and five in the atternoon and of from seven-thirty to ten o'clock in the evening.

Attorney and Mrs. Rice, who mere married in Roseburg fifty years ago, will have the pleasure of having their bridesmaid and thest man, Mrs. Dora Bolter of Portland and Stanley L. Kidder of Roseburg, and not only the attendants, but the minister, John Dawson, of Portland, who married them plans on being here for the celebration. Rev. Mr. Dawson was rector of St. George's Episcopal church in Roseburg fifty years ago.

Other out-of-town guests expected here for the celebration include Mrs. H. L. Studley and son. Dick; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Robertson of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Helliwell of Grants Pass; Mrs. C. A. Lockwood, Mrs. Ben Plymale and her sister; George Bolter, Paul Zigler and Mrs. Ernest Bolter, all of Portland.

Mrs. Rice was chosen by Law-

Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Mrs. Dong Gum, Mrs. Glenn Scott, Mrs. Douglas Tudor, Mrs. Dowayne Baker, Mrs. Melvin Heggie, Mrs. Bob Le Gat, Mrs. Sidney Moon Jr., Mrs. George McIntosh, Mrs. Eldon Howard, Mrs. Walt Brittell, Mrs. Clark Taylor, Mrs. Al Hughes, Mrs. Al Fray and Mrs. Leo Sevy.

The next meeting will be Oct. 12 at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Melvin Heggie, 210 W. 1st Avenue North, telephone 1099-L. with Mrs. Glenn Scott and Mrs. George McIntosh, hostesses. SAWYERS-RAST LUNCHEON IS CHARMING AFFAIR OF THURSDAY Mrs. J. E. Sawyers and her sister, Miss Gertrude Rast entertained at a charming one o'clock luncheon at their attractive home on North Stephens street Thursday afternoon. Colorful seasonal flowers formed the decorations. Covers were placed for Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. Washington Hughes and the hostesses, Mrs. Sawyers and Miss Rast. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours. someone to select a name for them at the next meeting.

Douglas Court No. 18. U.D., which was organized in June in Roseburg, was constituted Douglas Court No. 18 at four-thirty o'clock Saturday, Sept. 10. by the Grand Royal Matron, Mrs. Edna F. Manning, of Salem, and Grand Royal Patron, Earl Beeson, of Eugene, and the staff of Grand officers.

A six o'clock no · host dinner was held in the LO.O.F. hall with members of the Rebekah lodge in charge. The tables were beautifully decorated in carrying out the theme of the name Douglas Court. The place cards were handpainted pictures of Douglas fir on small pieces of fir plywood and were painted by Mrs. D. L. Taylor and daughter, Miss. Carla Lee; Mrs. Murry Smith. Mrs. T. W. Bernard and Mrs. Fred Darby, Small fir boughs, tall red tapers and tiny red crabapples completed the decorations. Mrs. Kenneth Quine was chairman of the dinner and decorations.

Douglas court officers were installed at eight o'clock in the evening at a public ceremony by the following installing officers: Earl Beeson, Patron; Violet Helbock, marshal; Fred Helbock, Aide; Vera Hayek, prelate; Nadine James secretary, and Winnifred Dyer, musician.

Douglas court officers installed were, Mrs. George Quine,

DOUGLAS COURT NO. 18 CEREMONIES TAKE PLACE HERE SATURDAY EVENING

Ben Plymale and her sister;
George Boiter, Paul Zigler and Mrs. Ernest Bolter, all of Portiand.

Mrs. Rice was chosen by Lawson's Jewelry store at the bride of the week on the KRNR radio program Thursday evening and with Attorney Rice, they were interviewed for the program by Del McKay, KRNR staff member.

BONNIE ILES HAS EIGHTH BIRTHDAY AT HOME OF GRANDPARENTS
Bonnie Iles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferroll Iles of Eugene, celebrated her eighth birthday at a charming party at the home of her paternai grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Story Iles, in Roseburg. Bonnie and her sister, Loreice, spent two weeks visiting here, while their parents attended the state convention of Kiwanis in Portland.

Lovely gifts were presented to Bornie from Jill Amundson, Lavella and Willens Ashby, Judy Moore, Patty Ridgeway, Kimberley Iles, Collett, David and Linda McElroy, Lorelee Iles and the hostess. Mrs. Story Iles.
Following an enjoyable social hour, Mrs. Iles served hirthday cake and lovely refreshments, assisted by Judy Moore and Patty Ridgeway.

