ANNUAL REUNION IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

About 65 people attended the fourth annual reunion of Co. D, 162nd Infantry of the National Guard, which was held at the Canyonville Community hall Saturday night, according to Glenn Gilmore, Canyonville, chairman for the affair this year.

The members were inducted into service in 1940. Since the government inactivated the division the company has a reunion each year.

The government has now activated the division and several of the old members are still with the company which has been transferred to the 188th Infantry, Colonel I. Irving, who was Company Commander at the time the company was called into service, has been called back to Washington, D. C. by the War Department, Captain Fague of Seaside, a former officer, was present.

During the evening a moment of silence was observed honoring the boys of the company who were lost in action overseas.

Glenn Jackson and James Todd, both of Oakland, were elected Chairman and co-Chairman respectively of the next year's reunion.

Besides fried chicken the group enjoyed a Smorgasbord lunch. Dancing was the entertainment.

Those attending who are well known in this community were: Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Bowman of Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith of Days Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Smith, both of Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ulam, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Wisner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wisner, all former Canyonville residents; and Henry Black, formerly of Myrtle Creek.

Refreshments were served to the group of visitors later in the evening.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED AT DINNER MEETING

The Canyonville Lions club met Monday evening at the Cedars for their regular 7 o'clock dinner meeting. This week had been set aside as "One Hundred Percent Attendance Week," in honor of the president of each individual club.

The purchasing of the resuscitator was discussed and decided upon. It was announced Ella Andrews of Portland will be on hand at the Amateur Boxing Matches this Saturday night to demonstrate it.

There will be a dinner for the local Lions and their wives at Ford's Cafe on Monday, October 10. The affair will be honoring District Governor Forrest C. Loese of Roseburg and his staff. All Lions are invited to attend.

GUILD HAS FINE MEETING TUESDAY

The Guild of the Methodist church in Canyonville met at the home of Mrs. Eskie McNeess Tuesday night. Plans were discussed for the Bazaar to be held in the Canyonville Community hall Friday, October 28.

New members in the Guild are: Opal Irwin, Barbara Morris, Ethel Metcalf, Bessie Hackenberg and Juanita Cannon.

Other members attending were: Mrs. Olive Hays, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, Mrs. Vera Clocksda, Mrs. Mae Taylor, Mrs. Virginia Morris, Mrs. Leona McNeess, Mrs. Leta Thompson and the hostess, Mrs. Eskie McNeess.

CANYONVILLE LADIES AID HOLDS MEETING

The Canyonville Ladies Aid met last week at the home of Mrs. Sharp to tie a quilt. The meetings from now until the latter part of October will be spent working on articles for the Handicraft booth which the Ladies Aid will have charge of at the Methodist Guild Bazaar on October 28.

The next Aid meeting will be special on Wednesday, Sept. 28, at the home of Mrs. Glenn Shippen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chris, Mrs. Cora Allen, D. J. Atterbury, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brigham, Mrs. Leona Slack, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hensley, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wilson, Betty Stamp, Dick Bullman, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Minor and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Richardson.

A delightful four-course baked ham dinner was served by the ladies and during the serving the following program was enjoyed: "America" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Amorie, after which a poem "A Toast to the Banquet" was repeated by all. This being a banquet with the husbands as guests, the president, Mrs. Cook, gave a toast to the "MEN" and Mr. Torrey gave the response. The wives introduced their husbands and told where they had met.

The door prize was won by Mr. Torrey. Song "The More We Get To Gather" by all was followed by the dessert being served by candle-light. Mr. Riddlebarger gave a very interesting talk.

A spelling bee followed with six men on one side and six women on the other to see which ones were the best spellers and it was proved the women were. Program closed by singing "God Bless America."

CLUB ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS AT DINNER

The Associated Business Women's club of Sutherlin met Tuesday evening at the Grange hall for a quarterly banquet, which was put on by the ladies of the Home Economics club of the Sutherlin Grange. ### Bachelors, Beware!

This is the time for retired bachelor railroad men to beware, for every widow has a meadow eye. She doesn't want to bake pies just for herself through another long cold winter.

Oh, it's a wonderful season—fall is. The pigskins float through the air before the last baseball has been knocked over the fence. Topcoats replace sports jackets in the department store windows. The movies quit bragging it's 20 degrees cooler inside, and start showing "A" pictures again. It's a desperate measure to lure customers indoors.

The stage comes to life, and the city wears a fresh glitter, and all girls are beautiful to someone. Vacation tans fade, but there's a bright new look in every eye. People shed summer weariness like a snake dropping a third-skin skin.

