

Society and Clubs

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Picture by Paul Jenkins

Roseburg Girls Leaving Soon To Attend Various Colleges

Unable to contact all of the girls attending college from Roseburg for last week's society page, the News-Review photographer, Paul Jenkins, invited these young ladies to have their pictures taken for today's issue.

Miss Virginia Young, Phi Beta Phi sorority member, will leave the 19th of the month for Eugene to begin her junior year at the school of music in the University of Oregon. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Young.

Miss Georgene Shanklin, who recently received Junior Certificate Honors in the school of music at University of Oregon, left Thursday for Eugene to prepare for rush week. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and will begin her junior year.

The certificate award was made by the Honors Council on the quality of scholastic work during her first two years at the university. She plans to investigate the Honors program upon her return to the university. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Shanklin Sr. of this city.

Miss Nancy Radabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, left Wednesday for University of Oregon to begin her sophomore year in the school of liberal arts, where she is majoring in science. She is rushing chairman for her sorority, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Miss Shirley Helweg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helweg, will begin her first year of college at Willamette university at Salem, where she will major in liberal arts. She will leave for Salem, September 13.

Miss Shirley Parker, daughter of County Agent and Mrs. J. Roland Parker, will leave Roseburg September 14th for Corvallis to begin her junior year at Oregon

Seated in the top picture left to right: Marilyn Dixon, Joyce Graham, Shirley Helweg and Doris Rand. Standing are Shirley Parker and Janice Plummer. Center-left: Georgene Shanklin, Virginia Young and Nancy Radabaugh. Bottom picture left: Sue and Betty Hahn.

State college, where she is majoring in education. She is social chairman for her sorority, Delta Zeta.

Miss Marilyn Dixon will attend Willamette university at Salem as a freshman and will major in education. She is the daughter of County Assessor and Mrs. Ned Dixon.

Miss Doris Rand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence K. Rand, will enter Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland.

Miss Janice Plummer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plummer, will attend Lewis and Clark college in Portland, where she has enrolled in the school of music.

Miss Joyce Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham, will major in secretarial science and education, at Oregon State college, where she will be a freshman. She plans to leave here September 17 for Corvallis.

Miss Sue and Miss Betty Hahn, granddaughters of Mrs. Anna Nickson of Roseburg, will leave September 19th for Eugene, where Betty will be a senior at Northwest Christian college and Sue will enroll there for her sophomore year.

asked to make reservations by calling Mrs. Inman, 1113-L, Mrs. Sabin, 1137-R, or Mrs. Bob Lambeth, by Saturday, Sept. 10.

Circle No. 1 of St. Joseph's Altar society to meet at 8 p. m. at home of Mrs. Howard Wilson on S. Main street, Mrs. W. F. Amiot to be speaker. All women of parish interested are invited.

W. C. T. U. to meet at 2 o'clock at home of Mrs. B. B. Irving, 906 Military street. Fine program. Members and friends invited.

Thursday—September 15

Riversdale Home Extension unit to meet from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. at grange hall for all women of Garden Valley, Edenbower and Riversdale. Those attending are asked to bring their own lunch. Textile painting is the topic for the day.

Country club women to open annual handicap golf tournament at 8:30 a. m. at club course. Luncheon at 12:30 and contract bridge play at 1:30.

Eagles auxiliary drill team to practice at 8 p. m. at Eagles hall. Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star members, visiting members and husbands invited to 6:15 potluck dinner at hall. Those not solicited are asked to bring a covered dish, salad or dessert. Regular meeting at 8 p. m., followed by entertainment to be put on by the ladies. Husbands also invited to the entertainment.

Winston Community club to meet at 7:30 p. m. in new clubhouse. All residents of the district invited. Entertainment in charge of Mrs. Reba Buttler, Mrs. Alice Michell, Mrs. Vivian Borgass and Mrs. Bonnie Atwell. Refreshments.

B. P. W. C. first fall meeting at 8 p. m. in basement at armory with membership committee in charge. Refreshments. Helen Case, state membership chairman, Eugene, to be guest speaker. Meeting to be preceded by 6:30 no-hostess dinner at Hotel Umpqua.

Tuesday—September 13

Officers training conference at 10 a. m. at K. of P. hall in Roseburg for all officers from each unit of home extension program in the county.

District No. 11, O. S. N. A. important meeting at 7 p. m. at Mercy hospital. Representative from the State Nurses association headquarters to discuss the "Structure Study" program.

Business and Professional Women's club no-hostess luncheon at 12 o'clock at Hotel Umpqua.