RIFLE RANGE SEWING CLUB MEETS AT CLINTON HOME THURSDAY AFTERNOON The Riffe Range Sewing club.

formed the floral arch under the direction of Mrs. William Horton, grand associate matron. Grand Royal Patron, Earl Beeson, was captain of the Arch of Steel, under which the crowning took place.

During the ceremonies, vocal solos were presented by Miss Carla Lee Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Hanford.

A reception followed at the Masonic temple. Refreshments were charmingly served buffet style. Mrs. Murry Smith, conductress, and Mrs. T. W. Bernard, associate conductress, poured, assisted by Miss Pat Greer and Miss Marcia Bernard.

Mrs. Lester G. Twohy, Mrs. Fred Darby, Mrs. T. W. Bernard and Mrs. Thelma Greer were in charge of the beautifully decorated tables, which were arranged with a profusion of grapes in three shades and leaves with grape blue and white tapers.

On the evening of September 2, the Grand Royal Matron, Mrs. Manning of Salem; and the Grand Royal Patron. Earl Beeson, of Eugene, paid their official visit to Douglas Court. Mr. Beeson was accompanied by his wife. Other grand officers were James F. Manning, grand marshal, Salem; Nadine James, grand lecturer, and Frances E. Huriburt, grand secretary, both of Portland. A reception followed in charge of Mrs. Fills Theor. The grand secretary, both of Port-land. A reception followed in charge of Mrs. Ella Thorp. The tables were beautifully decorat-ed in red and yellow, Amaranth

MRS. BYRON SPAULDING AND DAUGHTER HONORED AT CHARMING AFFAIRS

Mrs. Byron Spaulding (former Roberta Crawford) and her small daughter, Frances Marie, who are visiting here from Little Rock, Ark., with the former's mother, Mrs. R. E. Crawford. have been the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs.

number of delightful affairs.
Last week Mrs. Crawford entertained at a charming tea at her home on South Main street honoring Mrs. Spaulding and Frances Marie, and inviting as guests: Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. S. A. Sanford, Mrs. Washington Hug es Mrs. Galla will show moving pictures taken at Camp Tyee during the summer camp sessions. A Bayliss. Mrs. George Caskev, Mrs. Louis Kohlhagen Sr., Mrs. Alvia Wetherell and Miss Gladys H. Strong.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Charles A. Brand entertained at a charming tea at her lovely home on Winchester street hon-oring Mrs. Spaulding and Frances oring airs. Spauding and Frances Marie and having as guests Mrs.
R. E. Crawford, Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. W. M. Campbell and Miss Gladys H. Strong.
Tuesday evening, a delightful

potluck supper was enjoyed at the home of Miss Gladys H. the home of Miss Gladys H. Strong and Mrs. Crawford honoring the visitors. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway. Mrs. Lillie Thompson, Harry Howe and B. W.Taylor, Visiting was enjoyed during the social hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bushey of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss gardenias and flanked by silver candleholders and tall white tapical this city. The wedding date has been planned for September 29. The engagement of Miss Bushey and Mr. Meredith was told at a charming party Thursday evening at the bride-elect's home. A scrambled word game revealed the engagement news.

LADY LIONS HOLD FIRST FALL DINNER MEETING MONDAY

FIRST FALL DINNER
MEETING MONDAY

The Lady Lions auxiliary met at Carl's Haven Monday evening for a seven o'clock dinner with Mrs. Buckley Bell, Mrs. Bruce Elliott and Mrs. A. W. Kobernik, hostesses. The tables and dining room were beautifully decorated with fall flowers.

Officers of the auxiliary include: Mrs. Buckley Bell, president; Mrs. Bruce Elliott, vice president; Mrs. James R. Daugherty, secretary; Mrs. Keith Philips, treasurer, and Mrs. A. W. Kobernik, Lion Trainer, Others present included a group of new Lady Lions from Sutherlin, who will receive their charter from the state president at a formal dinner party Thursday evening. Sept. 29, at Sutherlin Grange hall: Madeline Hansen, Fail Mrs. H. C. Darby, Mrs. Vice, Mrs. H. C. Darby, Mrs. Vice, Mrs. H. C. Darby, Mrs. Vice, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. H. T. Handhall, Mrs. Barbert and Frieda Pfender. The Sutherlin group presented a formal invitation to the local club, which is their sponsor, to attend the charter ceremony.