Autumn is a fine thing everywhere. It's spring with a wiser look, treasured because it passes so soon. The boss smileth, the workman giveth a full day's— I mean day's— toil and cometh home at eventful to a cheerful wife. She forgetteth to find fault. Yes, it's a grand time, autumn— too late for hay fever, too early for pneumonia. It's a flood in

Autumn, Year's Finest Of 4 Faces, Arrives To Spread Joy, Contentment

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—There's a stranger in the land today, and the stranger is—autumn. Welcome, stranger! He came to our town exactly at 4:04:06 o'clock this morning, an hour after the last saloon closed.

The only one who saw him arrive was the milkman, as our official greeter, Grover Whalen, rarely has his orange juice ready to let alone a speech—so early in the day.

But everyone knew autumn was here. The air felt like a raise in salary.

The year wears four faces, and autumn is the finest. Everybody likes it except maybe politicians who have to run for re-election and plead that now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party.

Man and nature go on a last rampage before the deep freeze sets in. The robin tests its feathers for the long flight south, and old folks begin thumbing Florida resort folders.

The farmer's crop is in, and now he has time to write letters to his congressman. The fisherman casts a final fly, the hunter oils his gun. And the wary duck along the Canadian border quacks, "oh, hell, oh hell, oh hell," knowing he is the target of tomorrow.

At night the moon is a yellow madness. The fox barks on the hill, the lonesome moose shakes his antlers and bellows in the woods for a tall dark lady—any dark lady on four legs. The rabbits in the grass review their multiplication tables. Ain't nature grand?

The maple turns again. Into a scarlet lass, blushing to see the staid oak shed its leaves and dance around in its shaggy skeleton. The squirrel begins his annual thrift, and wonders if the rest of the world is nuts.

The movies quit bragging it's 20 degrees cooler inside, and start showing "A" pictures again. It's a desperate measure to lure customers indoors.

The stage comes to life, and the city wears a fresh glitter, and all girls are beautiful to someone. Vacation tans fade, but there's a bright new look in every eye. People shed summer weariness like a snake dropping a third-skin skin.

Autumn is a fine thing everywhere. It's spring with a wiser look, treasured because it passes so soon. The boss smileth, the workman giveth a full day's— I mean day's— toil and cometh home at eventful to a cheerful wife. She forgetteth to find fault. Yes, it's a grand time, autumn— too late for hay fever, too early for pneumonia. It's a flood in the blood, a high tide measured by the turning sun.

There's no tax on it, kid, so spend it while you have it. No autumn lasts forever, and there is no real guarantee it will ever come again.

Damage Action Plaintiff Given $7,100 Verdict

Verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $6,000 general and $1,100 special damages was returned by a jury of 12 in the suit of M. K. Brown vs. Glenn E. Marshall Thursday afternoon.

The trial, which began Wednesday and continued most of Thursday, involved an automobile accident occurring last January on Canyon mountain south of Canyonville.

Brown had asked $15,000 general and $1,150 special damages. The latter was for alleged loss of time and medical and hospital claims.

This case completes the civil action trials for this term of the court, which is a holdover from the May term, but two criminal actions are slated for next week.

Other civil cases scheduled for this term of court have either been settled or set over until the November term.

The cases of Nelson James Sawyers, charged with larceny, is scheduled to come up Monday at 9:30 a.m. Sawyers, now out on $500 bail, is charged in the May term grand jury indictment with stealing a wallet valued at more than $35 and the property of Mrs. Jessie Dedrick. The alleged theft took place March 5, according to the indictment.

Following this will be the trial of Robert D. Nelson, also accused of larceny and out on $2,000 bail. He is charged in the grand jury indictment with the theft of a safe containing currency and other valuables from the Gas Appliance Co., Inc., at Reedsport.

To the woman who's got new linoleum on her mind

"New linoleum gave my kitchen a lift"

Dear Marge—

You wanted to know the secret of my lovely kitchen. Well, it is lovely if I do say so myself.

Of course I was lucky enough to get the finest of appliances and cabinets. But I really think a big share of the credit should go to that wonderful Nairn Inlaid Linoleum. It fitted my color-scheme perfectly, and it looks as nice as the day I bought it. So easy to keep clean—you'd hardly believe how little time it takes.

My sink and counter tops are another thing I can't help bragging about. They're Nairn Linoleum too, splashbacks and all. They're so quiet and clean to work on. And I hardly ever break or chip my dishes now that I have linoleum.

If I were you I'd start right now to plan my new kitchen around Nairn Inlaid Linoleum. There's a grand selection of colors to choose from. Tell you what—measure your room and I'll meet you tomorrow at
