Clothes Don't Make Woman, They Make Her Talked About, States Famed Movie Stylist

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK.—(AP)—A mere male came up today with an answer to what's wrong with the way women dress.

The answer is—women.

"They are too dictated to," said Charles Le Maire. "They accept too much dictation as to what they should wear."

Le Maire is in a position to do a little dictating himself. As wardrobe director for Twentieth Century-Fox films, he runs a staff of 200 clothes experts. They have the pleasant chore of fitting lace and fur pretties to girls like Betty Grable, Jeanne Crain, Dorothy McGuire, June Haver and Maureen O'Hara.

But the clothing of film stars is designed to their own personal architecture. This isn't true of the average woman.

Mistake Told
Le Maire, a designer himself, said the biggest mistake most women make is to follow blindly the dictates of fashion oracles—or to try to pour herself into a certain type of dress merely because it looked good on a department store mannequin.

"A girl shouldn't pay any attention to what she hears of Paris styles," he emphasized.

"She should think first of her own shape, and dress to it. If her figure doesn't go with what she wants to wear, she could change her shape."

Le Maire has only a weary sympathy for girls who think they can achieve a pencil silhouette with a tight corset.

"The excess flesh has to go somewhere," either up or down, forward or backward.

This, he explained, is why there are so many girls around who look like they have either a front or a rear bumper.

Doesn't Allow Faistes
An advocate of the plunging neckline, Le Maire has no moral objections to faistes but he insists he doesn't allow them in the Twentieth Century-Fox studio.

"That I absolutely prohibit. Anything that isn't part of the body, anything that doesn't move with the body—it isn't right."

"But some studios like them," he conceded. "Everybody in their pictures wear them. I know one actress who must have 50 bosoms at home."

No he didn't care to name her—but fans can rest assured it isn't Grable.

Le Maire designed wardrobes for Broadway musicals and operated his own exclusive dress shop in Manhattan before going west.

He sees fashions today in a confused state, but believes the trend is toward "an era of quiet elegance."

He personally favors clothing that accents femininity, styles that accent sex through subdued suggestion.

Le Maire's own favorite dictation: "No dress is as important to a well-dressed girl as what she has underneath it. The big mistake

More Than 100 Attend Spebs Charter Night

Over 100 local and visiting members and guests attended the charter granting ceremonies staged by the local chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, held Saturday night at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Following the presentation of the charter, a program of barber shop singing was staged by members of the local group and two quartets from Eugene.

A buffet supper and more singing concluded the affair.

Invited guests and the organizations they represented included: Kenneth H. Miller, V.P.W.; A. C. Newell, D.A.V.; Mrs. H. G. Althaus, American Federation of Musicians; Mrs. Peterson, Writers club; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krauss, community hospital; Clarson Chitwood, Active club; Ross Newcomb, Toastmasters club; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnhart, Roseburg Choral society; Mayor Albert G. Fiegel; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Siefarth, and Mr. and

More Cancer Sufferers Believed Can Be Cured

PORTLAND.—(AP)—Dr. C. P. Rhoads, director of the New Cancer and Allied Diseases, predicted that more and more cancer sufferers would be cured in the next five years.

Rhoads made clear that he did not know of any forthcoming "cure" for cancer, but was basing his hope on the growing research in the field.

"Every step which has led to a major discovery in research on other diseases has now been taken in cancer," he told some 75 Pacific Northwest doctors attending a postgraduate cancer course at the University of Oregon Medical school. "The outlook cannot be considered hopeful."

Hollywood Wolf Version Takes On New Slant

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 13.—(AP)—A new version of the Hollywood wolf has turned up to pester (and blister) girls on Hollywood boulevard.

Miss Shirley Weinberg, 25, told police she was plunked on the you-know-what by a buckshot-shooting youths who pelted her from a parked auto.

She thus became the second "oops" girl in recent days. Earlier, Miss Kathleen O'Connor, 19, had reported that she too was a target for a B-B gun.

Thermometers frequently register 120 degrees Fahrenheit in Eritrea.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANT

MC MINNVILLE.—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed most of the Starr Rock crusher, seven miles east of here Friday night.

O. C. Yocom Jr., son of the owner, estimated the loss at more than $50,000. Only the bunkers and the conveyor belts were saved.

The fire was discovered by a power company line crew, which had been repairing a nearby transformer, struck by lightning.

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."
2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.
3. Getting the most from the telephone—and helping others get better service—depends in part on every telephone user. Facilities have doubled in the West in ten years. Your telephone is today one of your most valuable servants . . . saving time, saving steps. And it still does its job for just a few pennies a call.