In addition to the officers, members present were: Mrs. Cecil Rowe, Mrs. Ivan Lowe, Mrs. Dorena Klatt, Mrs. Earl Henry, Margaret Part, Theda Losec, Lovella Livermore, Bonita Wikoff. Ruth Turner, Helen Saar, Jews Mrs. A. E. Micelli, Mrs. Cansel, Mrs. C. Castel, Mrs. A. E. Coller, Nirs. R. Le Winberly, Mrs. Dorena Klatt, Mrs. Earl Henry, Margaret Part, Theda Losec, Lovella Livermore, Bonita Wikoff. Ruth Turner, Helen Saar, Jews Mrs. A. E. Molley, Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Miss Bess and Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Miss Bess and Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Miss Bess and Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. Charles, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. Alen, Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Miss Bess and Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. Carlen, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. Alen, Mrs. Charles Wallen, Lovella Miss Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Boule, Mrs. Charles W. Wharton, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Miss Bess and Miss Jane Wharton, Mrs. Charles, Mrs. Chester Hercher, Mrs. M. C. George Wallen, Lovella Miss Mrs. Charles Wallen, Lovella Mi

The business meeting was fol-lowed by an interesting program, which included extemporaneous talks on given subjects.

FALL ACTIVITIES OF CAMP FIRE AND BLUEBIRDS TO BEGIN

Douglas county Camp Fire and Bluebird guardians will begin day morning at the club course their fall activities at the Christian church basement Thursday Sheppard and Mrs. H. C. Stearns Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Caraway, Mrs. Lillie Thompson, Harry Howe and B. W.Taylor. Visiting was enjoyed during the evening, gave a talk on "The social hours.

Thursday evening, Mrs. Spaulding was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Saar, and on Friday was entertained informally at the home of Mrs. Stiewig. The place will be announced later. All women of the parish are cordially invited to attend the meetings.

Les were appointed for fall accommonded for fall accommond. The contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. P. D. Bridges winning high was enjoyed to some high was an bacher and the past state secretary's pin was presented to Mrs. Helliwell with appropriate ceremonies. Vivian Harth presented a past president's pin and lovely corsage to Letha Henbest.

METZGER-ROW-METZGER BRIDGE-LUNCHEON IS CHARMING AFFAIR FRIDAY

Iris Helliwell explained the need for money for the emergency polio fund to carry on the polio work and the club donated $\frac{1}{25}$ to the cause $\frac{1}{2}$ to the cause $\frac{1}{2}$ Following the two-hall mixed $\frac

Following the two-ball mixed foursome golf tournament today at the Roseburg Country club, members and their invited guests are asked to enjoy a buffet support at the clubburg to be followed. per at the clubhouse to be followed by a dance. The entertainment committee has charge the affair.

si their fall activities at the Christian church basement Thursday stan church basement Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. At that time Mrs. Galla will show moving pictures taken at Camp Tyee during the summer camp sessions. A number of counsellors from the camp staff plan to be present to lead singing and will give a short skit, in charge of Miss Lois Fitzgibbons.

Those attending are asked to bring a guest who would be interested in Camp Fire and Bluebird activities.

CIRCLE NO. 1, HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY EVENING
Circle No. 1, of St. Joseph's Allar society met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Wilson on South Main street with Mrs. Mallory and Mrs. Gardner as hostesses. Committees were appointed for fall activities.

Mrs. Amiot, speaker for the Mrs. Amiot, speaker for the diarrage of Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning the tie play-off. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Who conducted the meeting, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. B. L. Martin, Mrs. E. R. Hairvey, Mrs. Mauter Fisher, Mrs. Martha Van Ouken of Ore-perault. Mrs. Sidney Leiken, Mrs. W. C. Callison. Mrs. Joe Perrault. Mrs. Sidney Leiken, Mrs. Roy Sedell, Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning the tie play-off. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Who conducted the meeting, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. B. L. Martin, Mrs. E. R. Hairvey, Mrs. Muster Fisher, Mrs. Mrs. Sidney Leiken, Mrs. W. C. Callison. Mrs. Joe Perrault. Mrs. Sidney Leiken, Mrs. Roy Sedell, Mrs. H. C. Stearns winning the tie play-off. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balley, vice-president. Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. Kenneth Balle right: Flossie Virden, Virginia Ashcraft, V. Vivian Logsdon and Vera McClintock Jones. Standing, Helen Emery and Gladys Foley.

