

Many Awards Are Listed For Douglas County Fair

Blue, red, and white ribbons have been attached to exhibits entered in the county fair. Several groups in the 4-H and Future Farmers of America classes have been completed, while some judging was left for today.

Frank von Borstel, county 4-H club agent, said the judges would award ribbons to community booths today. These have been entered by a number of granges and other organizations, and the Roseburg Veterans hospital, U.S. Forest service, and local merchants.

Judges are Cal Monroe, state 4-H club leader at Oregon State college; Miss Mary Beth Minden, home management specialist at Oregon State college, and Mrs. May P. Mathews, lunch room coordinator of the Roseburg school system.

They have had the assistance of Von Borstel and Wayne Mosher, assistant county agricultural agent; Homer Grow, agricultural instructor at Roseburg high school; Paul Abel, manager of the fair, and Mrs. Holden R. McTaggart, county home demonstration agent.

Judging results follow:

Indian Varsity Football Players Hold Scrimmage

Cece Sherwood's Roseburg Indians varsity football candidates scrimmaged briefly last night, putting out plenty of effort in readiness for the first game of the season Friday night, Sept. 16, against the powerful Medford Tornado team.

The football aspirants will not practice tonight, as most of them will travel to Portland to watch the Shrine All-Star game. Coaches Cece Sherwood and Hod Turner are also planning to attend the All-Star contest.

Last night's scrimmage was preceded by regular fundamentals, including blocking, calisthenics and wind sprints. Practice will be continued Monday.

The Indians will play five home games this year, to which season tickets will be available Wednesday, Sept. 7, at $6.00 each. A season ticket purchase will entitle the holder to a reserved seat at each game.

Jack Newby said the place of sale will be announced later.

Medford To Play Roseburg Netters

After dropping only two matches to the Roseburg Tennis club last week on their own courts, the Medford Tennis club invades Roseburg Sunday to try and continue their winning ways.

The local racketeers feel differently about it and some of the men have been practicing almost every night this week. The match between Norm Moore and Tod Tibbut looks as if it will be very closely contested, according to Marlen Yoder, team manager. Moore did not play at Medford. Bill Garrison has been put in second position to again play Duigan, who trimmed him in Medford. Garrison is out to avenge that defeat, and that will make a big difference in his play, said Yoder.

Tom Jacobson or Glen Boyer is slated to tangle with Richards, the left-handed racketeer from Medford. Tom Lindbloom and Don Debernard complete the list of Roseburg singles players. Bruton and Miles, E. Garrison and Randall, and either Lindbloom and Moore or Jacobson and B. Garrison will make up the doubles teams. The public is invited.

Junior Men's Tennis Tourney In Finals

The Junior Men's Tennis tournament reached the final round this week. Roy Van Horn and Larry Henninger must play G. Wilkerson and G. Henry in the semifinal round of the upper bracket before Aug. 28. Wilkerson and Henry triumphed over Morgan and Booth 6-0, 6-0, and Henninger and Van Horn defeated Plummer and Fisher 6-0, 6-3. The winner of this match will play Jacobson and R. Strickling.

D. Jacobson and R. Strickling went their way into the finals this week by gaining a default from Raushert and Weber and then whipping R. Groves and W. Henninger, who had gained the second round by a bye, 6-2, 6-3.

Roseburg Women Invited To Bowling League Meet

An invitation to all Roseburg women interested in bowling to attend a special meeting of the local lady bowlers' organization has been issued by Mrs. Helen Ryan, president.

Mrs. Ryan said an organizational meeting will be held at the home of Floyd Baughman, 1200 Corey ave., at 8 p.m. Tuesday. At that time plans will be made for the coming season, scheduled to open Sept. 13.
