St. Louis Tips Phils, Dodgers Cincy Divide

Yanks Edge Out Browns While Runner-Up Soxos Are Blanked By Tigers

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sportswriter

Runners-up in both the National and American leagues lost ground yesterday. The Brooklyn Dodgers got off on the right foot, outscoring Cincinnati, 11-8, in the first portion of a doubleheader. The Reds bounced back, however, to upset the Brooks, 4-3, in the 10th inning. At the same time, the St. Louis Cardinals were knocking off the Phillies in Philadelphia to pick up half a length on the Brooks. Howie Pollet spun a five-hitter for his 17th victory.

The Red Sox led with their ace—20-game winner Mel Parnell—but they were trumped by the Detroit Tigers, who shut them out, 7-0, behind the seven-hit pitching of Art Houtteman.

The Yankees came through with their patented "squaker," a wobbly 4-3 victory over the Browns in St. Louis. Tommy Myrne picked up his 12th victory but needed help from ace fireman Joe Page in the ninth.

The Cleveland Indians, baseball marathon champs, won another overtime tussle, edging out the Philadelphia Athletics, 2-1, in 11 innings. It was the Indians' 17th straight overtime victory and their 18th in 19 extra-inning games.

Randy Gumpert pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 3-0 win over Washington. Dick Welk's 13 walks helped the White Sox to an end.

The third place Boston Braves in the National whipped the Chicago Cubs, 8-4, as catcher Bill Salkeld batted in five runs with a home run and two singles. Warren Spahn picked up his 17th pitching triumph.

Despite Ralph Kiner's grand slam homer for Pittsburgh, the New York Giants defeated the Pirates, 9-5, on round trippers by Hank Thompson, Bobby Thomson and Billy Rigney. The Giants moved into fourth place, a half game over the Phils.

Burt Shotton, the usually mild-mannered manager of the Dodgers, was chased out of a ball game for the first time in three seasons with the club.

schedule is all in their favor.

The Cards have 27 games left to play, and 18 of them are at home. On the other hand, the second place Brooks must play 17 of their remaining 27 games on foreign fields.

Furthermore, 13 of the Cards' games are against the seventh and eighth place Cincinnati and Chicago clubs. They've already won 21 out of 31 from these basement bargains.

The Brooks have to play with the third and fourth place Boston and New York teams. They've played under 500 ball against these first divisioners, winning 15 and losing 16 to the Giants and Braves.

In the American league, it is likely the seven games between the league leading New York Yankees and runnersup Boston Red Sox will settle the issue. The Red Sox trail the Yankees by three games. Their chances are not bright by any means, but they're not as dark as those of the Dodgers.

Boston plays 14 of its remaining 25 games at home, but the Yankees play 23 of their 29 games at friendly Yankee stadium.

Hollies Defeat Seals, Oakland Wallops Angels

By JIM BACON

Hollywood takes on third-place Sacramento tonight in a six-game series that well deserves that old standby adjective—crucial.

The Stars erupted for six runs in the eighth inning last night against San Francisco for a 10-to-3 win. Pinky Woods, who relieved, got credit for his 19th win against 11 losses.

The win retained the Stars' scant two-game margin over the second place Oakland Oaks who swept their three-game series with Los Angeles. Frankie Nelson limited the lowly Angels to five hits in winning, 4 to 0. It was the Oaks' fifth straight win.

Sacramento dropped to four games off the pace in losing a 2-1 decision to San Diego. Kewpie Dick Barrett tossed six-hit ball in winning. Orestes Mino scored the Padres' clinching run in the tenth when he scored on a foul fly.

Up in Seattle, right hander G. Fletcher hurled a four-hit game as the Rainiers made it three in a row over Portland. The 3-to-1 triumph was Fletcher's 21st of the year.

Roseburg Tennis Players Triumph Over Yoncalla

Roseburg Tennis club triumphed over the Yoncalla Tennis club Wednesday night, under the lights at Yoncalla, 8-1.

Paul Cacy, leading off for the Roseburg netters, won handily from Krenkau, 6-1, 6-1. Glen Boyer, playing Dorland, won in a swift manner, 6-1, 6-1. Dick Jacobson ran into a little more trouble but rather easily overcame Brown, 6-1, 6-3.

Bob Berrie, playing after an absence from tennis for two weeks, was beaten by Goodwin, who played number one man last time, in a long hard first set, 8-6, and a loose second set, 6-2.

