douglas county All-Stars again this week at Drain under the lights.

Squirts Defeat Coos Bay, 4-3, In 10-Inning Tilt; Clash With Cottage Grove Here Tonight

Scherer Squirts racked up their third successive softball win by defeating Coos Bay, 4-3, Sunday afternoon at the bay city. In the second game played there yesterday afternoon, Cottage Grove also defeated Coos Bay, 6-5.

Tonight, Squirts play Cottage Grove at Finlay field, starting at 8 o'clock. If Squirts win tonight, they qualify for the state tournament at Eugene later this month. A Cottage Grove win would mean a return game between the Lane and Coos county clubs.

Another Cottage Grove win over Coos Bay would mean a third game between Cottage Grove and Squirts to decide the district entry. The above action depends upon tonight's crucial game at Finlay field.

It was another torrid and tight battle for the Squirts, with the game not being decided until the 10th inning. Coos Bay led 1-0 for two innings before Squirts could tie up the game in the third. Roseburg's kittenball club raced ahead, 3-1 in the sixth, when Red Nichols singled in Ralph Sanstede, who had walked, and Sandy Moore, who had doubled.

Coos Bay knotted the score at 3-3 with a run in the seventh and eighth innings on four hits. A pair of doubles by Sandy Moore and Hal Edgar in the top of the 10th clinched the game for the Squirts, when Coos Bay failed to tally in their portion of the same frame.

Swede Vang started on the mound for the Squirts, but Roy Baughman was the winning hurler, having come into the game in the ninth, when the game was tied at 3-3. Harvey, the losing hurler, gave up 13 hits. Roseburg's Vang gave up all eight hits garnered by Coos Bay.

St. Louis moved out of eighth place by splitting a twin bill with Detroit. Les Moss' two-run pinch hit single in the eighth beat the Tigers, 4-2. In the first game, Home Runs by Vic Wertz, Pat Mullin and Paul Campbell won the second game for Detroit, 8-3.

The Philadelphia Phils divided a doubleheader with the New York Giants. Kenny Heintzelman blacked Leo Durocher's crew 4-0 for the Phils in the opener. The second game was forfeited to the Giants by Umpire Al Barlick in the ninth inning when the Philadelphia customers rained pot bottles and other missiles on the field in protest over a decision by Umpire George Barr.

Barr had ruled that Philly outfielder Richie Ashburn had tripped a drive of the bat of Joe Lafata. Ashburn argued that he caught it. The Giants were in front at the time, 4-2.

Cincinnati came back to get a split in its twin bill with Chicago, winning the second game 4-1, after the Cubs won the opener, 5-4.

Meet officials included Chairman Al Hughes, Jaycee President; Glen Scott, Irv Pugh, George McIntosh, Gordon Carlson, Keith Custer, Dave Moore, Tom Gilkey, Hod Turner, Junior high school coach, was official starter.

The sound equipment was donated by Carl's Sound System. Results: 40-yard free style, boys—Jay Johnson, Harold Collier, Jim Hall, Time: 3:12.

60-yard free style, girls—Nancy Gile, Tony St. Onge, Suzie Dwyer, 3:08.

Local Talent Does Well At Swim Meet

Times Posted Promise Keen Competition In Future State Programs

A near-capacity crowd was satisfied that Roseburg has a swimming team that may give other aquatic clubs throughout the state some keen competition in future AAU meets.

With many a team prospect in sight a month ago, coach Bill Evans, Colorado A & M breaststroke champion, produced a group of local swimmers that thoroughly impressed an interested spectator crowd.

Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce was in the lead with precision and dispatch by members of the local Jaycees. Comedy skits, a water ballet and life saving demonstrations balanced out swim card.

Only dark spot in the picture was the lack of entries from communities outside Roseburg. Bill Evans' team was the only one entered in the meet, although a group from Drain had been tentatively scheduled to make an appearance.

Some of the times produced were impressive, in view of the fact no swimmer had ever participated in a meet before. Dale Robertson's time of 36 seconds in the 60-yard freestyle and Norine Krusman's time of 1:35 in the 100-yard breaststroke were among the better times set.

Don Jacklyn turned in a nice performance in the 220-yard freestyle, outdistancing the nearest contender by several yards while in the 60-yard individual medley relay, Jim Hall, with a time of 63 seconds, and Sue Lee, 78.3, drew applause from the fans, in boys' and girls' events, respectively.

Boys Win Medley Event Highlighting the competitive swimming was a medley relay between the boys, girls and Jaycee team. The Jaycees slipped in a ringer (Guy Salassi), so coach Bill Evans took Janice Anderson's place on the girls' team.

The league leaders suffered further humiliation at the hands of the Acorns Sunday, losing both ends of a doubleheader, 7 to 0 and 7 to 6.

When Earl Rapp homered to break a 6-to-5 deadlock in that second game, a great shout went up from the overflow multitude of 14,500 Oakland citizens. It was Rapp's 11th round tripper of the season, and left the Oaks just three games out of first place.

Veteran Charley Gassaway twirled a masterful six-hitter to shut out Hollywood in the regulation opener, Oakland, taking the series five games to two, now won the last five series in its surge upwards.

Sacramento, which had been tied for second, dropped back to third by splitting with San Diego. The Solons took the opener, 5 to 2, but the Padres came back for a 4-to-2 triumph in the afterpiece. The teams also split the eight-game series.

Portland repudiated San Francisco in seventh place by dropping two to the invading Seattle Rainiers, while the Seals annexed a pair from last place Los Angeles.

