

Bureau of Mines Names Seven Region Directors

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP) The Bureau of Mines, now reorganizing on a regional basis, named seven regional directors yesterday.

Taking office on Oct. 1 will be: Sinclair H. Lorain, Juneau, Alaska; and Stephen M. Shelton, Northwestern region (Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana) Albany, Ore.

Lorain has been chief of the Albany branch of the bureau's mining division nearly five years. Major projects he will direct include two copper development projects near Lake Illana in southwestern Alaska, examinations in southeastern Alaska, surveys of construction mineral materials, continued work on a limestone deposit in McKinley National park, and drills of coal reserves in the Wishbone Hill area of the Matanuska region. He is a native of Phillipsburg, Pa.

Shelton was born at Bennettsville, S. C.

MINISTER—The nomination of Nathaniel P. Davis (above) as Minister to Hungary has been confirmed by the Senate. Confirmation had been held up for more than two months.

AUTO-PLANE—This flying automobile, invented by Lutzi Spellarini, in Milan, Italy, has 3 wheels and breakaway wings which fold into the sides. It has an air speed of 115 miles an hour.

Sutherland

By MRS. BRITAIN SLACK

Mrs. Bill Thomas left for Portland Monday, where she will receive medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCork and children enjoyed a trip over the Dallas-California highway over the weekend. They report that they had a "very enjoyable trip," except that they damaged their new car quite badly when a deer jumped out in front of them.

Clyde Holman, who is affiliated with the military intelligence of the Army and a former resident of Sutherland, was in town Monday greeting old friends. Mr. Holman at one time was city water superintendent and city policeman. He states that he will go from here to Yokohama, and that as soon as he can find living quarters for his family they will join him. He expects to be stationed there for the next three years.

Mrs. Belle Cook, who spent several days at North Bend with her son's children returned home Monday. Mrs. Cook reports that her son, Dean, who underwent a major operation at the Veterans hospital in Portland last week, is getting along very nicely and that he expects to be able to return to his home at North Bend in about three weeks.

Dick Hensley was taken suddenly ill last Thursday and was removed to Mercy hospital, Roseburg, where he underwent an emergency appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Squier and children, Delvin and Arlene, enjoyed a two weeks' vacation visiting at Lake Louise, at Banff National park, Alberta, Canada, and on their return they stopped at Glacier National park, Yellowstone National park, Teton National park, and were overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerloch, at Plymouth, Ida. Mr. Gerloch was a teacher in the Sutherland school last year.

Claude Goff of Grants Pass spent several hours in Sutherland a couple of days last week, transacting business for the Triangle Feed mills of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rogers and daughter spent several days last week in Portland, transacting business.

Several members of the Rebekah lodge met at the home of Mrs. Mary Barker Monday evening to work out some tableaux for the degree work. After the meeting Mrs. Barker served delicious apple pie and coffee to Mrs. Belle Cook, Mrs. Maggie Francis, Mrs. Helen Squier, Mrs. Leona Slack.

NAVAL ARCHITECT—Miss Audrey ("Pete") Muller, of Westfield, N. J., graduate naval architect, studies a problem at her drafting board in Fore River Shipyard, Quincy, Mass.

YOU'LL ALSO ENJOY Pearls-in-Wine Transforming LIPSTICK

This exciting new face cream combines cleansing and complexion-aid creams in one formula. It benefits either oily or dry skins because it absorbs and removes both oil and water soluble types of facial grime and make-up...cleanses your skin thoroughly.

To aid your complexion, Pearls in Wine Combination Cream contains lipids from lanolin similar to skin lipids normally present in youthful skins. It leaves your skin so soft a foundation is rarely necessary. With new "Combination" you need no other face cream.

34 Rabbit Growers And Families Enjoy Picnic

The U.V.R.B.A. picnic and table show, held at Umpqua park last Sunday, was enjoyed by 34 members and families. Three large tables were set for the group with fried rabbit as the main dish.

Wm. H. Belding, Grants Pass, judged the entries, giving awards of Blue Ribbons to C. E. Bowman, New Zealand white doe and buck; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark, New Zealand buck; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings, New Zealand white buck and Californian buck and doe; Mrs. Inez Staneliff, New Zealand red doe and buck; Dexter Sims, New Zealand red doe and Mr. and Mrs. J. "I DON' FEEL GOOD"—Four-year-old Carol Ann Bennett of Omaha, Nebr., admitted "I don't feel good" as she lay in a hospital after a 40-foot fall. The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Bennett, toppled from third floor fire escape to the ground. A wire clothesline broke her fall. She suffered a broken elbow, possible skull injury and a black eye.—(AP Wirephoto).