Roy Van Horn and Martin had one of the closest matches of the day as Van Horn won the first set 6-3; but Martin won the second, 6-2. Roy then won the very close and tough third set, 6-4. Larry Henning defeated Raper, 5-2, 6-2.

In the doubles Cacy and Boyer teamed up to overwhelm Dorfer and Brown, 6-0, 6-1. The second doubles was the hardest fought match of the day with Jacobson and Berrie being beaten in a prolonged first set, 7-5, and they came back to win, 6-2, and then take the 7-5 third set. Van Horn and Henning teamed up to defeat Krenkau and B. Boucock, 6-4, 6-1.

Coos Bay Next foe
The Roseburg team told their Yoncalla hosts that they had a "very enjoyable evening and were happy to have had the chance to play under the lights," according to Cece Sherwood, Y.M.C.A. youth committee member.

The final match of the year will be played on the local courts Sunday, with Coos Bay. Coos Bay boasts a very good team and some very good tennis should be played. The present line-up for Roseburg, according to Marlen Yoder, team manager, is Norm Moore, Bill Garrison, Tom Jacobson, Tom Lindbloom, Don Debernardi, and Paul Cacy in singles play, and Royd Bruton, Louie Miles, Earl Garrison, and Bert Randall in the doubles matches.

The third doubles team will be decided between the teams of Moore-Lindbloom and Jacobson-Garrison on their singles play, according to Yoder. No line-up has been received from Coos Bay.

DOG IS CADDY
SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Taffy, a golden cocker, used to chase birds and rubber balls. Now She's collecting golf balls for her master, Ernest Maichele.

Maichele, who lives near the Willowbrook golf course, says Taffy has brought in 250 balls—including one from a haystack. He exchanged 100 of them for three pairs of khaki work pants at a store here.

"She'll average 25 balls an hour if you hunt her right," Maichele claims.

Golfers Take Along Plenty Of Meat To Britain

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Little Ben Hogan and his American Ryder Cup golfers sail tomorrow for Britain, lugging almost their own weight in ham and sirloins to piece out the thin English meals.

"We're taking 40 chunks of sirloin—enough for about 600 steaks—and 12 sides of ribs for roasts, Ben said. Besides that we've got 12 hams and 10 or 12 boxes of bacon."

That sounds like a whale of a lot of meat. But almost all the American pros are taking their wives—and they'll be in Britain for a month, playing in the masters tournament and the match play championship after the cup scrap on Sept. 16-17.

Besides Hogan the team is composed of Skip Alexander, Jimmy Demaret, Bob Hamilton, Lloyd Mangrum, Sammy Snead, Melvin (Chick) Harbert, Johnny Palmer, Clayton Hafner and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison. Ed Dudley, former PGA president, also is going along.

Football Practice At Myrtle Creek Starts

Myrtle Creek football candidates are undergoing intensive practice sessions in preparation for the coming season, under the coaching of Jack Keeling, new Vikings football coach. Fresty Loghry whipped the boys into shape until the arrival of Keeling on Sept. 1.

The Vikings open their season with a jamboree at Central Point the night of Sept. 16.

Their schedule includes games with Bandon at Myrtle Creek, Sept. 24; Eagle Point at Myrtle Creek, Sept. 30; Myrtle Point there, Oct. 7; Ashland Jayvees at Myrtle Creek, Oct. 15; Sutherlin there, Oct. 22; Reedsport there, Oct. 29; Kerby there, Nov. 5; Central Point, there, Nov. 11.

Six Top Grapplers Billed For Battle Royal Here Saturday

The Indians may be on the warpath at the Roseburg armory Saturday night, but there are four other wrestlers of considerable ability who are going to have something to say, or rather do something, regarding the $250 purse offered the winner in the "battle royal."

The other grapplers anticipate, and probably correctly, that Yaqui Joe and his protegee, the Yaqui Kid, will attempt to steal the show—and the dough. But they'll be meeting some formidable foes—just as potent as the Mexicans, and before them the Spanish soldiers who repeatedly subdued the Yaqui Indians in the Sonora mountains years ago.

