

Chiefs Defeat Central Point In Playoff

Krause Hurls 6-Hit Game; Score 7 To 2

Gehrman Pitching Jinx Broken With 13 Bingles; League Flag Presented

By DAN MINDOLOVICH
Killing two birds with one stone, the Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs not only put themselves into the Shaughnessy playoff finals, but defeated the only club in the Southern Oregon league that has beaten the Chiefs twice in league competition.

Roseburg finally conquered Central Point, 7-2, at Finlay field Sunday, in the first game of the Shaughnessy playoff series. Wednesday night, Medford was the host city to Ashland. The winner of that game plays the Chiefs here over Labor day, while the loser plays Central Point for the consolation award.

Roseburg's star hurler Mel Krause was in excellent form Sunday, with one exception. The University of Oregon fastball tosser gave up six hits and struck out seven in nine innings. Only in the sixth did Krause appear to be in trouble and Don Reed started to warm up on the sidelines, as the sacks became loaded.

Krause settled down again, after Central Point scored its only runs and finished out the game in fine style.

Visitors Poor In Field
Central Point hurler Paul Gehrman, voted one of the outstanding pitchers in the Southern Oregon league, gave up 13 hits to the Chiefs. Combined with six visitor bobbles, this was enough to put the Chiefs in a continuous lead after a slow start, in which neither team scored for three innings.

Barney Koch's triple, with one man on, and Ray Stratton's sacrifice, scoring Koch, started the Chiefs off in the fourth inning.

Norm West singled in a run in the sixth after George Sanders made first on a fielder's choice. Gehrman wound up for a pitch, then hesitated as Sanders stroked for home.

Immediately, the entire Chiefs' team called Umpire Al Fiegel's attention to the irregularity, an apparent balk, after which the only argument that amounted to anything continued for several minutes.

Sanders was flagged across the plate and West advanced to third on the balk. West scored when the catcher threw the ball away in an effort to pick off the Chiefs' first baseman on third.

Virgie Sanders batted in Mel Krause in the sixth and drew an infield hit when third baseman Whitey Dumont let a bunted ball roll for some distance before attempting to pick it up.

Roseburg's final counter came in the seventh. Norm West doubled, took third on a fielder's choice, then scored on an infield hit by Barney Koch.

Before he bought a McCulloch, George worked in a meat market

You can do more than fell and buck trees with a McCulloch chain saw. You can limb, slab, cut cordwood and posts. But here's one of the most important things you can do—you can pick up your McCulloch in one hand, and carry it easily to the next cut. Try their with any other big timber saw.

Visiting Hours
Within the next few days, stop by our store for a real demonstration of wood cutting. Or give us a call and we'll try to arrange a show for you at your place. There's no obligation. We want you to see what a McCulloch can do.

Weaver Retains Mat Title In Battle With Dusette But Absorbs Severe Punishment

The Pacific coast light heavyweight championship belt continues to remain the property of Buck Weaver, but Saturday night's wrestling crowd at the Roseburg armory will assure any doubting Thomas that George Dusette, the challenger, made every effort to strip Weaver of the coveted hardware.

Roseburg Swim Team Scores 21 Points At Meet

THE DALLES, Ore., Aug. 29.—(AP)—Multnomah Athletic club swimmers walked off with the annual Oregon open A.A.U. swimming and diving championships yesterday. The meet was marked by 20 new records. The Portland team scored 364 points, followed by the Portland Aquatic club with 134 and the Washington Athletic club with 86. Other team scores included: Vancouver, Wash., 53; The Dalles, 53; Spokane, 28; Yakima 23; Roseburg Ore., 21, and Portland Northeast YMCA 12.

Ted Gummings of Yakima won both the 100- and 200-meter freestyle, setting a new mark of 1:07.4 minutes in the former event. It was four-tenths of a second faster than his own record time last year.

Don Graham in the sixth, started the ball rolling for the visitors when he scored after the catch by Don Faucett and Mac McDonald accounted for the second and final Central Point score.

