Horse Racing Ends Tonight At Fairgrounds

Record 'Crowd On Hand For Friday's Running; Special Races Booked

By FRED TAYLOR
Douglas county's first professional horse racing meet draws to a close tonight, when the tenth and final night of racing begins at 8:00 p.m. Record crowds are expected to see the running of the first annual Douglas county Derby for thoroughbreds, and the championship quarter horse race.

The Derby, pitting the top thoroughbreds against each other, will be held the sixth race, and the quarter horse race will be the fifth. Both events to be run for $350 added purses have drawn full fields.

Nominated for the Derby are Air Risk, Boston Ely, a two-time winner, Erin Call, Bon Vill, Lady's Billing, who holds the track mark for six and one-half furlongs, Meteorbe, and Paratrooper. The Derby will be run over a mile and one-sixteenth course.

Quarter Horses Listed

Quarter Horses Listed
Named to race in the quarter horse championship event are Polly A. Badger's Grey Lady, holder of the track mark for 330-yards. Magnolia, Little Sieepy Joe. Big Houge and Patsy B II. The quarter horses will race over the longest quarter horse distance, 440-yards.

Last night the biggest crowd of the season, 5500 fans, gathered at the fairgrounds to watch the bangtalis gallop. A dally double payoff of $59 rewarded early arrivals, on the combination of Black Jacket, a nine to one shot in the first, and Radfield in the second.

Weaver Stakes Title In Mat Bout With Dusette Tonight

The Pacific coast light-heavyweight wrestling title will be at stake at the Roseburg Armory tonight when Buck Weaver, Indiana, defends his title against the challenge of Georges Dussette, Canada.

The bout is expected to be one of the most rugged skirmishes here since Weaver won the title in a match against Tex Hager. Although Douglas county fans have established Dusette as the favorite, the grappling experts predict that Weaver will retain his crown.

Attracting nearly as much interest, and promising to help fill the arena with the largest crowd in weeks, will be another one-hour battle—between popular Tex Hager. Oregonian, and Leo Karlinko, Russian. The rivalry is an old one that started last winter in the Chicago area. The opener gets under way at 8:30 p.m.
Elton Owen will be on hand to referee both bouts.

All-Star Football Game Slated In Portland Tonight

PORTLAND, Aug. 27.—(P)— Upstate high school All-Stars will attempt tonight to score their sec-ond straight victory over Portland All-Stars in the annual Shrine benefit game here. The contest, between teams of players who were graduated last

The contest, between teams of players who were graduated last spring, will open the fotball reason here. A crowde upwards of 20,000 is expected.

The upstate team, which won the inaugural last year, is favored. The upstaters, coached by slet lingram, Grants Pass, have a weight advantage and ample backfield speed.

The Portlanders are expected to rely on passing to score an upset. Both teams will use the formation.

show betting was allowed, due to the four horse field. Chester D. placed to pay $3.30, and Hornet was third.

The time, 12.4 for 220-yards, set a new track record, breaking the old mark of 12.5 set by Popeye Lioyd the fifth night.

In the second race a four to one shot, Radfield, jumped into the lead from the gate, dropped to third, and then flashed into the lead on the home stretch to win by a head in a photo finish, to pay $10.10, and figure in the big daily double return.

Gordon's Giff placed to pay $3 and the pair paid $11 for quinella ricket holders, Friend Vic showed, paying $2.30. Time for the event was 1.01.2, over the five furlong course.

A five to two shot, Fella, won the third race, a 220-yard affair for the quarter horses, paying

Three-Horse Race
Only three horses went to the post in the seventh. Quit That, ridden by Cal Hewes, who booted home three winners last night, broke from the gate first, followed by the favorite Border Gipsy and Jay Out, and the race proceeded in just those positions.

The curly-haired New Orleans native has failed to finish only four of the 26 games he's started. Only once has he lost two in a row. He is the first Boston left-hander to win 20 games since Lefty Grove notched that many in 1935.

Double Triumph

Parnell teamed up with Ellis Kinder to pitch the Red Sox to a double triumph over the Chicago White Sox yesterday. Mel twirled a seven-hitter in the opener as the Bosox bashed three Chicago pitchers for an 11-4 triumph on 17 hits. Boston collected 16 safeties in the second game to win, 19-7.

San Francisco's Win Narrows Lead Of Stars

By BILL BECKER

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
San Francisco's Seals did a neat about-flip to topple Oakland and keep staggering Hollywood two games ahead in the whacky Paciife Coast league race last night.

Trailing 3-7 going into the last of the ninth, the Seals erupted for five runs, Jackie Tobin supplying a triple with bases loaded to tie it up. He then slid home on Dario Lodigiani's fly to center, winning the game 8-7.

Milo Candini, who relieved Charley Gassaway, was the victim of the final punch. Con Dempsey, touched for 13 hits, went the route for his 16th win.

Hollywood was spilled by Los Angeles, 8-5, for the third time in four nights. A five-run barrage against Jack Salveson in the fifth sewed it up. Bryan Stephens was the winner. The Stars' margin remained two games over the second-place Oaks.

Third-place Sacramento also obliged by bowing to Portland, 5-3, staying three games off the pace.
Hal Saltzman racked up his 18th victory with a six hitter.

On Allie Clark's homerun, San Diego edged Seattle 1-0 in their battle for fourth position. Red Adams' three hitter was too much for the Rainiers. Rugger Ardizoia gave up five.
