

Medford Tennis Raquetees Play Roseburg Sunday

The powerful Medford tennis team invades Roseburg next Sunday. Last week Roseburg suffered its first defeat of the year to this same Medford team.

Marlen Yoder, team manager, points out that the Roseburg raquetees will be much stronger this week. It is hoped that Norman Moore will be able to play the first singles match for the first time in three weeks. If he does, the other players will play in their correct positions, rather than in one stepped-up position as in the past.

In a note received from Medford this morning, Yoder said that Todd Tibbutt, number one man of Medford, admits they were rather lucky to win as many sets last Sunday. The matches will probably be played as follows: Tod Tibbutt vs. Norm Moore; Howard Dugan vs. Glen Boyer; John Richard vs. Bill Garrison; W. W. Deakins vs. Tom Jacobson; Bill Coffman vs. Tom Lindbloom and Paul McDuffee vs. Don Debernardi.

Medford did not send its doubles pairings. Roseburg found them to be tough in doubles last week. Roseburg's doubles teams will be Royd Bruton and Louis Miles, Earl Garrison and Bert Randall, and Tom Lindbloom and Norman Moore, if Moore is available. If not, Tom Jacobson and Bill Garrison will probably be the third doubles team, according to Yoder. Yoder asks that any Roseburg man not able to play Sunday should notify him immediately. The match will start 10 a.m.

SCHNER SQUIRTS PLAY AT COTTAGE GROVE TONIGHT—Tonight, Fred Scherner's Squirts play the crucial game at Cottage Grove to decide which of the two teams will enter the state tournament from this district. In previous games, Squirts and Cottage Grove split with a win and a loss apiece. Coos Bay, the other district entry, was eliminated earlier this week. The winner of tonight's game at Coos Bay will play McMinnville Elks at 8:30 p.m. Sunday night at Eugene. Above, left to right, front row, are Bill Scherner, Plin Laurance, Swede Yang, Bill Shapero, Sandy Moore. Second row, Fred Scherner, manager; Ralph Sanstede, Hal Edgar, Roy Baughman, Red Nichols and Chuck Schofield. The lad in the foreground is the Squirts' batboy. (Rod Newland picture)
