

GUS LINDBLOOM, veteran fruit and produce grower of Dixonville, kneels in a field of irrigated tomatoes on some fertile bottom land of his large farm. They are just coming into nice production and constitute, he reports, the best yield he has ever had considering both quantity and quality.

As a young man Gus was a merchant in Colorado. "I came to he told me, "on the recommendation of a Roseburg school teacher who formed one of a party touring Yellowstone park one summer. She talked so much and so favorably about Roseburg and Douglas county I decided I had to see it. She was Rosa Parrott, and since I have been here I've thought many times I ought to call her and tell her what a good promotion talk she gave. But I never did—I had only merely overheard her talking to members of her party; I never met her." Well, I'm sure Miss Parrott would be charmed to know Gus.

Well, I'm sure Miss Parrott would be charmed to know Gus.

She and her family before her have been here long enough to know what Douglas county is like.

Boy Slays His Father

"To Teach Him Lesson"

In the Day's News "To Teach Him Lesson"

In the Day's News

powers"—which is about as nasty said.
Williams added that the father an insult as Moscow can lay its a 36-year-old truck driver, had tongue to.)

WATCH it-but don't get too Missing Madras Girl excited. When one gangster calls another gangster a crook EIGHT TIMES IN A ROW it makes good

(Continued on Page Four)

Justice Rutledge In

"To Teach Him Lesson"

By FRANK JENKINS

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 2

(P)— A 15-year-old boy who killed his father to teach him "a lesson" was in custody of his mother today.

County Police Chief Julian F. Williams said the youth, Leonard Craven, would be charged with Yugoslavia's frontier accented the shotgun slaying after a corner's inquest. He quoted the youth as saying he did the shoot ing "to teach my father a lesson." The youth faially wounded his father, Marion M. Craven, after the Elder Craven had threatened him an "ally of the Western powers"—which is about as nasty said.

Found In Cascade Area

MADRAS, Sept. 2. — (#) — A 15-year-old girl, object of a wide-spread search, was found safe yesterday on Olallie butter. yesterday on Olallie butte.
"All I want is a bath," said Virginia Carpenter, who was sunburnt but apparestly otherwise unburt from her 24 hours on the York hospital bulletin.

The hospital said his name was on the "critical" list.

The bulletin was issued by Justice Rutledge's physicians, Dr. Fred A. Geier of Washington, D. C., and Dr. Elmer Tower of the hospital staff.

The 55-year-old turist is suffering from a circulatory ailment.

Legion Names New National Leader, Urges Atom Secrecy. Communist Party Outlawing

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2-4P-The American Legion's new national commander-40-year-old George N. Craig of Brazil, Ind.stood pledged today to make that organization "an important voice in the nation's political and social life." The Hoosier lawyer-the first.

World War two veteran ever named to head the Legion—was chosen yesterday in a nip-and-tuck race with three other candidates. The job pays $15,000 annually and carries with it a $35,000 expense allowance.

In November the Legion's na-ional executive committee will tional executive committee will decide where the 1950 conclave will be. Los Angeles, Boston and New York are bidding for the New York are bidding for the site.

"My generation has already carried the responsibility of national security in time of war," Craig said, "and now we join, in unity of purpose, our older comrades... in promoting and safeguarding those principles necessary for our continued strength and prosperity as a nation."

The Legion took these stands:

1. The U. S. should retain atomic percey under civilian con-atomic energy under civilian con-trol and not share the atom se-crets with any nation, including

2. Aid to China nationalists fighting communism.

3. Curtailment "as far as possible" of any further immigration

(Continued on Page Two)

Party Leaders Desert Sheriff Elliott

U. Of O. Library Eugene, Oregon

STOMACH INVIOLATE

Internal Hunt

For Narcotics

Illegal, Ruling

County Engages

Architect For

Indigent Home

The Douglas County court has

Members of the court contact-ed Laing recently, when they in spected a similar county home project now nearing completion for Jackson county at Medford, said Judge D. N. Busenbark.

Doomed Ex-Oregon Man

Appeals To High Court

Truman Signs VA Bill,

Less Than He Requested

the atomic energy commission and a score of so-called independent ent federal agencies.

The money is to finance the agencies for the fiscal year end agencies for the liscal year end-ing next June 30.

Its total is $433,604,469 less than the President requested. In addi-tion to the cash, the bill per-mits the agencies to incur con-tract obligations up to $452,189, 1898.