Stammen, Chez and Dumont figured in on the only double play of the game, a neat relay that cancelled Krause going to second and hacked Hampton off at first.

Fawcett, with three for four and McDonald with two for four, sparked the visitor batters, while Virg Sanders, with three for five, West with two for three and Hampton, Wilson and Koch, each with two for four, accounted for all but two of Roseburg's bingles.

In a brief seventh inning stretch ceremony, the Chiefs were presented with the Southern Oregon league trophy by Mayor Umpire Al Fiegel, on behalf of the league. The trophy will be on display at J.V. Sporting Goods store Wednesday.

George Sanders, shortstop and one of the Chiefs' top batters, was voted by his teammates to be the outstanding and most inspiring player of the team, in an informal poll taken in the dugout before the game.

Yankees Down White Sox In Doubleheader

Henrich Badly Injured; Indians Defeat Sox; Cardinals Boost Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Editor
The New York Yankees won a doubleheader yesterday and picked up a game and a half on the Boston Red Sox, but faced the future today with nothing but gloom.

Unless a miracle happens, the American league leaders will be forced to play the next three weeks without the services of Tommy Henrich, their star outfielder. He may do no more playing this year.

"Old reliable," as Tommy is known, injured his back severely in the first game while attempting to catch a line drive off the bat of Chicago's Charlie Kress. X-rays taken at a hospital revealed fractures of the second and third ribs in the lower part of the back.

A six-run ninth inning rally gave the Yankees the first game of the doubleheader, 6-1. The Red Sox who dropped an 11-inning game to the Indians in Cleveland, 2-1. The second game of that scheduled doubleheader was called off in the fourth inning because of darkness. The Indians were in front, 2-1.

Cardinals Boost Lead
In the National, the front-running St. Louis Cardinals increased their lead over Brooklyn to two and a-half games by sweeping a doubleheader from the Boston Braves, 9-7 and 7-1. The Dodgers trounced Pittsburgh 9-0, but lost half a length.

Detroit solidified its fourth place position in the American, thumping the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-4. Washington and St. Louis divided a twin bill in their private battle for seventh place. The Senators walked off with an easy 13-2 victory in the opener, but the Browns won the second game, 4-3.

Philadelphia and Chicago split, the Phils coming back to win the second game, 8-2, after the Cubs had won the opener, 7-4. The Giants also escaped with a split, defeating Cincinnati, 4-2, after losing the first game, 10-3.

Cowboy Title At Pendleton Won By Choate Webster

PENDLETON, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Choate Webster of Nowata, Okla., roped and dogged his way to the all-around cowboy championship title at the 38th annual Pendleton roundup here Saturday.

His title wins in both the steer roping and bulldogging finals gave the Oklahoman his first claim on the $5,000 Sam Jackson trophy and a big share of the $38,000 money.

Webster barely edged out Bud Linderman, Red Lodge, Mont., who rode to championships in both bareback and saddle bronc riding. Webster piled up 1,150 points compared with Linderman's 1,100 total.

It was Webster's second year of competition here. His time for roping three steers was 63.59 seconds and he brought his three bulls to a halt in 40.9. A fast bulldogging time of 7.9 seconds for one animal helped give him the edge over veterans Glenn Tyler, Modesto, Calif., and Homer Pettigrew, Chandler, Ariz.

Two records were posted in the four-day rodeo. Ben Johnson, Sun Valley, Calif., roped a calf in 12.5 seconds. It broke the 13-second time set in 1941. The other top performance was by Gene Rambo, Shandon, Calif., in bulldogging. He brought a steer to ground in 7.8 seconds.

International Rodeo association points picked up by Rambo kept the California cowpoke in the lead for the association's world champion title.

Hollies, Oakland, Sactor, Padres Win Twin Bills

By JIM BACON
Associated Press Sports Editor
Hollywood's old Sunday punch still kept it three games ahead in the Pacific Coast league race.

The Stars, who do most of their slipping during the week, took two from the last-place Los Angeles Angels Sunday. In the opener, the Stars won, 7 to 4, when Jim Baxes smacked his 22nd homer to start off a three-run ninth inning, in the even inning nightcap, Willie Ramsdell knuckled a two-hit shutout, 4 to 0.

