Dodgers Edge Pirates In Ninth Inning

Hodges' 2-Run Homer Decides Contest, 4:3

Cardinals Blasted By Boston Braves; Bosox' Kinder Blanks Detroit

By JACK HAND
News-Review Sports Writer
Thanks to Gil Hodges, the Brooklyn Dodgers are only a game and a half behind the St.
Louis Cardinals in the rugged
National league race.
Hodges, propably the best first

National league race.

Hodges, probably the best first baseman in the league although he is playing his first full season at the job, is giving Jackie Robinson a run for his money as the most valuable Dodger. He is hitting only 294, but his sense of timing is terrific.

Rex Barney, struggling to redeem himself, after flopping had yall season, trailed Murry Dickson, 32, in the ninth inning yesterday when big Gil did his stuff. There was a runner on first and one out.

43 loss.

The Cards' season-long "cousins," the Boston Braves, turned on their old formentors to blast St. Louis, 12-t. In addition to the loss, their fifth in 20 meetings with the 1948 champs, the Cards were crippled by an injury to pitcher Red Munger. The husky righthanded winner of 12 games left the game after he pulled a side muscle batting in the third.

Other National leaguers were idle.

Yankees' Lead Reduced
The crippled New York Yankees lost a full game of their American league lead, which now measured three games, by dropping a 6-2 decision to the St. Louis ping a 6-2 decision to the St. Louis Browns. Runner-up Boston

blanked Detroit, 3-0, behind Ellis Kinder to snap the Tigers' eight game win string.
Yankee Ed Lopat was knocked out in the fourth inning with Stan Spence's second straight double. Rookie Roy Sievers was the batting star, knocking in three 'Brownle runs to case Al Papai's pitching job. Lopat's third inning homer was the only Yank score off Papai until the seventh.
Kinder, almost a sure thing to join Mel Parnell in the 20-win club, picked up his 17th victory with a brilliant five-hit shutout of Detroit. Elght-game win streaks,

The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.-Wed., Aug. 31, 1945

• SPORTS •

Battle Royal Of Six Men On Saturday Wrestling Bill To Feature Two Yaqui Indians

three falls.

The two Indians, the veteran Joe and the fast-developing Kid, are expected to attract the most attention among Douglas county fans. The other matmen have attention among Douglas county fans. The other matmen have wa. ned that the referee must watch out for any ganging up between the two Indians, and McEuin said, "All hell will be poppin' if those redskins try anything tricky. They'll wish their tribe had never heard of scalping." It appears inevitable that Joe will attempt to both aid and protect his protege in his first battle royal. He has done virtually that in every other match.

Three of the principals are aim-ing at a title match with Buck would go a long way in establish-

New Date Announced For Woodcock-Savold Battle

There was a runner.

6 ne out.

Hodges slammed a Dickson gopher ball special into the left field seats for his 21st homer to break up the ball game. That ruined Dickson's budding win streak and handed Pittsburgh a 43 loss.

The Cards' season-long "cousting and the season long the season

LEAGUE LEADERS

By The Associated Pres. HATTING Hobbisson, fl. Slaughter, St. Louis, 327, RUNS BATTED IN-Rob yn, 105 Kiner, Pittsburgf HOME RUNS-Kiner, P. Rusial, St. Louis, 27, STRIK-GOUTS-Spann, Boston, 112: Newcombe, Brookirn, 111: BATTING Williams, Boston, 357; Kail, Deiroit, 344 HUNS HATTED IN Stephens, Bos-ton, 140; Williams, Boston, 136. HOME HIVSS-Williams and Stephens, STRIKEOUTS-Trucks, Detroit, 132; Newhouser, Detroit, 112.

ROY'S MEN'S STORE

PRE-SEASON

OVERCOATS

Regular 50.00 West-of-England Coverts will hold the coat of your choice until October 1.

Lay away a coat today.

Samuel Martin, Ltd. . . . 75.00 and 85.00

Roseburg High Grid Hopefuls Working Out

Players Perform Under Guidance Of Coaches In Team-Building Efforts

wrestling "battle royal" at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night, Matchmaker Elton Owen announced.

Other principals in the free-for-all for a $250 purse will be Jack Kiser, ex-coast champ from Portland; Pierre LaBelle, talented French-Canadian from Montreal; Tony Falletti, the head football constitution of the principals are the principal principals are the principal principals are the principal principal principals are the principal principal principals are the principal prin would go a long way in establishing any of the trio as title contenders. The ambitious group includes the young Indian, Kiser and McEuin.

The six-man event will actually be three matches. The first two men pinned to the mat or knocked out, as the case may be, will retire for the evening—with just enough compensation to pay expenses. The next two ousfed will return for a one-fall, 30-minute match, and the finalists will wrestle for 30 minutes or two out of three falls.