Roseburg Rebekah lodge, No. 41, to meet at 8 p. m. at hall. Members and visiting members invited. Initiation. Sack lunch. Martha circle of Faith Lutheran church to meet at 1:30 p. m. at home of Mrs. George A. Johnson, Rt. 2, Box 160, near Carl's Haven. Those desiring transportation are asked to meet at 445 S. Pine street before 1:15. Members and friends are invited.

Wednesday—September 14

Friendly Circle club to meet in afternoon at home of Mrs. William Mills, 1735 N. Stephens street. Pollyanna gifts to be exchanged.

Rebekah degree staff to practice at 7:30 p. m. at I. O. O. F. hall under direction of Mrs. Lena Poole.

Tennille Ladies club to meet at noon potluck luncheon at Tennille church.

Jay-C-Ettes to meet at 8 o'clock dinner at Carl's Haven with Mrs.

Picture by Paul Jenkins

Allen, end of Fisher road. Those attending are asked to bring their own service. Dessert and coffee will be furnished.

Company D, 162nd infantry of World War II will hold annual reunion at Canyonville Community hall at 8 p. m. Chicken buffet supper. Members are urged to attend and are asked to bring their wives or lady guests.

Riversdale grange to meet at 8:15 p. m. at hall for "Back to School" program. Members are asked to wear appropriate costumes for the affair. Women attending are asked to bring a sack lunch for two.

Saturday—September 17

Junior golf tournament at Roseburg Country club beginning at 10 a. m. in charge of Mrs. Walter Bridges, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark and Mrs. Joe Perrault.

Catholic ladies rummage sale from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. in basement of rectory on East Oak street.

Presbyterian women's all-day rummage sale in basement of church.

Sunday—September 18

Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice to celebrate golden wedding anniversary at reception at their home, 241 S. Kane street, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock in afternoon and from 7:30 to 10 o'clock in the evening. Relatives and friends cordially invited to call.

September 30

State regent, Mrs. Archie McKeown, to pay visit to Umpqua chapter, D. A. R., at 7 o'clock banquet. Meeting at home of Mrs. Douglas Wait. Place of banquet to be announced later. Reservations must be in by September 26 by calling 678-L.

SENIOR HIGH FACULTY MEMBERS AND FAMILIES ENJOY PICNIC SATURDAY

The Senior High school faculty members and their families, members of the school board, City School superintendent and Mrs. Paul S. Elliott, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collier enjoyed a delightful potluck picnic supper Saturday evening at the J. C. Tooman home on the lower Garden valley road. Covers were placed for 54.

Swimming and visiting were enjoyed during the social hours.

Kent were in charge of the program.

Mrs. Robert Phillips, president, conducted a short business meeting and appointed Mrs. Ed Radigan and Mrs. Frank Rogan to bring cookies for the county home to the next meeting, which will be held at the Phillips home, Sept. 13, at eight o'clock, with Miss Ethel Van Voorst and Mrs. Robert Rhodes, hostesses. Mrs. Ernest Barker will be program chairman of the topic, "Speech."

A guest speaker will be present. Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Kidder served lovely refreshments to Mrs. Frank Wickham, Mrs. Ed Radigan, Mrs. Frank Rogan, Mrs. Ralph Ohman, Mrs. Craig Short, Mrs. Spencer Yates, Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Lester L. Wimberly, Mrs. Verdun Boucock, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Ernest Barker Jr., and Mrs. Sidney Domenico.

W. B. A. HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING THURSDAY AT HOME OF MRS. MOORE

Mrs. Ella Moore entertained the Woman's Benefit association at her home Thursday afternoon. An interesting business session was followed by an enjoyable social hour and a watermelon feed. The watermelons were from the garden of Mrs. Maude Powers.

The next meeting will be at two o'clock Sept. 22 at the home of Mrs. Willmetta Squire, corner of Brooklyn and Taylor, Cloverdale. Each member is asked to bring a guest or two to the meeting.

Family members, who live near Yoncalla included: Webb and Edna Huntington, their daughter, Bernice Medeke, and grandson, Richard Walker; Anna Kingery and two children, Donald and Molly; Mr. and Mrs. Homer McKirdy and daughter, Ruth Helen. Mrs. McKirdy is a daughter of the late Jay Huntington of Rice Valley.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

ATTY. AND MRS. RICE TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ON SEPT. 18

One of the most interesting social events of the year will be the golden wedding celebration of Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice, Sunday, Sept. 18, at a reception at their attractive home at 241 South Kane street. Relatives and friends have been most cordially invited to call between the hours of two-thirty and five o'clock in the afternoon and from seven-thirty to ten o'clock in the evening.

Attorney and Mrs. Rice were married in Roseburg and with the exception of just part of one year, have resided here their entire married life. Arrangements for the afternoon and evening reception are being made by their only daughter, Mrs. D. W. (Iris Rice) Hellwig, who is manager of KRNR radio station.

