

Roseburg Loses To Bobcats 19-0

Red Sox Could Clinch Race Today

Myrtle Point Easily Downs Indian Squad

Roseburg Line Fails To Hold As Pointers Make Yardage At Will

By CHUCK PLUMMER
The Roseburg Indians showing weakness in almost every position lost to a hot Myrtle Point team Friday night, 19-0.

The Indian line was like a sieve at the tackles, with the Bobcats ripping off gain after gain on off tackle slants and end sweeps. Roseburg never got inside Myrtle Point's 30-yard line, in the one-sided contest, while the home-town Pointers were in Roseburg's half of the field most of the time.

Myrtle Point scored three times and were inside the Roseburg 20 three more times during the contest.

Score Early
The Bobcats started a scoring drive as soon as they got the ball, when Roseburg's Bob Scott punted to their 35. Ralph Clarno, Myrtle Point halfback and star of the game, ran the ball back to the 43. Jim Krantz, the other Pointer halfback, ran to Roseburg's 49. Clarno then made another five yards, but an off-side penalty put Myrtle Point back on the 49 again. Then Bobcat Fullback Glen Compton took off for 24 yards to the Roseburg 25-yard line. Clarno and Compton advanced the ball to the four, where Clarno went over for a touchdown, giving Myrtle Point a 6-0 lead. Myrtle Point started another drive later in the period, but when they reached the Roseburg 30, a 15-yard penalty ended their drive.

Myrtle Point threatened twice in the second quarter and one threat was good for another touchdown. The drive started when Myrtle Point recovered a fumble by Frank Weber, Roseburg fullback, on the Roseburg 35. In two plays, Clarno went to the 8-yard line, where Compton went over tackle for the touchdown. The extra point was kicked to make the score 13-0.

Again Threaten
The other second period threat by Myrtle Point was when Rick Bingham, Bobcat quarterback, intercepted a pass on the 50 and ran it back to the 45. In two plays, Bingham reached the Roseburg 26, where on two consecutive passes to End Ford Worsham, Myrtle Point was on the Roseburg three. But Scott, Roseburg halfback, intercepted a pass and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Sat. Oct. 1, 1949 - The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 3

SPORTS

Dusette, Weaver Will Battle Tonight For Wrestling Title

The Roseburg wrestling fans are getting a treat Saturday night at the wrestling arena, when Matchmaker Elton Owen presents Georges Dusette and Buck Weaver in a Pacific Coast light-heavyweight title bout.

The last time these two met here in a title bout, Weaver won the match on a disqualification over the French-Canadian. All night, Weaver had been climbing through the ropes wherever Dusette came close to putting on his strong full-nelson. Finally Dusette tired of having the Indian run out on him, so he followed him out of the ring and began to bounce his head on the floor and ring's edge. Naturally the referee had no alternative but to award the match to Weaver on a foul. Pro-Dusette fans hollered long and loud but to no avail.

The fans are tired of Weaver's ways, cocky and sure, and will welcome a defeat for him. Dusette is just the man to do it to him, providing Weaver holds still and doesn't climb on his bicycle. In the opener Carl Myers, newcomer from Milwaukee, Wis., will take on Hungarian Al Szasz. It should be a terrific crowd pleaser.

Ex-Leaguer Waits Outcome Of Yankee-Card Struggles

By "PICK" MALARKEY
Out at the veteran's hospital near The Grove there is a sturdy, better than six footer, by the name of Bruce Hitt who is following the struggles of the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals as they battle down the home stretch in the American and National leagues.

Hitt has more than a passing interest in the last drive, because in 1917 he pitched for the St. Louis club, then after two years in the Navy young Hitt followed the Cardinal manager Miller Huggins to the Yankees.

With the Yankees the year Bruce broke in was the great Babe Ruth playing the outfield. Before joining the Navy and with St. Louis, he had a good season. Won a few more than he lost.

Hitt was just a kid from a small high school at Indian Gap, Texas, when Miller Huggins brought him to the St. Louis organization. After the first season up with the Yankees a salary dispute arose and Bruce played semi-pro ball. Back with the Yankees in '21 he had a not-so-good season and was traded to the Kansas City Blues of the American association.

The base ball career of Hitt came to an end in 1924 and his last organized baseball was pitched for Denver of the old Mid-West league.

The oil wells of Texas called and the ex-big leaguer followed construction work with the Big Lake company and the McGuff Intests.

"If the Yankees and Cardinals play it off for the world series I got to pull for St. Louis. That club is my first love and I sure hope they finish on top," thus drawled the Texan while he went about his duties as a member of the operating personnel at the receiving ward out here at "The Vets."

