The Bureau of Employment Security said yesterday a steady slackening "in the rate of new

Accidents Kill 7 In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Highway accidents claimed the lives of five persons throughout Washington state this weekend. A Tacoma youth was asphyxiated.

Failure of their car to negotiate a curve east of Vancouver early Sunday was fatal to Robert Kindall, 21, Portland, and Milton Winterhath, 22, of Vancouver. Clifford Hensel, also of Vancouver, escaped with bruises.

William R. Vandervelt, 26, of Blaine, was killed north of Seattle Saturday night when a car struck the rear end of a truck.

Harvey C. Knutson, 27, of Ellensburg, driver of the car, escaped with minor injuries.

A crash involving three automobiles and an interurban bus fatally injured Margaret Patricia Bushy, 27, of Seattle, on the Bothell Highway early Sunday.

Fred P. Niemann, 2, of Burley, was killed Saturday night when his car left the road on a turn on the old Purdy highway near Gig Harbor.

At Tacoma, Edwin Alvin Bry-an, 20, died early Sunday from asphyxiation. Coroner Paul Melinger said a lighted cigarette had apparently smoldered on a mattress for several hours, filling the home with smoke.

Charles Hurd, 2 1/2 years old, drowned in Lake Washington Saturday.

Trapped Heifer Finally Liberated From Silo

OSCEOLA, Wis., Aug. 29.—(AP)—Snoopy, the 650-pound inquisitive heifer, was enjoying the sunlight today.

She was freed Saturday night from the sunken silo in a prison where she had been a prisoner nearly 80 hours.

A little ingenuity on the part of her owner, Everett Freeman, lifted Snoopy to her freedom.

Lampman cut three acres of corn for silage to dump into the silo where Snoopy was a prisoner 12 feet below the door. As the silage was blown in, Snoopy gradually was elevated toward the door. Then a push and she was out.

A slendering diet of water kept Snoopy's figure sleek—and thin enough to get back through the narrow opening.

Auto Thief, After Gas, Finds Owner At Garage

PORTSDAM, N. Y., Aug. 29.—(AP)—Gerald Smith got back his stolen automobile the easy way.

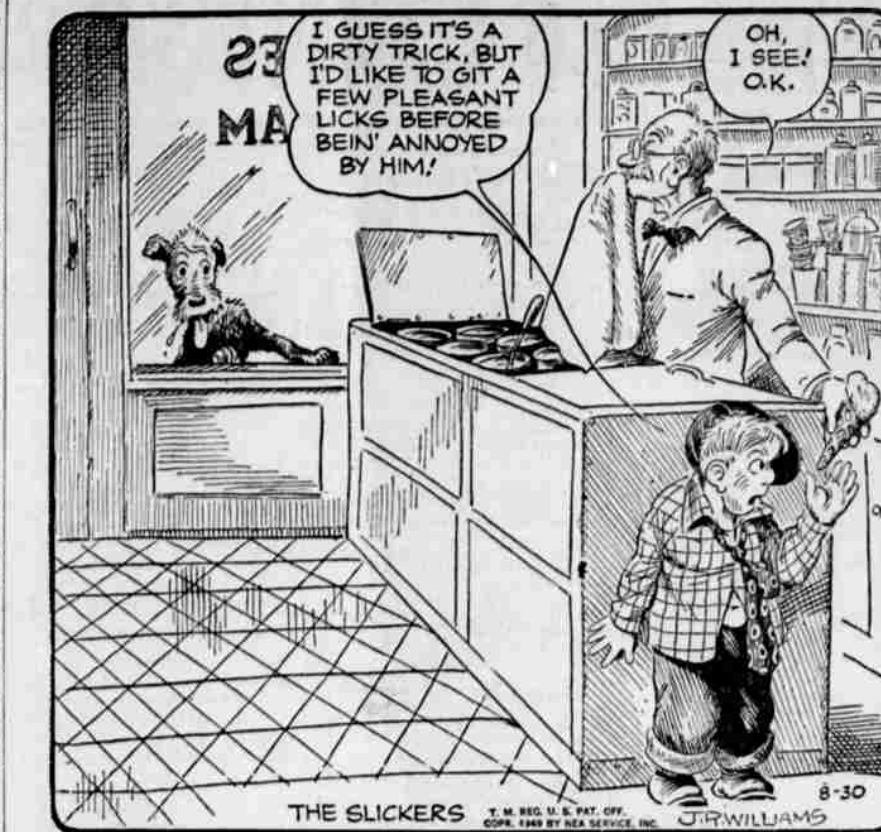

One hour after the car disappeared from a parking lot, a man drove it to a garage where Smith was working and asked him to put some air in the tires.

The thief beat it when Smith started firing questions.

Industrial layoffs "is indicated in sharp drops in new unemployment claims since mid-July.

Initial claims indicating new unemployment numbered 239,207 during the week ended Aug. 20, the report said. This was a drop of 31,893 from the number filed the previous week.

Initial claims declined in 40 states.

WHERE HUNDREDS DIED—This cathedral at Ambato, Ecuador, collapsed in the earthquake, killing an estimated 200 persons, mostly children. Most of the remaining homes in Ambato must be torn down. A spokesman for the president said the government had not been able to compile a death list, but estimated that the toll was between 2,000 and 4,000.—(AP wirephoto.)

VFW Will Aid Vets In Applying For Dividends

T. F. Holmes, commander of District No. 16, Veterans of Foreign Wars, announces that applications for dividend payments on National service life insurance of World War II veterans will be available Monday, Aug. 29, through Saturday, Sept. 3.

V. F. W. headquarters for filing applications for insurance dividends will be in the lobby of the Grand hotel from 1 o'clock p.m. until 9 p.m. R. L. Preston, service officer of V.F.W. Post 2468, will assist veterans in making out applications for insurance dividends.

According to Holmes, the following information will be necessary in making out dividend forms: Service serial number or numbers, branch of service, insurance numbers including prefix N, V or H, and Veterans administration claim number, if any.

All veterans who held national service life insurance 90 days or more will be entitled to dividends.

Vinegar In Shampoo; No, 'Twas Syrup Instead

MCLEAN, Tex., Aug. 29.—(AP)—Mrs. J. W. Story's freshly shampooed hair stood up as if she had just seen a mouse.

She rewashed it with more rain water, more shampoo and another vinegar rinse.

Another vinegar rinse. Mrs. Story reread the shampoo directions. She had followed them.

Then she tested the water—okay; the shampoo—okay; the vinegar—it turned out to be peach pickle syrup.

Mrs. Story headed for the nearest beauty parlor.