EPISCOPAL GUILD HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY

St. George's Episcopal Guild met Wednesday for an interesting session at the parish house. Plans were outlined for fall projects and activities. All women of the congregation are urged to attend the Guild meetings and participate in the activities of the organization.

INFORMAL EVENING ENJOYED AT ELIFRITS HOME ON THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Elfrits entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Albright as guests at an informal evening of cards at their home Thursday. Lovely refreshments were served following the card play.

PEGGY LEAH DYE AND GERALD ULETT MARRY

The marriage of Miss Peggy Leah Dye, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dye of Reedsport, to Gerald William Ulett, son of Mrs. Gertrude Ulett of Fallon, Nevada, formerly of Coquille, Oregon, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at three-thirty in a beautiful garden ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Reedsport.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Green of the Episcopal church of Coos Bay. Mrs. LeRoy Clasen of Coquille was soloist, who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love," and was accompanied by Wayne Smith of Coquille.

Miss Phyllis Morgan of Eugene was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Chetty of Portland and Miss Zato Sinclair of Lebanon. Gregory Smith of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Richard Engdall of Pendleton and Robert Hedges of Portland.

The bride has been attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The groom attends Oregon State college at Corvallis, and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. The young couple will attend Oregon State college, where they will complete their courses. He is taking engineering.

Out of town guests included the St. Onge family of Roseburg, former Reedsport residents, the Stanley Cochran and M. M. Kelly families of Springfield, also former Reedsport residents.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church held a very enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon at the parish house with Rev. and Mrs. Graef and Mrs. Coenenberg of Sutherlin as guests. Rev. W. A. Sylvester led the group in a very interesting discussion of "The Lord's Supper."

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. Neiring and Mrs. H. Yvriaker.

The next meeting will be in the form of a potluck luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Perry, eight miles north of Myrtle Creek on October 5.

HUNTINGTON FAMILY REUNION IS LARGE AFFAIR OF SUNDAY

Thirty-nine members and descendants of the Benjamin Huntington family gathered at the old homestead in Rice Valley Sunday for a get-together and reunion honoring the memory of their parents and brother, James (Jay) Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Huntington, who now own the home place, were host and hostess, assisted by their son, Collis, and daughter, Louise, and their families.

Grandchildren present were Phillip, John and David Bloomquist of Corvallis, and Frances, Phillip and Cheryl Ann Huntington of Coos Bay.

Of the thirteen children reared on the homestead, eight were in attendance including the eldest brother, Benjamin Jr., and eldest sister, Retta Huntington Turner, of Rockaway, Ore. Mrs. Turner was accompanied by her son, T-Sgt. James H. Turner of Fort Lewis, Wash. Peret Huntington of Sisters, Ore., had the largest family represented which included his wife, Helen; son, Peret Jr., of Portland; daughter, Ruth Hewitt and her three children, Sarah Ann, Sammy and Robert; daughter, Mary H. Eastman and two children, Janet and Cynthia, of Roseburg.

Mrs. B. H. Nichols (Mary Huntington) and her two sons, Mrs. Sarah H. Wertz came from Oregon Technological Institute where she has just completed a summer work-shop in the art of textile painting by the silk screen method. Mrs. Wertz brought with her a huge cake, fancy-decorated by the bakers-to-be in the trade school.

Family members, who live near Yoncalla included: Webb and Edna Huntington, their daughter, Bernice Medeke, and grandson, Richard Walker; Anna Kingery and two children, Donald and Molly; Mr. and Mrs. Homer McKirdy and daughter, Ruth Helen. Mrs. McKirdy is a daughter of the late Jay Huntington of Rice Valley.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

ATTY. AND MRS. RICE TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ON SEPT. 18

One of the most interesting social events of the year will be the golden wedding celebration of Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice, Sunday, Sept. 18, at a reception at their attractive home at 241 South Kane street. Relatives and friends have been most cordially invited to call between the hours of two-thirty and five o'clock in the afternoon and from seven-thirty to ten o'clock in the evening.

Attorney and Mrs. Rice were married in Roseburg and with the exception of just part of one year, have resided here their entire married life. Arrangements for the afternoon and evening reception are being made by their only daughter, Mrs. D. W. (Iris Rice) Hellwig, who is manager of KRNR radio station.

EPISCOPAL GUILD HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY

St. George's Episcopal Guild met Wednesday for an interesting session at the parish house. Plans were outlined for fall projects and activities. All women of the congregation are urged to attend the Guild meetings and participate in the activities of the organization.