Bruce Hitt has been with the Veterans Administration since 1937.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

The center of Roseburg's line, including Jim Shrum, George Packard, Bill Wagner, Durward Boyles, and John Raushert, are to be commended on their play.

and Strickling completed a pass to End Dale Black on the 30, as the half ended.

Roseburg kicked off to Myrtle Point in the second half and the Pointers began another march when their own 25. Krantz ran to the 35, where Compton, on a reverse, took off for 45 yards to Roseburg's 20. The Roseburg line stiffened and the Bobcats lost the ball on downs.

Later in the period, Clarno started his own scoring drive. First he ran around right end for 22 yards to the Roseburg 18. Then he picked up a lateral from Quarterback Rick Bingham and ran to the six. From there he scored around left end to give the Pointers their final 19 point edge.

Play bogged down in the fourth quarter, but Myrtle Point again reached scoring position when End Marv Hammack intercepted a pass by Roseburg Quarterback Ron Strickling on his own 5 and ran it to the Roseburg six. But Roseburg's line held again and kept Myrtle Point from scoring. There were no more threats in the final period.

Boston Hopes For Decision Over Yankees

Parnell Is Matched Against Stengel In Crucial Game Of Day

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
This could be the day of decision in the major league pennant races.

The Boston Red Sox can clinch the American league flag by knocking off their challengers, the New York Yankees, today at Yankee stadium.

If they miss, they still have a chance on the last day tomorrow since a Yankee victory today would throw the race into another tie.

Over in the National, a combination of a Booklyn victory and a St. Louis Cardinal defeat could win the championship for the Dodgers, who now lead by one game.

The Dodgers play the Phillies in Philadelphia while the Cards, with three straight defeats haunting them, take on the tail-end Cubs in Chicago.

Could Mean Playoff
A loss for the Dodgers in one of the remaining two games and a sudden come-to-life for the Cards could force the National race into a best-of-three playoff.

Yesterday, the A's polished off the New Yorkers, 4-1, while the last place Cubs throttled the Cards, 6-5. The Red Sox helped themselves by drubbing the Washington Senators, 11-9, while the Dodgers had an open date.

Boxer Manager McCarthy is leaving nothing to chance. He's tossing Mel Parnell, his 25-game winner, against the Yanks today.

The harassed Casey Stengel, in his most desperate spot of the season, will send his top winner, Alie Reynolds, to the mound for the Yankees. Joe DiMaggio will rejoin the team and may play.

Up To Dodgers
In the National league race, the Cards realize that the final outcome will hinge on the performance of the Dodgers. Harry Brecheen, 14-game winner, will take the hill for the Cards against Bob Chipman.

Barney Shotton has named Ralph Branca, the big right-hander to work today's game in Shibe park for the Dodgers.

The Senators counted 18 hits in five doubles.

The turn of events at the Yankee stadium was on the same side. The Yanks simply couldn't hit Dick Fowler, whom they sent to the showers in three innings in the opening game of the series.

Aiding and abetting the A's cause were Sam Chapman and Ferris Fain who clouted home runs. They meant everything for Fain's game with two on. Both were off Ed Lopat, Yank starter.

The skidding Cards also help: "I beat themselves, as has often been the case of late. Stan Musial sent a fly ball off the bat of Roy Smalley in the sun, and it fell for a double. That set the stage for two Cubs runs in the third and it made the difference.

Ralph Kiner hit his 54th home run of the season to help the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Kiner needs two more home runs to tie Hack Wilson's National league record of 56, set in 1930.

In the only other game of the day, the Cleveland Indians, behind Bob Feller, moved into a third place tie with Detroit in the American league by dumping the Tigers, 6-4.

Fans Stand In Line For Big Game Opening
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Scores of fans stood an all-night vigil at the bleacher entrance of Yankee stadium.

They were waiting for the 10 a.m. window opening to buy tickets to today's crucial game between the Yankees and Boston Red Sox.

With lunches and pillows, they started lining up in the afternoon. First in line was Ralph J. Belcore, a 35-year-old carnival worker from Chicago.

He said he attended yesterday's game, won by the Philadelphia Athletics 4-1, and then rushed out to take his place at the gate.

Uclans Power To 35-27 Win Over Oregon

Bruins Show Surprising Strength In Downing Favored Webfoot Team

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The jury has reached a verdict. UCLA has got a football team.

They proved it last night in handing ambitious, highly favored Oregon a 35-27 whipping. It put a severe crimp in the Rose bowl hopes of the co-champions of the 1948 Pacific Coast Conference campaign and was Oregon's first conference setback in 14 games over a two-year period.

