INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 1 —(A)

—The Grand Army of the Republic broke up for the last time today.

today.

There was a final clasping of shaking old hands last night, a godspeed from their commander and a prayer.

Today six old veterans are scattering never to meet again, at least in formal encampment. They signed and sealed the decision in their only business session vesterday. vesterday sion yesterday.

Then for more than an hour, veterans of later wars marched behind the separate cars in which the six tired old soldiers rode in a twilight parade. Almost 100,000 thronged the curbs along the 12-block route, cheering the aged men in their last blaze of martial glory.

The war memories were few and fleeting in the "campfire" session that closed the 83rd and last encampment. "I was a drum Penland proudly received a diamond-studded past command-er's badge, though he'll now oe commander for life. The badge, commander for life. The badge, pinned on his blue uniform oy his grandson, Eldon C. Geyer, East Lansing, Mich., recognizes his service for the past year.

For the other centenarians, any war memories were crowded out by the present and the uncertainties of life.

"I have a hobby," reported James A. Hard, 108, Rochester, N. Y., "to receive a kiss from most of the ladies in the land."

After Hours Of Labor

MASON CITY, Ia., Sept. 1—(P)—A mama pig crawled into a drain pipe near here and almost orphaned 11 little pigs.

Here's the story as Clem Hebel, the porker's owner tells it:

A 350-pound sow disappeared Sunday after giving birth to 11 pigs. Hebel searched in vain Monday and Tuesday.

Finally, while hunting for the missing porker in a ditch near the opening of a 20-inch drainage tile Tuesday evening. Hebel heard squeals far inside the pine. He summoned neighbors and they dug for the animal from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. without success.