On another section of the field. Pay Brown worked with linemen on tackling. Early arriving Junior high school talent, working under coaches Frank Purdy and Ed Wyatt, were initiated into the works oncerted down-field to tackle would-be ball carriers.

Last night's drill was topped off with a 30-minute scrimmage, with most of the work concentration of the field.

Last night's drill was topped off with a 30-minute scrimmage, with most of the work concentrated on new plays. Sherwood will use the T-formation and single wing, alternately, as the occasion demands.

Dale Blanck, sturdy letterman and, is out of bed after suffering from the mumps. He is expect-ed to be in a football uniform shortly.

The candidates wound up the rugged session with wind sprints, before knocking off for the night. Practice will continue each eve-ning this week, with the exception of Saturday, at which time the candidates will meet in the morn-ing. No practice will be held over Sunday and Monday, Labor day weekend.

royal. He has done virtually that in every other match.

Fans who haven't seen Joe in action for years will be surprised at the ability of the veteran. He has appeared several times at the Veterans hospital and recently fought a successful team match in Eugene.

In the meantime it was understoot the the Roseburg commission has backed up Referee Owen's decision of last week when he disqualified Georges Dusette when the Frenchman lost his head for a time in a hectic bout against

Four of the big Elater fireflies for a time in a hectic bout against Weaver.

Reserved seat tickets for Satur-day's show are on sale at Powell's.

Four of the big Elater fireflies of Mexico or Brazil can throw nough light by which a book can be read.

Top 3 Teams In Coast League Win

It looks like it will take that crucial Hollywood-Sacramento se-ries, starting Friday, to cause any excitement in the Pacific coast ries, starting rritary, to cause any excitement in the Pacific coast league.

Tuesday night's results found the loop's first three teams winning and the league standings unchanged. Hollywood blanked San Francisco, 7 to 0, to keep its three-game lead. Oakland homered a 10-to-3 victory off Los Angeles to stay in second place while Sacramento edged San Diego, 3 to 2, to stay a game behind the Oaks.

Gordy Maltzberger threw a five-hitter in shutting-out the seals. Dick Kryhoski, Loyd Christopher and Jackie Jensen slammed the four-baggers that produced eight of the Oaks' runs. Jensen's blast rame with the bisses loaded. Angel Carmen Mauro homered in all of the losers' runs.

Jim Tabor's 15th home run of the season provided the Solons' tying run. In the seventh he doubled and then scored the windoubled and then scored the win-ning run.

Seattle nosed out Portland, 2 to
1. Jack Warren's fourth inning homer was the clincher. The Rainiers' first tally was unearned.

Chiefs Dated For Playoffs' Finale

Sunday, the Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs wind up a successful base-ball season in the Southern Oregon league, by playing either Medford Craters or Ashland Lithians for the Shaughnessy base-ball trophy, at Finlay field.

Ashland and Medford battle it out tonight at Medford, to decide which meets Roseburg. The loser plays Central Point for the consolation prize. The four clubs were the top teams in the Southern Oregon league, that ended regular play a week ago Sunday. The Chiefs were on top with eleven wins and only three losses.

Also listed for Sunday is the eleven wins and only three losses.

Also listed for Sunday is the announcement of the All-Star team of the Southern Oregon league, according to Chiefs' manager Earl Surgent.
The Chiefs will try for their 35th win in 47 games played. Mel Krause will start the pitching for Roseburg.

BASEBALL STANDINGS

PACIFIC	COAST L	EAGER	Pet
Hollywood	119	TO	.500
Oakland		73	.541
Sacramento	- 55	74	,335
San Diego	70	77	-519
San Francisco	76	83	479
Portland	75	83	475
Los Augeles		546	400
NATIO:	NAL LEA	GUE	37.00
	W	L	Pet
St. Louis	78	48	.619
Brooklyn	76	49	608
Boston Philadelphia	- 65	62	-520
New York	- 22	62	-2000
Pittsburgh	3/7	67	4400
Cincinnati	50	74	400
Chicago	48	79	-383
AMERI	CAN LE	AGUE	2000-11
44.	W	T.	Pct
New York	77	46	626
Boston Cleveland	16	31	-596
Detroit	73	87	A30
Philadelphia	665	200	512
Chicago	51	75	405
St. Louis	40	82	350
Washington	42	312	.339

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Assiciated Press:

HARTFORD, Conn.—Vio Cardell, 145,
Wilson, Conn. surpointed Frankle Vigtant. 144, Thomasion, Conn. 112,
MONTREAL—Ray Edwards, 128, 3, 4,
New York, outpointed Maurice La Chapelle, 1284, Montreal 10;
LOS ANGELES—Maxie Docusen, 125, 4,
New Origans, knocked out Lem Thomhas, 137, Chicago, 44,

It's safer driving At any rate If wheels are aligned And running straight

COMPLETE alignment FOR YOUR

- Check wheels for bal
- Inspect king pin inclinat
- ► Adjust steering me Inspect brakes for drog

► Road test car

LOCKWOOD MOTORS

Rose and Oak

Phone 80

CITY CHAMPS-Declared winners of the Y.M.C.A.-sponsored city junior men's tennis doubles tournament were Dick Jacob-son and Ronnie Strickling (standing), when they defeated Gene Henry and Gene Wilkerson (kneeling), on the local court Monday.