Next comes Stanford, and later on California and the vaunted Trojans of Southern California. But the Bruins will hit a snag. Maybe they're already done more than expected, and so has their new hero from Vanderbilt, Coach Henry R. (Red) Sanders, in whipping Oregon State, Iowa and last night a fighting but stunned Webfoot squad.

Pile Up Yardage
Hitting the scoreboard for five touchdowns, and bringing their total points in three games to 111 to the enemy's 65, the Bruins belted the Oregonians unmercifully on the ground—310 yards to 38.

Halfback Ernie Johnson was the individual star, accumulating 118 yards running and 56 by air, passing for one touchdown, scoring one himself and steering the Bruins to two more. Sharing honors would be the Bruin blockers, and Fullback Cliff Schroeder.

End Bob Wilkinson and the remainder of the Sandersmen. Woodley Lewis of Oregon uncorked a spectacular 93-yard kickoff return, sprinting straight down the center of the field. And Earl Stelle, Coach Jim Aiken's quarterback replacement for the superb Norman Van Brocklin, kept his team always dangerous with an air attack that netted 136 yards to the Bruin's 89.

UCLAs Score First
UCLA got off to a 7-0 lead. The pesky Webfoots kept shooting at it but they never quite gained the advantage, and a final touchdown in the fourth quarter clinched the contest to the joy of most of the 43,137 rooters. UCLA held a half-time lead of 21-13.

Two Oregon touchdowns in the third quarter would be hard to duplicate. The first was set up on the five-yard line by a deflected Oregon pass that bounced into a surging Webfoot defender. Soon after, another deflection landed in the welcome arms of Darrell Robinson, Webfoot end, who stepped a few yards for the six points.

The UCLA ground attack, centered on Oregon's ends and tackles, plus tremendous blocking, spelled the difference.

Elkton Outclasses Oakland 40 To 20; Glendale Victor
Elkton bounced into the win column in impressive fashion by rolling over an out-classed Oakland team 40 to 20. The Elks defeated their home town fans, after dropping last Friday's opener against a highly-rated Coos River team.

Highlight of the game was Jim Hirschberger's 60-yard kickoff return to a touchdown in the second half.

Glendale turned in the top scoring effort in games reported last night by trouncing Camas Valley 52 to 7.

In running up their total, Glendale took advantage of experience gained in two other games played this season, and were also playing on their home field. This was Camas Valley's first game of the year.

Biggest surprise of the day was Glide's performance in holding down last year's B league champs, Yoncalla, to two touchdowns. Although Yoncalla won the contest 12 to 7, Glide looked like an entirely different team from the one which was beaten by lap-sided scores last year, according to fans who witnessed the contest.

Best Time 7 Seconds In Steer Wrestling
NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Jack Favor of Arlington, Tex., turned in the best time recorded in the specialty this year when he won

BASEBALL STANDINGS

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Team	W	L	Pct.
Brooklyn	66	58	.532
St. Louis	65	57	.532
Philadelphia	72	52	.579
Boston	73	49	.596
New York	73	49	.596
Pittsburgh	70	52	.571
Cincinnati	61	61	.500
Chicago	50	72	.410

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Team	W	L	Pct.
Boston	66	58	.532
New York	66	57	.537
Cleveland	67	55	.552
Detroit	67	55	.552
Philadelphia	60	72	.452
Chicago	62	68	.477
St. Louis	61	69	.468
Washington	48	103	.317

Medford Tornado Continues Strong To Beat Redding

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer
Medford's high-scoring team rolled to its third straight victory last night to emerge definitively as one of Oregon's top contenders for the 1949 state high school football title.

Medford bowled over Redding, Calif., 40-0, capping previous run-away wins over Roseburg and Tillamook.

Keeping pace were such unbeaten untied teams as Hillsboro, McMinnville, Eugene, Astoria and Grant of Portland.

Hillsboro trounced West Linn, 31-6. McMinnville downed Newberg, 20-7. Astoria defeated Milwaukie, 18-6. Grant buried Lincoln of Portland, 27-0. Eugene overcame the always stout Bend, 13-6, in a big six league encounter.

Salem stayed in the big six race with a close 7-6 escape from Albany.

Klamath Falls got a scare from lightly regarded Ashland, but managed to win, 21-18.

National League Football Teams Slated To Clash

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The National football league's two Chicago powers, the Cardinals and Bears, clash at Comiskey park tomorrow in one of the most important games of the young professional season.

The rival All-America conference vies for the day's spotlight with a game at Cleveland between the champion Browns and the Los Angeles Dons.

