OFFICERS TRAINING CONFERENCE HELD HERE

Twelve Home Extension units of Douglas county were represented at the officers training conference Tuesday at the Knights of Pythias hall in Roseburg. Mrs. Earl Ollivant, county committee chairman, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Ray Doerner accompanied the group singing.

Mrs. Ollivant reported interesting events from the state council meeting, which she attended at Oregon State college in June. Mrs. Corinne McTaggart, county home demonstration agent, briefly reviewed plans for the Azalea house, a cooperative house for girls at Oregon State college. Women in Home Extension units in Oregon are working to earn $45,000 towards building the house. More than $25,000 has already been earned. Representatives from each Douglas county unit told how their group had supported this project.

The group unanimously passed a resolution favoring the building of public rest rooms in Roseburg. Extension units have supported the building of rest rooms through petitions and delegations to the city council and plan to continue their support.

County and unit officers were introduced. Officers' handbooks and year books were distributed. Discussion was held on ways to improve meetings.

County committee members were installed. Assisting Mrs. McTaggart with the program were: registration, Mrs. A. H. Monson; program, Mrs. Earl Ollivant; decorations, Mrs. A. J. Standley; music, Mrs. Ray Doerner; hostess, Mrs. Jack Parrott; publicity, Mrs. Cecil Hartford.

Women from Home Extension units present were Mrs. E. A. Sheppard, Mrs. H. L. Sheppard and Mrs. Violet Foreman of Azalea; Peggie Chapman, Stella Moodie and Bertha Parrott of James Valley; Mrs. Wade Worthington, Lois DeWald and Dorothy Bryant of Days Creek; Ruth Casebeer and Mrs. Taylor McCord, of East Douglas; Sylvia Maddox and Louise Ollivant of Lookingglass; Grace Fenn, Clara Herrman and Patricia Doerner of Melrose; Adda Ollivant, Maureen Muetzel and Julia Ereltenbacher of Glalia; Tennille unit; Minnie Churchill and Opal Taylor, of Rice Valley; Marion Dayton, Thyra Ryder and Allie Simms of Riddle; Mrs. C. L. Spray, Mrs. C. W. Schmidt, Mrs. Walter Ulrich and Mrs. Adrian Standley, of Riversdale; Mrs. A. H. Monson, Mrs. W. D. Palmer and Mrs. Floyd Spence, of Scottsburg; Mrs. G. P. Van Horn, Mrs. J. D. Davidson and Mrs. Eugene Ridenour of Winchester. Also attending were Mrs. George Powers of Winston, who is interested in forming an extension unit near Winston; Mrs. Corinne McTaggart, home extension agent; Wayne Mosher, agriculture, and Frank Von Borstal Jr., 4-H.

The meeting was brought to a close by the group singing, "Sing Your Way Home."

EVERGREEN GRANGE TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

ELKTON EASTERN STAR HAS MEETING

Elkton Eastern Star met Tuesday evening at the I.O.O.F. hall for the first fall session. A fine attendance supported the session. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckley are worthy patron and worthy matron with Mr. and Mrs. William Binder, associate patron and associate matron.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Compton served delicious refreshments later in the evening.

INFORMAL HARVEST BALL TO BE HELD SATURDAY

The Winchester Community club has cancelled its dance planned for Friday night and instead will hold an informal harvest ball Saturday night, Sept. 24, at nine o'clock at the new clubhouse.

Everyone in the community and their invited guests are asked to enjoy the affair.

To test a pancake griddle drop a few drops of cold water on it; if the water forms small bubbles that hiss and dance over the griddle pour on the cakes.

Pink Salmon Prices Settle At $17 Case

SEATTLE, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Pink salmon prices generally have settled at $17 per case of tall cans, McGovern and McGovern, salmon brokers, announced.

The firm estimated pinks probably would be retailed for under 50 cents a can.

The large pink salmon run in Alaska and Puget Sound waters was credited for the price drop. The wholesale price skidded downward from $19 a case two weeks ago.

This year's red salmon pack generally has sold from $26 to $26.50 a case substantially the same as last year.

If you come home from a picnic with leftover sandwiches, wrap them well in waxed paper or aluminum foil and store them in the refrigerator. The next day they can be grilled in a little butter or margarine and served with a salad as a luncheon dish. Or they can be toasted under the broiler and served with a cream cheese or tomato sauce; choose the sauce that goes with the filling.

HALF MILLION DOLLARS—or $474,000 to be exact, are represented by the diamond pieces shown adorning these two Roseburg ladies. Hazel Scott, top, wears the crown necklace, valued at more than $200,000. The brooch she is wearing, which includes two matched 31-carat diamonds, raises the total value of her diamond accessories to $432,000, including 20 percent federal tax. A mere $35,000 in jewels adorn Lorraine Crocker, above, the combined value of the pin and necklace. All of the pieces are being displayed by Lawson's Jewelers, publicizing the use of diamonds in connection with their Fall Opening display.—(Picture by Master Photo Studio).