The Rainiers pounced on Portland starting pitcher Hal Saltzman and reliever Bill Fleming for seven hits and six runs in the seventh inning of the first game. The outburst broke a 1 to 1 deadlock and launched Seattle to a 10 to 1 triumph. The Rainiers tucked away the nightcap, 2 to 1, on two unearned runs, taking the series, 5 to 2.

Lifty O'Doul's boys, meanwhile, won 8 to 3 and 6 to 2 at Los Angeles. The outcome ran the Seals' winning streak to five straight and gave them six out of seven in the series.

Dusette-Stojack Go Is Draw; Szasz Tosses Falletti

George Dusette and Frankie Stojack wrestled to a draw in the main event of Saturday's card at the Roseburg armory, while Al Szasz tussled Tony Falletti and won in a two-out-of-three fall curtain raiser.

The main go offered mat followers some extremely interesting tussling that had a near-capacity house split about evenly, with some pulling for Stojack while others urged Dusette on to victory.

Dusette took the first fall with his inevitable full-nelson, a hold he employs with unvarying success whenever given the opportunity.

The wily Stojack tried to maneuver his stocky opponent into an airplane spin on several occasions with negligible success. But in the end, Dusette was caught, falling victim to Stojack's ever-popular flying Dutchman, followed by a Boston crab.

Neither grappler would budge an inch in the third heat, and time ran out. Referee Elton Owen extolled the virtues of sportsmanship found in both men after which both agreed to let a flipped coin decide whom would oppose Buck Weaver in a championship bout in the near future. Dusette won the toss.

In the other event, Szasz sizzled Falletti for a quick first fall with a whip wrist lock in 53 seconds. The Italian bullied his way to a five-minute and one second victory in the second fall, utilizing an arm lock as the pinning hold.

Szasz, a master of the wrist pinner again in the third stanza and Falletti retired to the dressing room dejected and defeated.

Don Jacklyn turned in a nice performance in the 220-yard freestyle, outdistancing the nearest contender by several yards while in the 60-yard individual medley relay, Jim Hall, with a time of 63 seconds, and Sue Lee, 78.3, drew applause from the fans, in boys' and girls' events, respectively.

Race Horses Open Six-Day Card Tonight

Saturday Results Saw Boston Ely Break Track Record For Second Time

Horse racing starts again tonight, after a one-day respite, at the county fairgrounds, at a new post time, 8:00 o'clock.

The bangtails are starting into the home stretch of the 10-day meeting, running six nights this week to complete the session. Thirteen thousand fans saw the first four days of the meet, with 5100 of them jamming into the stands Saturday night.

Ladies are admitted free at the track tonight and tomorrow evening, as guests of the Umpqua Jockey club. Seventy disabled veterans will be guests of the club this evening also.

A special matched race, between a thoroughbred and a quarter horse, will be run Tuesday night, to determine the fastest miler over a quarter mile course. And Wednesday night, the longest race of the season, a mile and a half gallop called the Roseburg marathons, will be conducted with the thoroughbreds.

Sometime during the fair, the date of which will be announced soon, the amateurs will conduct some races. Enough entries have been obtained by Steve Cooper, chairman of the event, from the saddle clubs of Douglas county to warrant putting on the contest.

Another Record Broken A track record was broken Saturday night for the second time by the same horse. Boston Ely, a nine-year-old chestnut gelding, and a two-time winner, broke the track mark in the mile and one-sixteenth, which it set only Thursday night. The new time was 1:55.1, nine-tenths of a second faster than the old record.

Jockey Bob Strauss flashed into the lead as the meeting's top jockey Saturday night as he booted home four winners, the outstanding performance of the meeting, to make his total wins seven.

Eight races were run Saturday night, instead of the usual seven, four thoroughbred and four quarter horse. The sixth race was a standout, with double A quarter horses, the very best, taking part. Savannah G., a three-year-old, and a 5-1 shot, carted off winning honors, under jockey Jerry Davis, paying $12.90, $5.80, and $2.50. Flicka F., was second, while Magnolia, the favorite at 7-to-5, showed.

In the first race the favorite, Gin High, under Jerry Davis who rode two winners, came home first in a photo finish that had all six horses strung across the track. Sister Time placed, and Patsy B II showed, with only inches separating the winners from the losers. Sister Time paid $6.40 to place, while the winner paid only $3.20 for top ticks.

Betting on the second and third races was limited to win and place bets as only four horses were entered in each race. In the second, a six and one-half furlong race by the thoroughbreds, Landing Barge, a 6-to-1 choice, raced home the winner by two lengths, over Larry Sandy. The victor paid $12.80. The time was 1:21.0.

The favorite, Danger Boy C, came home in front just as scheduled in the third, over 330-yards, with Big House second. The winner, paying only $3.70, was ridden by Strauss, as was the winner in the previous event.

Meteorite upset the apple cart and the dope sheets in the fourth, run over six and one-half furlongs, by pounding home the victor, Borde, Gipsy, the favorite at even money, placed, and Double Results showed. Time for the event was 1:21.9.

Honey Boy, another winner by Strauss, paid $10.40 for win tickets in the fifth race, breaking fast to lead all the way and win by two lengths. Sarabach placed, and Valley Rose was third. In the same race Del May was quoted as a 99-to-1 shot, and dropped in one more to 9 to 1.

Heuvelken, another winner by Strauss, came home first in the seventh over a five furlong course to return $11.00 to ticket holders who invested. Lou Manners, the favorite at 4 to 5, placed, and Enquire showed. Time for the thoroughbreds was :58.9.

In the final race Boston Ely, under Cal Wright, set a new track mark, and paid $3.10, $3.30 and $2.70, beating Bon VIII, and Ever-spin, the favorite.