STATE OFFICERS VISIT
JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB
AT SPECIAL MEETING
Mrs. Harold Jokela, president, called a special meeting of the Junior Woman's club Monday evening at the Moose hall, at which time Mrs. Emery C. Ingham, Portland, Junior extension chairman for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, and Mrs.
C. H. Castner, Portland, federation parliamentarian, made official visits.
Mrs. Ingham reported on the

The first fall meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club was held Monday night at the Moose hall with Miss V. Vivian Logsdon, president, in charge of the business session and members of the membership committee in charge of the program.

Mrs. Stella Spencer introduced Mrs. Helen Chase, Eugene, state membership chairman, who gave a talk on membership chairman, who gave a talk on membership and the year's program for Business and Professional Women's clubs of studied at the Chicago Musical studied at the Chicago ment of canned goods and fresh fruit. The social was preceded by a short business meeting of the Guild to take care of routine matters. The opening and closing devotions were led by Rev. Mr.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY

Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Rennie, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Powell to: Mrs. Jack Farris Jr., Mrs. Jack W. Cummins, Mrs. Eugene Krewson, Mrs. Clarence DeCamp, Mrs. Marcus Brown, Mrs. Harry L. Harris, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. John D. Todd, Mrs. E. Byron Smith, Mrs. Ted Wirak, Mrs. J. B. Josse, Mrs. Sidney Fredrickson, Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. Iris Spring and Mrs. H. C. Church.

Church.

The next meeting will be at eight o'clock the evening of Sept. 27, at the home of Mrs. Chester Morgan in Laureliwood with Mrs. Spring and Mrs. Gardner host-Graef.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY
IS DELIGHTFUL
AFFAIR WEDNESDAY
Members and friends of St.
John's Lutheran church in Sutherlin met at the parsonage on Wednesday evening to give the recently installed partor, Rev.
Richard E. Graef, and his wife a housewarming. The social was held under the auspices of St.
John's Missionary Guild. Rev.
and Mrs. Graef were well remembered with a large assortment of canned goods and fresh DINNER MEETING AT
CARL'S HAVEN WEDNESDAY
Jay-C-Ettes met Wednesday evening at Carl's Haven for a delightful dinner meeting. Mrs.
C. E. Hart, president, conducted the meeting and plans were disthe meeting and plans were dis-cussed for the state board meet-ing to be held in Roseburg in

JAY-C-ETTES ENJOY

Plans were discussed for a

Plans were discussed for asemi-formal dinner dance to be held at the Roseburg Country club the evening of Sept. 24.
Covers were placed for Mrs.
Nels Lindell, a guest, and Mrs.
C. E. Hart, Mrs. Bob Lambeth,
Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Mrs. Don
Gum, Mrs. Glenn Scott, Mrs.
Douglas Tudor, Mrs. Dwayne Baker, Mrs. Melvin Heggie, Mrs.
Bob Le Gat, Mrs. Sidney Moon
Jr., Mrs. George McIntosh, Mrs.
Eldon Howard, Mrs. Walt Brittell, Mrs. Clark Taylor, Mrs. Al
Hughes, Mrs. Al Fray and Mrs.
Leo Sevy.
The next meeting will be Oct.
12 at eight o'clock at the home Graef.

During the course of the festivities of the evening A. Coenenberg, chairman of St. John's Lutheran church, in the name of the congregation briefly expressed the thanks of the members of St. John's to Rev. W. Sylwester for his pastoral service and guidance during the previous three years until the time the resident pastor was installed. On behalf of the congregation he also gave Rev. and Mrs. Sylwester a lovely gift of appreciation.

At the close lovely refresh-

Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours,

Teaching Radio And Dramatics

Miss Mary Ellen McKay

Miss Mary Ellen McKay, who She is the only daughter of Mr. was graduated from University and Mrs. Harold D. McKay of home of Oregon last spring, is teaching radio and dramatics at Rose McKay, member of KRNR radio City Park school in Portland staff.

