

Long List Of Prize Awards Are Listed For Flower Show Held Recently At Sutherlin

By MRS. BRITTAIN SLACK
News-Review Correspondent

The annual flower show given by the Associated Business Women's club was held Saturday, Aug. 27, at the school gym. The large hall was decorated with a lattice fence, separating the display of flowers from that of hobbies and antiques.

The array of flowers was beautifully arranged and the entire space was filled. To enter one went through a gate into a garden of flowers arranged into their several classes.

The attendance for the day was very good in spite of the hot and humid weather. All entries were choice and the judging was done by an efficient committee from Cottage Grove.

The program given during the afternoon hours was enjoyed by a large group and was proclaimed "as one of the best."

Special features this year were hats made entirely of flowers, and modeled by Mrs. Connie Smith, Mrs. Lochie Thompson and little Miss Linda Buck.

Dinner table setting was arranged by Mrs. Florence Groshong.

Judges for flowers were: Mrs. J. F. Goddard, Mrs. Andrew Burd and Mrs. Ralph Sears of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Olga Bielman, committee chairman, said that 181 flower entries and 69 hobby entries were entered and that 429 visitors signed the register during the day.

Those winning prizes according to the classes were:

Sutherlin Church Installs Pastor

At an impressive installation service Sunday, Sept. 4, Rev. Richard E. Graef, of Rochester, N. Y., was inducted into the pastorate of St. John's Lutheran church in Sutherlin.

Rev. W. A. Sylwester, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Roseburg, preached the installation sermon, the topic being "The Apostle's Exhortation to a Christian Congregation and Its Pastor." He also read the rite of installation and was assisted by Rev. Richard H. Gross, Cottage Grove, Rev. Carl Eggers, Grants Pass, and Prof. J. Sylwester, Portland, in installing Rev. Graef as pastor of St. John's.

A joint choir, consisting of members of St. Paul's and St. John's Lutheran churches, sang the anthem, "Lead Me, Lord," by Wesley-Nevin. Miss Marilyn Dies sang "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte.

Miss Dies served as the organist for the service while Mrs. L. Wilson served as accompanist. The hall was decorated with greenery and fall flowers.

Following the service an informal reception was held honoring the newly installed pastor and Mrs. Graef. Over 125 members and friends were present for the service and reception.

Until the chapel is built, for the erection of which a loan has been granted by the Northwest District of the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod, the congregation will conduct its services, Sunday school, and Bible class in the Sutherlin Scout hall, with the Sunday school beginning at 9:30 a.m., the service at 10:30 a.m. The congregation has leased a house on Everett street in Sutherlin, one-half block east of the city park, to serve as a parsonage.