INFORMAL EVENING ENJOYED AT ELIFRITS HOME ON THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Elfrits entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Albright as guests at an informal evening of cards at their home Thursday. Lovely refreshments were served following the card play.

PEGGY LEAH DYE AND GERALD ULETT MARRY

The marriage of Miss Peggy Leah Dye, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dye of Reedsport, to Gerald William Ulett, son of Mrs. Gertrude Ulett of Fallon, Nevada, formerly of Coquille, Oregon, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at three-thirty in a beautiful garden ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Reedsport.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Green of the Episcopal church of Coos Bay. Mrs. LeRoy Clasen of Coquille was soloist, who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love," and was accompanied by Wayne Smith of Coquille.

Miss Phyllis Morgan of Eugene was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Chetty of Portland and Miss Zato Sinclair of Lebanon. Gregory Smith of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Richard Engdall of Pendleton and Robert Hedges of Portland.

The bride has been attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The groom attends Oregon State college at Corvallis, and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. The young couple will attend Oregon State college, where they will complete their courses. He is taking engineering.

Out of town guests included the St. Onge family of Roseburg, former Reedsport residents, the Stanley Cochran and M. M. Kelly families of Springfield, also former Reedsport residents.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church held a very enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon at the parish house with Rev. and Mrs. Graef and Mrs. Coenenberg of Sutherlin as guests. Rev. W. A. Sylvester led the group in a very interesting discussion of "The Lord's Supper."

Lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. Neiring and Mrs. H. Yvriaker.

The next meeting will be in the form of a potluck luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Perry, eight miles north of Myrtle Creek on October 5.

Beautiful Housewives Seek Mrs. America Title

FORT LEE, N. J., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Thirty-two beautiful housewives will show off their skill in the kitchen and their shape in a bathing suit in today's semi-finals and finals at nearby Asbury park.

Beauty must be paired with bona fide domestic talents in the queen of the married girls. Two panels of judges—prominent in the two fields—will be on hand to select finalists and on Sunday night, Mrs. America of 1949.

In last night's contest at Pallasades Amusement park here, eight entrants were picked from a field of 40 who had not taken part in any previous preliminaries. They included:

"Mrs. California"—Mrs. Frances L. Cloyd 33-year-old golden blonde, mother of three children, San Diego, Calif.

"Mrs. Oregon"—Mrs. Joel Wesley, 27, of McMinnville, Ore.

A tablespoon of anchovy paste and a teaspoon of finely grated onion (pulp and juice) may be added to a package of cream cheese and then used for a cracker spread to serve with a tomato juice cocktail. Soften a three-ounce package of the cheese and mix in the anchovy and onion flavorings thoroughly. Sprinkle a little finely grated parsley over the spread for color, if you like.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

The young people staged a rodeo, rounding up the livestock and cutting fancy capers on horseback. Plans were made for another family reunion next year.

After enjoying a bountiful luncheon served under the maple trees, an informal program took place at which time Benjamin Huntington Jr. acted as master of ceremonies. A silent tribute to the family's parents and brother, Jay, opened the program.

Five, who had birthdays in August and September, had special birthday remembrances. Informal and impromptu talks were given by several members, who reminisced and told anecdotes.

Picture by Paul Jenkins

GENEVA BUILD MEMBERS OLD INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT

GENEVA GUILD MEMBERS First Presbyterian church opened their fall program Thursday evening at the home of their president, Mrs. F. W. Fields on California road. Twenty-four members were present.

Mrs. Lee Sharman presented the topic, "Martha and Mary" continuing the discussion of famous women in the Bible. Devotions were given by Mrs. Nel Lindell.

Considerable discussion followed on the church nursery with members planning a clean-up day. Mrs. John Dingley will be hostess at the October 4 meeting.

Assisting Mrs. Fields were Mrs. John Loomis, Mrs. Paul Wray and Mrs. W. G. Henson. Zinnias formed the centerpiece for the service table during the social hour.

Attending were Mrs. John Dingley, Mrs. Robert Evans and her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Evans of Mesa, Ariz., Mrs. Alvord France, Mrs. Wm. D. Green, Mrs. W. G. Henson, Mrs. Donald Monroe, Mrs. Earl Neurow, Mrs. Tom Pargeter, Mrs. Robert Sabin, Mrs. Walt Allen, Mrs. Lee Sharman, Mrs. Paul Wray, Mrs. Neia Lindell, Mrs. Cecil Sherrwood, Mrs. Alva Laws, Mrs. John Loomis, Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker Jr., Mrs. Marlin Yoder, Mrs. Richard Blakeley, Mrs. Russell Knutson, Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Victor Ding and Mrs. Alvin Knutson.