There was not a split bill in the loop Sunday. Oakland rallied twice in the ninth to take two from San Francisco. The Seals had a 2-to-1 lead in the ninth in the morning opener but the Oaks scored four in their half to win, 5 to 2. San Francisco led, 5-to-1, in the second game going into the ninth. Earl Rapp singled in two runs, Jackie Jensen flied in the tying run plus three more singles and the game ended 7 to 0.

Sacramento, in third place a half-game behind Oakland, beat Portland, 3 to 2 and 6 to 4. Jim Tabor's 14th homer in the sixth frame of the opener won that one. In the nightcap, Tabor batted in two runs, scored two more and started a triple play.

Buster Adams barged out three of San Diego's six home runs as the Padres battered Seattle, 15 to 2 and 3 to 0. Max West, the league's top home run belter, added No. 42 in the first game.

Portland Stars Win Shrine Grid Contest, 19 To 0

PORTLAND, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Fast moving backs sparked the Portland high school all-stars to a stunning 19-to-0 upset over the Staters here Saturday night in the second annual Shriners' hospital benefit football game.

The up-state team never came near the Portland goal line. Touchdowns were in the second, third and final quarters with Hal Backs Don Sloan of Washington and Bob Hamblin of Roosevelt and Quarterback Nick Schmer of Jefferson lugging the pigskin across.

The city team rolled up 10 first downs in moving 224 yards on scrimmage and a net of 196 yards. The Staters were able to get only three first downs and one of these was on the final play of the game. Two of seven city passes were completed. State tried four and none was good.

State's assault efforts never got beyond the city team's 41-yard line.

The two annual benefit games have left the scoreboard with one apiece. State's 1948 team won, 35 to 13.

Eight Softball Teams Clear 1st Hurdle At Tourney

EUGENE, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Eight softball teams vaulted first round hurdles in the state tournament and were ready today for quarter finals.

St. Helens, McMinnville, Salem, Corvallis, Pendleton, Eugene, Albany and West Linn posted first round wins yesterday.

Shutouts were common in the day and night long play.

Pendleton had to go on an extra inning to edge Medford, 6 to 5. The losers had trailed until the seventh when two runs tied the count. The winning run for Pendleton came as Tom Grossmuller reached first when his fly was dropped, and went to third when the third baseman muffed a throw-in. Jimmy Jones singled him home.

Torrey Johnson hurled one-hit ball as he paced St. Helens to an 8 to 0 victory over Klamath Falls. He fanned eight batsmen and also got two hits to drive in three runs.

Baker's Harlowe Spencer allowed Albany only four hits, but the valley team took advantage of five walks and four wild pitches to win, 4 to 0.

Jack Sprick gave up only two hits and struck out 13 as Corvallis coasted to a 5-to-0 win over The Dalles.

Salem's Jim Rawlins pitched three-hit ball in setting down Redmond, 1 to 0. West Linn dumped Springfield, 5 to 1. McMinnville defeated Cottage Grove, 2 to 1, and Eugene defeated Blooming Lutherans, 7 to 0.

Canyonville Men Attend Drayn Recreation Meet
H. M. Anderson and Henry Ford of Canyonville recently attended a joint meeting of the Douglas County Recreation Lands committee and the county court at the community hall in Drayn.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for tying in the county's proposed recreational lands program with that of the state parks department.

Talks were given by S. H. Boardman, state parks superintendent, and his assistant, C. H. Armstrong.

Frank Taylor of Reedsport presided over the business session. All affiliated clubs were instructed to submit a tentative list of recreation sites proposed for acquisition at the next meeting of the committee to be held at the Roseburg Rod and Gun club grounds at Winchester Wednesday, Sept. 7.

The land committee is composed of representatives from each of the sports clubs affiliated in the Umpqua Basin Conservation council.

Anderson represents the Umpqua Rod and Gun club in Canyonville.