SYDNEY, Australia, Sept. 2.

— (P) — William Westren, 72year-old pensioner, bought another ticket in the New South Wales state lottery recently.

The ticket won first prize of £5,000 ($19,380) today.
But Westren was not on hand. He died last night of a heart attack.

His daughter, Nita Westren,

"He waited all his life to win

Lottery Prize Won

searched.

The Weather

Fair today, tonight and Sat-rday, Continued warm.

Ihe News-Keview

Ex-Con Jailed

Airport Issue To Be Given Voters Of Firearm

Feeder Line Service Aim Of Proposal

Requirements Finally Listed After Two Years Of CAA Investgiation

The question of whether Rose the question of whether Rose-burg is to have an airport, cer-tified as available for feeder line service, soon will be ready to place before voters. After investigations covering a

Willis, 42-year-old laborer, was arrested June 26 by federal narcotics agents. He was taken to a hospital, strapped to a bed and a stomach pump was applied officers said they recovered two capsules of heroin by this method. After investigations covering a period of more than two years, a definite minimum runway length has been fixed and center line established. Engineering estimates as to the cost of runway extension, grading, draining, surfacing, lighting, etc., now can be prepared and submitted at an election.

election.
For more than two years representatives of the Civil Aeronautics administration, State Aeronautics board, National Pilots association, City of Roseburg and chamber of commerce have been endeavoring to prepare an airport plan meeting minimum CAA

The CAA will approve the Rose-burg airport in its present loca-tion providing the north end of the existing runway is moved a short distance to the west and extended 800 feet to the north, Yuravich told George West, chair-man of the Roseburg city coun-city aviation committee. City cil's aviation committee; C. Manager Matt Slankard, B.

(Continued on Page Two)

Damages Asked in Fatal Collision Involving S. P. Co.

Damages of $15,000 are asked by the administrator of the es-tate of Clark F. Bartholomy, who was killed, along with his wife, June, in a pickup truck-train col-lision May 19 at Drain R. L. Whipple as administrator, has named as defendants the

R. L. Whippie as administrator, has named as defendants the Southern Pacific Co., W. E. Ir-win, the engineer, and Charles Swearingen operator of the pick-up in which the Bartholomys Justice Rutledge in undurt from her 24 hours on the peak.

"Critical" Condition

YORK, Me., Sept. 2.—(P)—The condition of Supreme Court Justice Wiley B. Rutledge was reported as "grave" today by a York hospital shid his name was on the "critical" list.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. The hospital said his name was on the "critical" list.

The bulletin was issued by Justice Rutledge's physicians, Dr. and a dozen piane where passengers.

Negligence on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the alleged grounds of failing to maintain gates, flagman or proper warning device at the crossing on B street in Drain, that the engineer failed to blow the whistle or ring a bell, and that the train was traveling at an unreasonable" rate of speed under the Oscar Larson, operator of the Westellow were passengers.

Negligence on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the alleged grounds of failing to maintain gates, flagman or proper warning device at the crossing on B street in Drain, that the engineer failed to blow the whistle or ring a bell, and that the train was traveling at an unreasonable" rate of speed under the Committee for Law and Ore, resident, is appealing his death sentence to the supreme outred of the Southern Pacific is charged on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the part of the Southern Pacific is charged on the linked States.

Schneider was convicted of the slaying of Frank J. Ford. Denver warning device at the cross-ling on B street in Drain, that the engineer failed to blow the whistle or ring a bell, and that the train was traveling at an unreasonable" rate of speed under the United States.

Schneider sattorney, J. Corder Smith of Fort Morgan based the weekend's disturbance.

Bord Tore, Tesident, is appealing his death sentence to the suspice outred the united States.

Schneider sattorney, J. Corder Smith of For charged with negligence in that he allegedly falled to keep a proper lookout and to keep the truck under control so as avoid

City Jail Overcrowded. Eugene Frees Prisoners

EUGLNE, Sept. 2 (P) All the prisoners arrested by city police on minor charges were at large today.

Sheriff C. A. Swarts let them all out of jall yesterday, declaring that his county jail no longer had enough room for city prison-

The Sheriff said the county jail was designed for eight prisoners; now has 25; and --with city prisoners thrown in, too - has been jammed with an average 35 to 45 during the past

City police chief Keith Jones, who hasn't got any cells of his own, appealed for quick construction of a city jail "to protect the public".

tract obligations as 528.

