Coin Machine Operators Disclaim Recall Move

PORTLAND, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A group of coin machine operators have disclaimed any responsibility for the recall move against Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee.

Some 60 operators of pinball shuffle-boards said they were not supporting the recall and had nothing to do with its inception.

They added that their games are licensed, and that they do not consider themselves "gambling interests."

The statement was prompted by Mayor Lee's declaration that gamblers are trying to get rid of me.