Jack Kiser, the handsome Portlander, for example, is a former coast light-heavyweight champion and a capable performer with his spectacular drop kicks. Pierre LaBelle, the Frenchman from Montreal, is a veteran of the sport and one of the best of fundamentalists. Tony Falletti, the Brooklyn Italian, has given up some of his rugged meane tactics, but is still capable of giving an opponent a lesson. Billy McEuin, the Texas villain, is downright mean and won't give an inch when he starts tossing those deadly kidney punches he claims are just as effective as tomahawks.

Actually, it looks like a rough evening for the Indians if they attempt to pool their efforts against any one of the opponents. Yaqui Joe has probably forgotten more mat maneuvers than most of the others now possess, but he is still a wizard with flying leg holds and has recently demonstrated his prowess—to the grief of several top-notch younger rivals.

Although the Kid has never experienced a free-for-all, with Joe's inevitable coaching, the dynamic, hard-working youngster is a definite contender for the big cut in the purse.

The two finalists will wrestle two out of three falls, a 30-minute limit. The second pair eliminated will also return for a one-fall, 30-minute engagement, but the first two out will collect only enough for "coffee and cakes."

Elton Owen will referee. Fans are warned to arrive by 8:30 p. m. to see the opening of the spectacular six-man event which always furnishes fireworks.

Six World Champions Will Appear On Charity Program

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Six world boxing champions will appear in the Chicago stadium ring tonight in a carnival of champions' charity card.

Joe Louis, retired heavyweight titleholder, is scheduled to referee one of the six four-round exhibition bouts—between Ezzard Charles and Joe Modzele.

In addition to the six exhibition bouts, Sandy Saddler of New York, former featherweight titleholder, and Harold Dade of Chicago, who once held the bantamweight crown, will clash in a 10-round bout.

Another 10 rounder will match Artie Towne of New York, and Lloyd Gibson of Cincinnati, at 160 pounds.

Jack La Motta, the new middleweight titleholder, will get $3,000 for his match with Al Winn of New York.

Ike Williams, lightweight champion, vs. Arthur King, British Empire, 135 pound champion, 137 pounds.

Willie Pep, featherweight champion, vs. Miguel Acevedo, Cuba.

Manuel Ortiz, bantamweight champion, vs. Chuck Wilkinson, Cleveland, 126 pounds.

Grid Game Tickets Go On Sale Next Week
Reserved seat tickets to Roseburg Indians home games will go on sale at the Chamber of Commerce offices starting at 6:30 p. m., Wednesday, September 7. Tickets will be sold all day Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Eugene Captures Softball Crown

EUGENE, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Eugene won the Oregon softball title here last night as Bob Willis struck out 15 Pendleton batters and gave up only two hits in winning, 3-1.

Willis also manufactured the game's only earned run by spanking out a triple in the second inning to score Charles Mickelson.

Eugene will represent upstate Oregon in the regional tournament at Boise this weekend. Two Portland teams also are entered.

Salem won third place in the tourney by downing Albany, 4-1, last night. Pitcher Warren Miller of Salem gave up only four hits.

More Closed Periods Set For Silver Salmon

PORTLAND, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Tighter regulations, intended to build up the silver salmon run, were announced by the Oregon Fish commission and the Washington Department of Fisheries yesterday.

The regulations set up more closed periods. One will be from Dec. 1 to Jan. 12. There also will be a 30-hour closed period each week from Sept. 15 to Nov. 30, beginning at noon Saturday, extending to 6 p. m. Sunday.

After Thursday, September 15, single reserved seat tickets will go on sale each Friday of a home game, at the J.V. Sporting Goods store.

Oakland High To Start Grid Drills Next Week

Although school doesn't start until Sept. 12, the Oakland high school football team will begin practice Tuesday, Sept. 6 at 2:30 p. m., reported Miles Aubin, coach.

Prospective candidates will report to the grade school gymnasium to draw uniforms.

Oakland, playing six-man football, will be included in the north Douglas county league, playing teams from Yoncalla, Elkton and Glendale.

Non-league games will be scheduled with south Douglas county teams.

Oakland Defeats Cincy In Junior Legion Game

OMAHA, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The teen-age sluggers from the Oakland, Calif., American Legion Junior ball club today were the boys to beat in the little world series.

The unbeaten Californians took Cincinnati, 11-6, last night to gain a pass to the tourney finals tomorrow night.

Cincinnati and Wheeling, W. Va., which beat Atlanta, 7-4, last night, will play tonight. Each is once-beaten. The loser will be eliminated and the winner will be matched with Oakland tomorrow night.