Approximately $5,000,000,000 of the total is for the veterans administration and $1,000,000,000 for the atomic energy commission.

Women Paint Crosswalks When Crew Quits Job

Day After Death Hits OCEANLAKE, Sept. 2 -(P) The crew painting cross walks across the highway in this coastai town quit the other day.

So the town's women, who thought cars were passing entirely too fast for the safety of school pupils, went down to the city supply house and picked up the paint. They went out to the highway and painted six cross walks.

"We want it done before school opens Tuesday," they ex-

Here For Use

Accused Of Shooting At Yoncalla Marshal, Who Retaliates In Car Chase

Chester William Clark, 50, Port-land, is being held in the Douglas county jail, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, after-he allegedly fired a shot from a 45 calibre pistol at City Marshal Vincent A. McElmurry, Yoncalla, reported State Police Sgt. Lyle Harrell.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2—(#)—
It's illegal to search a man's stomach for evidence, a federal judge has ruled.

After giving the opinion that such a procedure is "trial by ordeal." Judge Jacob Weinberger yesterday dismissed narcotics charges brought against Andrew Willis, whose stomach was searched. Clark, an ex-convict from Fol-som prison and the Oregon State penitentiary, according to Har-rell, will be charged further as an ex-convict carrying a fire-arm. Aliases for Clark are listed as Don Lester Rae, Charles Con-ley and Leo Hartman.

McElmurry gave chase as Clark, in an alleged intoxicated clars, in an alleged infoxicated condition, drove through Yon-calla about 11:30 p.m., Thursday, according to the officer's report. The chase continued to Rice hill, where 'Clark partially wrecked his car, but managed to get back on the highway. Judge Weinberger commented weeked his ca that this was the most unusual procedure" he had ever heard of for obtaining evidence. However Willis was immediate-car and startes

As McElmurry got out of his car and started toward Clark, the latter pulled his 45 and fired a round, said Harrell. He then got back in his car and continued on, later completely wrecking the vehicle further south on Rice hill.

The marshal didn't take any (Continued on Page Two)

Paul Robeson signed an agreement securing the services of William Laing, Medford, as architect for the new county home. Vows He'll Sing At Site Of Riot The architect will be charged with drafting of plans and speci-fications and engineering of the project, while it is under con-

PEEKSSKILL, N. Y., Sept. PLEASKILL, N. Y., Sept. Z.

(20) — Paul. Robeson says he will hold a concert Sunday — a mile from where a riot broke up a scheduled appearance last week —and veterans groups say they'll stage a parade to protest it, as they did before.

The Negro singer, declaring "There'll be no more Peekskill-not like that," announced his acceptance last night of an invita-tion to sing Sunday afternoon in nearby Cortlandt, where the riot

The Jackson county project is almost identical, although slightly smaller than that planned for this county. The local home is scheduled to have 60 beds, compared with 55 at Medford. Ten-Fourteen veterans groups im-mediately countered at a meeting near here with plans to hold a pared with 35 at Mediord, ten-tative plans in a rough draft have been submitted by Laing. The Douglas county home will probably be located on the Douglas Community hospitalsite, although formal agreement has not yet been completed. parade past the new concert scene that would be what they termed "a conclusive demonstration DENVER, Sept. 2.— (P)—Paul J. Schneider, former Hubbard, Ore., resident, is appealing his death sentence to the supremental Stokes.

After several stays of execu-tion, Schneider now is in the penitentiary, pending a decision on whether the supreme court will review the case.

Charge.

The slot machines alleged to have been in his possession, how-ever, could not be brought in at the time of the arrest and they

Replacement of a bridge with the time of the arrest and they reportedly were removed into Jackson county, according to Davis. Officers in that county are searching for the machines, be said. WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—(P)— President Truman has signed a bill appropriating $7.617,739,361 for the veterans administration

The group has held to its posi-tion in face of a stern interdict

Heresy Dispute Not Settled

Despite Ruling From Vatican

despite a Vatican ruling upholding Archbishop Richard J. Cushing announcement said the ruling was made by the supreme sacred congregation of the holy affice, over which the Pope presides.