In the other National league game, the Los Angeles Rams invade Green Bay to play the Packers, who will be under new tutelage for the first time in 28 years. Curly Lambeau only this week gave up the Green Bay coaching reins to his three assistants.

The second All-America game sends the winless Baltimore Colts against Buffalo's Bills at Buffalo.

Two games were played last night, one in each league. In the AAC the San Francisco 49ers won their fourth game in five starts, beating the Chicago Rockets, 2-24.

In the National league, the New York Giants scored their triumph of the season, turning back their Polo ground guests, the New York Bulldogs, 38-14. It was the Bulldog's second straight setback.

the steer wrestling event of the National Rodeo at Madison Square Garden last night in seven seconds flat.

Other winners of the evening included Ross Gullahide, Lakeview, Ore., saddle bronc riding.

WANTED
Used Car Salesman For Outside Calls
Car and Gas furnished while on job.
Pre-War Deal
Must be married man and know Douglas County. Give occupations for the last ten years. We will train you and help close your sales.
Write Box 27
News-Review

College Teams Win Streaks In Jeopardy

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—One of the longest streaks in major college football circles will be in jeopardy and another could be snapped by an upset when the undergraduate grid clubs nudge their way today into the crowded sports picture with important tussles carded all across the land.

Michigan, defending Big Ten champion and mythical national titleholder, carried a record of 24 straight triumphs into its inter-sectional struggle with Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif. The game is rated a toss-up.

Notre Dame goes into its battle with Washington, also in the West, without having tasted defeat in its last 29 games, although the Irish have been tied twice over the span. The Huskies are 14 to 35 point underdogs.

Oregon Beaten
One of the coast powers resurging strongly is UCLA, which won its third straight game of the season last night, beating favored Oregon, 35-27.

Boston College, swamped by Oklahoma last week bounded back to subdue Wake Forest, 13-7, at Boston.

Villanova won its third straight game by beating Detroit, 34-7, and Maryland thrashed Georgetown, 33-7, in other topflight games.

Penn Meets Army
In the East today, Penn State's invasion of Army will share the spotlight with Ivy league encounters sending Dartmouth to Pennsylvania and Harvard to Columbia.

Three big ten games will hold the stage in the midlands. They are Iowa at Purdue, Indiana at Ohio State and Wisconsin at Illinois.

Pittsburgh will be at Northwestern, Minnesota at Nebraska, Marquette at Michigan State and Texas A. & M. at Oklahoma.

The top southern contests send Georgia Tech against Tulane and Georgia against North Carolina.

Texas Christian invades Arkansas in the Southwest conference. Inter-league struggles in Dixie include Duke at Tennessee, Rice at Louisiana State and Missouri at Southern Methodist. Texas plays host to Idaho.

Southern California's Pacific coast favorites entertain Washington State and California, the defending conference champion, meets Oregon State at Portland.

The Conestoga wagon used in the U. S. covered wagon days was 16 feet long and its wheels were as high as a man.

Most of the mica produced in the United States comes from western North Carolina.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA—Les Williams, 128½, Trenton, N. J., outpointed Doug Kilford, New York, 10 (no-title). Lew Jenkins, 128, Sweetwater, Tex., outpointed Eddie Gioia, 130, Philadelphia, 10.
CHICAGO—Beau Jack, 141, Augusta, Ga., outpointed Live Minelli, 147, Bergamo, Italy, 10.
HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Art Aragon, 124½, Los Angeles, outpointed John L. BELFAST, Ireland—Rinky Monaghan, 111, Belfast, and Terry Allen, 111½, London, drew 10. Monaghan retains title, MELBOURNE, Australia—Harold Dada, 127, Chicago, outpointed Frank Flannery, 128½, Melbourne, 12.
CALGARY, Alta.—Buddy Washington, 132, Pocatello, Idaho, knocked out Benny Chavez, 135, San Jose, Calif., 1.

Sacramento's Holcombe Bought By White Sox

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox have announced the purchase of Kenneth Holcombe, 31-year-old right handed pitcher from Sacramento of the Pacific Coast league.

Holcombe won 19 and lost 10 this season, winning nine straight during one span.

FISHERMEN I

You can now get boats and motors at Burton Farm, 3 miles below Scottsburg on the Umpqua River Highway.

DUCKETSTS

FLY THE NEW MOONEY M15L
TAKES OFF IN 25'! LANDS IN 25'!
CRUISES AT 110 M.P.H.
QUICK DELIVERY Buy on Easy Terms
SEE IT - FLY IT - NOW!
GREEN FLYING SERVICE
ROSEBURG AIRPORT

Suit Yourself at Joe Richards