"Act Of God Baby" Of Theatrical Star Dies NEW YORK, Sept. 24—(A)—Actress Mary MacArthur. 19, who became a celebrated figure in the theater world at birth as the "Act of God baby" of actress Helen Hayes, died Thursday. The young woman's death came as she was preparing to appear next month in a supporting role with her mother in the Broadway premiere of a new play. She died of what physicians fermed a "generalized virus infection." Her father, newspaperman-playwright Charles MacArthur, and Miss Hayes were at her The "Act of God baby" label was pinned to Miss MacArthur in a widely publicized theatrical controversy. It arose when her mother was forced to withdraw role.

Her withdrawal resulted in closing of the play and a sub-sequent dispute over actors' salary rights. Both Sides Rest In Trial Of Eleven Communists

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.-(P)-

Shortly before giving of evidence came to an end attorneys for both sides had conferred with Federal Judge Harold R. Medina regarding arrangements for arguments and summation.

Medina said he thought he had a plan "that will please everybody."

The judge excused the jury with instructions that its members should return for the windup on Oct. 4.

To blanch almonds put them in boiling water until their skins loosen; slip off the skins with joosen; sip off the skins with your fingers, dry the almonds, slice lengthwise into thin slivers. Melt a few tablespoons of butter or margarine in a skillet, add the almond strips, and brown them slowly, stirring frequently.