The decision was announced by Archbishop Cushing in "The Polit," official publication of the Boston Catholic archdiocese. The steel bridge over Steamboat creek, on the North Umpqua highway, shows coffer dam in midstream, where center pier has steel bridge over Steamboat creek, on the North Umpqua highway, shows coffer dam in midstream, where center pier has since been constructed. This view was taken on upstream side of Steamboat creek, which flows into the North Umpqua river just to the left of this picture. On the far side is site of old Steamboat library of the junior high school for the first general session, in greparation for school opening over the new Steamboat creek bridge this fall. The concrete-and-steel span costing a total of about $123,000, is a link on the North Umpqua highway.

Steamboat Bridge Progress Promises Opening To Traffic On N. Umpqua Road This Fall

"a conclusive demonstration against communism."

A scheduled concert by the Negro singer—who has been actively identified with leftist movements—broke up into a fierce riot Saturday after veterans groups staged a counter-demonstration.

At least eight persons were injured, two seriously.

Robeson will sing Sunday under auspices of the "Westchester Committee for Law and Order," which describes itself as a nonpolitical group formed after last weekend's disturbance.

Steal Spait costing a total alabatic steat of solution is all line on the North Umpqua highway.

M. M. Nelson, supervisor of the contractors have started to place steel girders on the bridge and expect to complete the project in the tail.

The bridge is 309 feet long, built on a slight curve. It includes three concrete piers and concrete abutments at either end. Work on the center pier necessitated construction of a coffer dam in Steamboat creek, in order to place the foundation on bedon the center pier necessitated construction of a coffer dam in Steamboat creek, in order to place the foundation on bed-rock.

whistle or ring a bell, and that the train was traveling at an "unreasonable" rate of speed under the conditions and circumstances are also alleged.

The defendant Swearingen is charged with negligence in that he allegedly falled to keep a proper lookout and to keep the truck under control so as avoid the collision.

A daughter, Marlene Faye, and Son, David Lester, survive the Bartholomys.

After several stays of execution, Schneider now is in the staying scheduler and the train was traveling at an deprivational rights were derived under control so as avoid the collision.

Larson, operator of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work. The contract includes construction of the slaying Schneider was arrested in Pikeville, Ky., and returned to Denver before he got legal counsel.

After several stays of execution, Schneider now is in the stay of the start of the provided of the provided and the contractors, while the Oscar Larson, operator of the Sarthe odge, has paid a fine of $100 in the justice court of A. J. Geddes, upon a charge of possession of four slot may chines, reported District Attorney Robert G. Davis.

Larson operator of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work. The contract includes construction of the forest of the provided at either end of the bridge.

Oscar Larson, operator of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work. The contract includes construction of the forest of the provided at the contractors, while the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work. The contract includes construction of the first of European Court in the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work. The contract of the provided at the contract of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work of the first of European Court in the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads is supervising the work of the first of $100 in the justice court of A. J. Geddes, upon a charge of possession of four slot may contract includes for the first of $100 in the justice court of A. J. Geddes charge.

The slot machines alleged to culverts. The bridge was broken

(Continued on Page Two)

St. Paul children ended last night | Sunt. Elliott issued another absent since noon yesterday, at-tendiny the state fair.

tendiny the state fair.

Officers opened the refrigerator to find the tots curied up in separate compartments behind tightly closed doors. Fire department rescue squad members used sayges for an hoar to a valu of fort to revive them.

Police said they would question playmates to learn if the two pulled the doors closed accidentally or whether they had been shut by other children. They could not be opened from the inside. Upholding Boston Archbishop BOSTON, Sept. 2.-(49-A five months dispute between the

Boston hierarchy and a Roman Catholic group over whether there is salvation outside the Catholic church still appears unsettled today

Roseburg Boy Named For Alternate Appointment

Congressman Harris Elisworth today amounteed the commutation of Gerald W. Anderson, 903 S. congregation of the holy affice, over which the Pope presides.

The controversial group, led by the Rev. Leonard J. Feeney, S. J. has persisted in the contention non-Catholics could not be saved. The church holds otherwise.

The sacred congregation ruling ended with a solemn warning to Fr. Feeney adherents to abandon their position immediately "at the peril of their soula."

Fr. Feeney indicated he would stand pat pending an ex-cathedra announcement from the Pope himself.

The group has held to its position in face of a stern interciber. Stephens st., Roseburg, as second alternate for appointment to the U. S. Military academy at West Point, N. Y.