Jacobson, also winner of the junior men's singles tourney, is shown in the lower photo.

Presentation of first place ribbons climaxed the summer season for boys of this age and play will be suspended until next year, again under the spon-sorship of the local "Y".— (Staff photo.)

Major League Scouts Eyeing Junior Series

OMAHA, Aug. 31. — (P) — It's payoff time for some teen-agers' baseball ambitions.

Tonight the American Legion junior baseball little world series opens here. At stake will be a championship sought after by 16,000 sandlot teams, a place in baseball's hall of fame and maybe some careers in big league baseball.

baseball.

The boys who hope to cash In on a summer or more of dead-earnest sandlot play come from Cicinnati, Atlanta, Oakland, Calif., and Wheeling, W. Va.

For the little world series scouts from all of the 16 major league teams will be in the stands at Omaha's municipal stadium.

Championship Golf Play On At Country Club

Local golfers at the country club are currently in the midst of championship play. Ward Cum-mings Jr., having defeated Charles Kash, will play his father Ward Cummings Sr., who de-feated Maurice Hallmark, for the club championship.

cated Maurice Hallmark, for the club championship.

Two tournaments are scheduled for the coming weekend. A 36-hole handicap tournament will be played Saturday and Sunday, while on Monday a foursome tournament is listed.

Poseburg country club golfers

Roseburg country club golfers defeated the visiting Cottage Grove team, 43½ to 19½, here Sun-day in a team match. The first steelworks in America is believed to have been one established at Trenton, N. J., in 1734.

About 470 million lemons, the Tea Bureau reports, are with iced tea every year.

The Chicago Cubs may be wallowing in the bottom of the Na-tional league, but the sky's the

Improvements At Finlay Field About Completed

Improvements to Finlay field and the grandstand are nearing the completion stage, according to Cece Sherwood, football coach at Senior high and athletic di-rector of the Roseburg school system.

Underneath the grandstands, a special partition has been built, to accommodate Junior high school gridders, who will work alongside Sherwood's varsity team. Closer contact between junior and senior school groups is being stressed this year, so that the younger football aspirants will have first-hand knowledge of what to expect when they reach the "senior" level.

Drying racks are still before the "senior" level.

Drying racks are still being constructed, on which uniforms will be hung after each game. In the first aid room, students have covered the walls with a new coat of paint.

A new hot water heater has been installed and hot water in the showers is assured after each practice session or game.

Two carloads of cinders donated by Roseburg athletic supporters, were shoveled onto the track, It will be rolled and allowed to settle for the track season next spring.

spring.

With an eye to cutting down

With an eye to cutting down water expenses, a pump has been installed near the grandstand and water is being pumped from the river to irrigate the turf and practice area. Heretofore, city water was used to wet down the field. Also, new sprinklers have been purchased.

Arthur McGhehey, local cabinet maker, is donating labor to make football benches from lumber donated by the Roseburg boxing promoters.

ing promoters.

Tentatively listed for early construction is another section of bleachers, opposite the grand-stands.

limit on money for fresh talent,
That came from owner P. K.
Wrigley, who estimated yesterday that the Cubs have spent $2,000,000 on player material over a four-year period, including this season.

"That's a lot of money" Wrigley conceded, but added; "Grimm (Vice-President Charley Grimm) is now in the east talking with other clubs and there's no limit on what he can spend."

J. N. BOOR OUTBOARD MOTORS Gdn. Valler Rd. Ph. 530-J-Johnson Sea Horse Dealer

the QD-10 with Gear and Mile-Master Tank, Buy on Bank Terms

Yaqui Joe Jack Kiser

Tony Falletti The Yaqui Kid Pierre LaBelle Billy McEuin

ROSEBURG ARMORY, SEPT. 3

A RBUCKLE'S

Right on Jackson

ROBLEE raises the ante on heavy soles with the stouthearted 4-ply beauty you see here. Burly as a lumberjack. The smartest mileage misers you've ever worn. Mellow Cordovan uppers in the boot-seam blucher plain toe pattern. Full leather lined.

$15.95

5 and H Green Stamps given on every purchase.

Alligator . . . 27.50 to 42.75

Timely . . . 57.50 and up

Botany "500" . . . 60.00

OVERCOATS

(Imported English)

Adjoining U.S. National Bank