W. C. T. U. HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON The W. C. T. U. reviewed highlights of the Golden Jubilee national convention and discussed the recommendations of the national president for aims and methods of work for the future at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Ben B. Irving Wednesday afternoon. The Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, established by the W.C. T. U., is a protestant home which cares for children from all parts of the state. A Christmas box was planned and gifts can now be sent in both for that occasion and for general assistance. All types of athletic equipment, toiletries, books, new or used clothing in good condition for both boys and girls from the ages of 5 to 17, will be gladly received. For the home in general, bedding is always needed, also towels of all types, aprons, pictures, furniture, music and handeraft materials. Anyone desiring to help make a happy home for needy children, may secure further information by phoning Mrs. R. D. Knigge or Mrs. Ben B. Irving. tion parliamentarian, made official visits. Mrs. Ingham reported on the benefits derived from the General Federation and gave a very inspiring talk on the Boys Training school at Woodburn, which Junior Woman's clubs of Oregon are helping by adopting the project of furnishing and equipping a recreation home in one of the school's four cottages as their No. I activity for the year. The clubs of the state will pay for an interior decorator to plan the recreation room and will furnish materials and equipment, while the boys of the school themselves will make the furniture, do the painting and papering. It is hoped the work will be done by Christmas, at which time an open-house to the public will be held. The school has been of special

Bette Jewell and Allena Farenbaugh were hostesses for the evening.

Those present besides the special guests were: Mrs. Harold Jokela, Mrs. W. R. Burke, Mrs. E. K. Purkerson, Mrs. George Crenshaw, Mrs. R. W. Marr, Miss Eva Baker, Mrs. Dallen H. Jones, Mrs. Van Svarverud, Mrs. R. D. Fies, Mrs. R. L. Nichol, Mrs. A. F. Franklin, Mrs. George Crocker, Mrs. Clyde Crenshaw, Mrs. Ketth Cashner, Mrs. Peter Homer, Mrs. Lee Reding, Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. Benjamin O. Du Fresne, Mrs. Alice West, Mrs. Valter A. Moore, Mrs. Raiph L. Charma Mrs. Letters F. Einlay. Abbey Moore, Miss Brennan, who has opened a violin studio in Roseburg, delighted the group by playing "La Cinqutaini" by Gabriel "Marie," and "Song of India," by Korsakoff, Virginis Pocock and Barbara Johnson sang, "Down in the Valley," and "When I Grow Too Old To Dream," accompanied by Mra. Hayes; Mr. Lander, school board chairman gave a short talk and Cashner, Mrs. Peter Homer, Mrs. Peter Rudolf, Mrs. Carl Duncan, I Mrs. Lee Reding, Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. Benjamin O. Du Fresne, Mrs. Alice West, Mrs. Valter A. Moore, Mrs. Raiph L. Ohman, Mrs. James R. Finlay, Mrs. Don Rogers, Mrs. Bob Gunderson, Mrs. C. V. DeCamp and Miss Ethel Van Voorst. chairman, gave a short talk and group singing followed, after which refreshments were enjoy-

A most enjoyable time was held Monday, when members of the Manning family gathered for a picnic and reunion. Following the picnic and reunion. Following the picnic dinner, visiting was en-

AND PICNIC MONDAY

Manning family gathered for a picnic and reunion. Following the picnic dinner, visiting was enjoyed.

Those present were Mrs. Hawley (grandma) Manning and the following children, grandchildren in Mr. and Mrs. Ben Manning and son. Allen, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Manning of Portiland; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Manning of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. Walter whose birthday occurs this month, was honored. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Earl Nelson of Calkins road, a guest, and the following members and greed Mrs. Clyde Manning and son. Edward, and daughter, Judy.

The Helping Hand club of Edenbower met for an interesting meeting Thursday at the lovely home of Mrs. Harris on Eden Lane. Following a short business meeting, the social hour was spent in sewing. Mrs. Marie Walker, whose birthday occurs this month, was honored.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Earl Nelson of Calkins road, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. Earl Nelson of Calkins road, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. Earl Nelson of Calkins road, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. Earl Nelson of Calkins road, a guest, and the following members: Mrs. Clyde Manning and son. Edward, and daughter, Judy.

The next meeting the social hour was spent in sewing. Mrs. Edward Lane. Following a short business meeting the bridge club at a lovely one was spent in sewing. Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one was spent in sewing. Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearson entertained her bridge club at a lovely one of Mrs. E. A. Pearso of appreciation.

At the close lovely refreshments were served by the Gulid to Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Graef, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylwester and daughter, Margaret; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Urben and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. W. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. C. Malitz and family; Mr. and Mrs. K. Dies, Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson, Mrs. Betty Stamp, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bullman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Miller and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hill, Mrs. L. Lewis, A. Coenenberg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stefferud and family; Mrs. F. Niemie, Mr. H. Vansteenberg, Mr.