Nominations are based on grades earned in the Civil Servgrades earned in the Civil Service unifying examination taken by Anderson and all other competing candidates in July. In the event of failure of his principal and first alternate to qualify. Anderson will succeed them and enter the academy in July 1050 on meeting final physical and mental requirements.

Of Bond Asked In Fresh Move

Multnomah Group And State Treasurer Alter Their Views On Officer

PORTLAND, Sept. 2.—(P)—Sheriff Mike Elliott was confronted with possible ioss of his bond today while his friend and advisor, Mike de Cicci, won a legal skirmish on a harboring-a-fugitive charge.

Late yesterday De Cicco was charged with harboring a fugitive from Los Angeles. The man, Waiter H. Bergen, was arrested in Vancouver, Wash, today and a short time later the charge against De Cicco was dropped.

Deputy District Attorney Charles E Raymond said, after De Cicco appeared in his office: "The information will be withdrawn and the warrant will be

De Cicco appeared in his office:
"The information will be withdrawn and the warrant will be recelled." He added that as the case developed, it might later be necessary to ask a grand jury to look into it.

De Cicco's attorney. Thomas R. Mahoney, said the whole thing was due to De Cicco's support of Elliott, who is under attack in a receil move. De Cicco is state Democratic party treasurer. Elliett also is a Democrat.

Elliott's latest difficulty came when Walter Pearson, state treasurer, called for cancellation of the bond that keeps the sheriff in office.

Pearson, a Democrat who previously 'had supported Elliott, said he had changed his mind about the sheriff, and implied that a majority of Democratic party leaders had done likewise.
The action came several hours after the charge was filed against De Cicco, friend and adviser of Elliott.

Both Pearson and De Cicco were instrumental in getting the $118,090 bond for Elliott in the

Both Pearson and De Cicco were instrumental in getting the $110,000 band for Eillott in the first place. Elliott, now the target of a recall movement, had trouble in raising the bond. Finally De Cicco contributed money. Pearson, then an insurance agent, arranged for the bond.

Family Tangle Involved

The charge against De Cicco resulted from a Los Angeles do mestic tangle in which Walter H. Bergen, 36, ex-Los Angeles county auxiliary deputy sheriff is accused by his ex-wife of make

School Opening Plans Prepared By School Staff

to the left of this picture. On the far side is site of old Steamboat guard station.—(Picture by Forest service.)

Traffic is expected to move over the new Steamboat creek bridge this fail. The concrete-and-steel span costing a total of about $123,000, is a link on the North Umpqua highway.

M. M. Nelson, supervisor of the Umpqua highway.

M. M. Nelson, supervisor of the Umpqua hational forest, said the contractors have started to place steel girders on the bridge and expect to complete the project in the fail.

The bridge is 303 feet long built on a slight curve. It includes three concrete piers and concrete abutments at either end. Work on the center pier necessitated construction of a coffer dam in Steamboat creek, in order to place the foundation on bedrock.

Lockyear and White of Seattle are the contractors, while the are the contractors and the first general session, in preparation for the first general session, in the national stream of the five miles of the North Dumpus pass of the contractor for the committee of the North Dumpus read of the North Dumpus read of the study curriculum for the committee of the North Dumpus pass of the study curriculum for the committee of the study curriculum for the committee of the North Dumpus pass of the double shift seat of the double shift system. Elliottee of the study curriculum for the committee of the North Dumpus pass of th

A citywide search for two small St. Paul children ended last night when their smothered bodies were found in an ice box, stored in a neighbor's garage.

The tiny victims were Franklin Sherer, five, and two and one half year old Sandra, a tot for whom Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sherer, the boy's parents, were caring pending her adoption by the family.

Mrs. Shever missed the children shortly before dinner time and called police. Squad cars were alerted.

But it wasn't until four hours found franklin's tricycle in the garage of John Linnerooth, next door neighbor of the Sherers.

The Linnerooth family had been absent since noon yesterday, attendiny the state fair.

Supt. Elliott issued another plea for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for houses, to be rented at reasonable rates to women teachers.

Elliott issued another plea for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for worm when the part of the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for worm when the part of the said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for city teachers. He said the great demand now is for housing for cathering head the great demand now is for housing for cathering head the great demand now is for houses to be rented at

p. m.

McLaughlin said only quick action by the 29 loggers and fire patroimen kept the blaze from spreading rapidly through the dangerous area. Two pump trucks used, in addition to three house steps is probably intended to match the feelings of the property owners when they receive their next tex

