Four up and seven to go. The Hollywood Stars will have to stumble, fall down and break their collective legs to lose the Pacific Coast league pennant now.

Pacific Coast league pennant now.

The Stars, a great Sunday team all season, took a pair from San Francisco 10-3 and 21 yesterday while the challenging Oakiands dropped two to the lowly Los Angeles Angels 9-8 and 5-1.

Thus, if Hollywood captures just three of its remaining series with Seattle, the Acorns must take all seven from Portland to tie. Four Twink wins and the Oaks are dead period.

Gale Page Pleases Small Crowd In Local Appearance

By LEROY INMAN
The singing of Gale Page Saturday night at the Roseburg Junior high school was very impressive. The crowd wasn't.
The scant 175 persons who paid to hear Miss Page, star of radio, stage and screen, and her equally entertaining husband accompanist, Count Solito de Sollis, were lost in the large auditorium.
Those attending were loud in their applause of Miss Page's voice, and repeatedly called her

Those attending were loud in their applause of Miss Page's voice, and repeatedly called her back at the close of the concert. Some in the audience were disappointed that she did not sing Jerome Kern's "Make Belleve," and that De Solis did not play "Liebestraume," as printed on the program, but Miss Page did honor with two encore selections. One was "Cadiz." composed by her husband, and to which she wrote the words.

Singing in a low contralto voice, Miss Page gave excellent and entertaining renditions of popular selections. Her charming personality, the superb quality of her voice, clear enunciation and her dramatic ability to put across her presentations, all added up to a delightful evening's program. Miss Page opened, singing "Tea for Two" and followed with "Cheek to Cheek," "Brown Bird Singing," "Can't Help Lovin Dat Man," and "My Bill," in her first group, and "Stormy Weather," "Summertime," "Mad About the Boy," "April Made A Fool of Me," "Hands Across the Table," and "His Majesty the Baby," in the second group.

De Solis played several popular selections, including "Cadiz," "Granada" and "Malaga," his own compositions.
