KDND DIAL-LOG

Tony Alamo will stir sentimental sighs when he sings "Four Winds the Seven Seas" on the "Sammy Kaye Showroom" tonight at 7:15. Completing the program will be the Kayedets with "Five Foot Two," Laura Leslie in "Homework," Don Cornell in "Again," and the Michigan "Victors" March.

In "Guns for a Gamble" the stakes are high—the prize a sizeable chunk of east Texas which is sought by a bandit gang in an abortive attempt to open rebellion against the government. Their attempt to engage frontier parols in open combat, in which they would use newly developed repeater rifles against the single shot weapons of the patrol, are thwarted by "Straight Arrow" tonight at 8 on KRNR.

Let's talk football: Tonight at ten, Roseburg meets Medford in a tape-recorded broadcast featuring the announcer-voice of Frank Purdy. The feature will conclude with a question to be asked of listeners, who must supply the correct answer when they call number 4. The right answer will mean ten good old American dollars in cash for the winner. Don't let this opportunity pass you by!

For the 24th year, the Don Lee network will carry the Pacific Coast Conference collegiate football games for the western division of the Tide Water Association Oil Company of San Francisco. The games will be aired over KRNR each Saturday beginning tomorrow, September 17 through November 19. Tomorrow's kick-off game is slated for 1:45 p. m., PST, displaying the gridiron prowess of Washington vs. Utah originating from Seattle.

GALE PAGE ARRIVES IN ROSEBURG—Gale Page, singing star of concert, motion pictures, radio and television, arrived here last night with the internationally famous concert pianist and composer, Count Aldo Solito de Solis. These two artists will present a program of music "everyone understands and loves." Gershwin, Chapin, Kern, Debussy, Porter and original compositions by Solito de Solis will be featured. The concert will be presented at junior high school Saturday, Sept. 17, at 8:15 p. m. Tickets are available at Roy's Men's store, Lawson's Jewelers, and junior and senior high school. The Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the concert program locally.

Riddle Roping Club To Sponsor Another Rodeo

Because of enthusiasm and the wish of numerous cowboys around Riddle, the Riddle Roping and Roping club has agreed to sponsor the second big Rodeo for Riddle this year, Ike Orr, president, announced.

The date has been set for Sept. 24 and 25. The well known Blackie, Smith and Walt Mask have again been contracted to supply the livestock.

There will be all the events and thrills of the previous Rodeo's. However, the prize money will be slightly smaller than the prizes of the annual July 4 Rodeo. The two-hour show will be run off in the usual efficient manner, which is one of the outstanding features of the Riddle Rodeos, said Orr.

All who have seen Riddle Rodeos know the thrills and chills to be enjoyed and those who haven't are urged to turn out. The admission price will be only $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Transportation, Portland, on the run between that city and Ashland. He has worked two and one-half years for the Arrow Transportation company, Portland; five years for the North Coast bus line, Seattle; four years for the Bay City Transit company, Santa Monica, Calif.; and three and one-half years for the Los Angeles Motor Express, Los Angeles, Calif.

Nimmo was appointed by Mayor Albert Mauit, upon approval of the canyonville city council. He is replacing Officer Darrell Vredenburg, who under doctor's orders is to rest for several weeks.
