Monument To Mark Spot Where Jap Bomb Killed Six In Klamath

KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A wooded spot in eastern Klamath county, where six persons died May 5, 1945, in the explosion of a Japanese balloon bomb, will be appropriately marked with a monument.

The deaths were believed the only casualties directly attributable to enemy action in the continental United States during World War II.

Weyerhaeuser Timber company announced today it had completed plans to erect a fenced monument and to build and maintain a recreation area at the site of the bomb blast not far from the town of Bly.

The monument will be a truncated pyramid of native stone with a bronze plaque dedicating the spot where six members of a seven-party picnic group were killed.

The plaque will carry the names of the dead: Mrs. Edie Mitchell, Dick and Joan Patzke, Sherman Shoemaker, Jay Gifford and Edward Engen.

Mrs. Mitchell, 26, was the wife of Rev. A. E. Mitchell, now in Indo-China and sole survivor of the group. Others in the party had gone into the forest ahead of the minister and found the bombs. Its explosion killed them instantly.

The Patzke boy and girl, Dick, 14, and Joan, 13, were children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patzke of Bly; Sherman, 11, was the son of Leo Shoemaker, now of Oroville, Calif.; Jay, 13, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gifford of Klamath Falls, and Edward Engen, 13, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Einar Engen, now of Canyonville, Ore.

$75,000 Asked For Loss Of Husband's Affections

PORTLAND, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The estranged wife of a Portland restaurateur asks for $75,000 for loss of her husband's affections.

Mrs. Grayce Zipper in a circuit court complaint alleged that Margaret R. Kennedy, also known as Margaret Westwood, operator of a wholesale women's apparel business, enticed away Charles Zipper.

Zipper, stockholder in the Whistling Pig and two other Portland restaurants, and Mrs. Zipper were divorced last year, but the divorce later was set aside on Mrs. Zipper's claim that she was forced by her husband to draft the terms.

Mrs. Westwood divorced her husband, Theodore, last December.

Mrs. Zipper's allegation of affections suit alleges that Mrs. Westwood gave her husband various gifts and as a result, he beat his wife and shot her in the back in 1947, causing her to become paralyzed.

Job Opportunities For Physically Handicapped Will Be Emphasized

Increasing suitable job opportunities for the physically handicapped will be a major objective of the fifth annual National Employment Week which will be observed in Roseburg and throughout Oregon and the Nation from October 2 through 8, chairman of NEPH committee, Bill Livermore, announced today.

A community-wide committee sponsoring the "week" held its first meeting Wednesday and made plans for an intensive local campaign to find suitable jobs for disabled veterans and other handicapped persons, Livermore said.

"Our slogan for the week will be 'Hire the Handicapped—It's Good Business.' We hope to be able to drive home to the entire community the fact that the ability, not the disability, of the handicapped worker is what counts. We want every citizen to realize that handicapped workers are assets not only to themselves but to the entire community when employed in jobs which utilize their abilities. There is no longer any question of this fact because actual work records of employed handicapped workers have proved that they are just as efficient, reliable and versatile as non-handicapped workers when they are placed in suitable jobs."

The local office of the Oregon Employment Service now has on file the applications of disabled veterans and other handicapped persons who are able to work and are actively seeking employment, Livermore said. He added that there are additional handicapped persons in the community who are not listed with the local Public Employment Service.

Livermore said that the handicapped week program was authorized on a Nation-wide basis by Congress on August 11, 1945, through the passage of Public Law 176. This law, he said, directed the President of the United States to issue a proclamation each year calling upon all citizens and all communities to exert special efforts to enlist public support and interest in the employment of physically handicapped workers.

Livermore said that numerous Federal agencies and approximately 150 employer, labor, professional, women's, and other national organizations are cooperating in sponsoring NEPH Week.

Ailing Barbara Hutton Back In Native Land

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Heresia "Babs" Hutton—a pale, thin woman of 36—has come back to her native land in search of health.

"I am feeling very badly," said princess Barbara Hutton Troubetzkoy as she arrived on a liner.

The Woolworth five-and-ten-cent store heiress, returning to the United States for the first time in three years, told newsmen she had come for a medical checkup.

She said she expects her fourth husband, Prince Igor Troubetzkoy, to follow her to the United States shortly.

Princess Barbara is down to 92 pounds from her one-time tennis playing average of about 100.

Hotel Theft Said O.K. If 'Booty' Is Bible

PORTLAND.—(AP)—It's all right for people to steal from hotels, when it's Bibles they're taking, the executive director of the Gideon society said here.

"We're glad to have that trouble," said Frederick R. Sacher, Chicago, who explained the Gideons consider it an indication the man who takes a Bible is becoming interested in religion.

Sacher, here for the state Gideons' convention, said his organization has distributed 2,970,000 complete Bibles, and more than 14,000,000 Testaments and Psalms.

A request for more Bibles for Alaska came from J. F. Francis, Corvallis, who recently returned from Fairbanks.

Los Angeles Fire Alarm Wrecked By Atmosphere

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—"Battalion chief Eleven," droned the fire department dispatcher over the short wave radio, "Fire reported at 2620 Lakeview Terrace."

Battalion chief eleven returned the call a few minutes later.

"There's no such address," he said angrily.

"You mean to tell me I don't know my Los Angeles?" The dispatcher snapped back.

There was a pause. The party on the other end chuckled.

"You may know Los Angeles, but this is Cleveland Ohio," Sure enough, it was a trick of the atmosphere had tangled up the two fire departments. They operate on the same wave length.

Aimless Use Of GI School Benefits Prohibited

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Veterans administration has set up a new barrier against aimless use of G. I. bill education benefits.

Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray Jr. ruled that veterans who have completed or discontinued course of training, and now wish to resume it, must prove that the new course is not avocational or recreational, and is essential to the employment objective.

Veterans administration appropriation acts for 1949 and 1950 prohibit the agency from spending any money for courses which the administrator determines to be recreational or avocational.

Gray said no payments for tuition, books, subsistence or other purpose will be made for any period before VA approval is granted.

More than 4,500,000 World War II veterans who have taken GI bill training at one time or another, he said, are not presently in school.

Several hundred thousands of these have temporarily interrupted their courses for summer vacations or other valid reasons. They are not affected by the new regulation, as far as resuming courses for the fall semester is concerned.

Portland Must Wait Year To Battle Beetle

PORTLAND, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The City of Portland is going to have to fight the fir twig beetle here, but it can't do it until next year.

The beetle is infesting several city park areas, but entomologists are not yet sure how much of the damage to the fir trees has been caused by the insect. Some of the damage may be due to weather conditions.

City Insect Abatement Supervisor Arthur H. Woody said it was the city's province to halt the damage.
