P.N.G. MEMBERS ARE HONORED AT REBEKAH MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

Thirty-eight Past Noble Grands were honored at the regular meeting of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge Tuesday evening. Each was presented with a lovely corsage. During the program the following Past Noble Grands were appointed to fill the offices: Noble Grand, Effie Swartz; Vice-Grand, Ella Lennox; R.S.N.G., Winnie Hahn; L.S.N.G., Maude Needham; Warden, Tillie Johnson; Conductor, Lydia (Madam); Color Bearer, Ruby Bloom; Recording Secretary, Mayme Pickens; Financial Secretary, Hulda Howe; Treasurer, Susie Jackson; G., Mamie Dimmick; Inside Guardian, Mabel Roberts; Outside Guardian, Mrs. Dillingham; Musician, Evelyn Fredrickson. Under the direction of the Good of the Order committee many of these officers were called upon to recite the duties of their office as was formerly required by the old rituals. A pantomime by Mrs. Belle Stephenson appropriately gowned in an old fashioned dress, hat, gloves and shawl and carrying a fan, with Lena Poole singing "Little Old Lady," was highly enjoyed. Miss Dorothy Smith accompanied the piano.

Following this Mary Alice Mortenson sang "Bend of the River." She was accompanied by Evelyn Fredrickson. Mrs. Edna Gove, Edna Gove, Claron H. Gove, W. Hobart Smith, Mrs. Fernie Smith, Mrs. Dewey Moore, Mrs. Eva Musgrove, Mrs. E. R. Stevenson, Bob Musgrove, Vye Cooper and Billy Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Eaton.

For traveling the bride chose a green suit with straw hat and matching straw bag. Following a honeymoon to Yakima and Seattle, they are now at home to their friends at 128 Flint street, Roseburg.

The bride, who was chosen as a bride of the week on Lawson's Jewelry store program, over KRNR, is employed as book-keeper at the Wilbur Lumber company. Mr. Jackson is employed at Browning's Richfield station at the corner of Stephens and Cass streets.

Picture by Dotson studio, Eugene

Miss Jean Mettauer and Edward W. Jackson were united in marriage July 17th at a very lovely wedding at the First Evangelical church in Eugene with Rev. Charles Fogg performing the double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. Marjorie Moore of Eugene sang, "At Dawning," and "Because," preceding the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage to her uncle, W. Mettauer, in the absence of her father, who was ill, was charming in a street-length dress of lavender with a white picture hat and white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of yellow orchids, which later served as a corsage for her going away suit. Mrs. Roy Walker was matron of honor for her sister and Kelsey Hobday Jr. of Roseburg, was best man. Ushers were Roy Walker and George Moore of Eugene.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. George Jackson of Roseburg, wore a dove grey ensemble with white accessories. A reception followed the ceremony. Miss Celeste Baker, Mrs. Dewey Moore, Mrs. Claron Gove, Mrs. Arthur Labor and Miss Betty Musgrove served. Guests attending were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson of Roseburg; William J. McDowell Jr., of Yakima, Wash.; Miss Betty Musgrove, Sutherlin; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker, Florence; Doris D. Fogg, Isabelle Weight, Alice McHess, Mrs. Evelyn Powell, Ricky Powell, Miss Celeste Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Dauster Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey Hobday Jr., Miss Janice Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hand, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Somerville of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Moore, Marjorie Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk, Harry N. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Patton and son; Elsie, William, Albert and Agnes Mettauer, Helen Edna Gove, Claron H. Gove, W.
