

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gleason

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gleason, who were married at Fox Lake, Wis., Sept. 14, 1889, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a mock wedding held at the Sutherland Grange hall Sept. 14.

Leaving Fox Lake in 1912, the Gleasons were among the first citizens to reside in the newly chartered town and namesake of Sutherland Valley.

The anniversary open-house was held at the Gleason residence on highway 225 near Duke Road, on Sept. 11, with many relatives and friends calling with lovely gifts and congratulatory wishes.

The serving table was beautiful with a centerpiece of rose-colored gladioli, flanked by gold tapers in crystal holders, silver coffee and tea services and a decorated three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Leonard Swift of Roseburg had charge of the table and serving arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Gleason cut the first piece of the cake which was served by Mrs. Joel A. Gleason of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Lilly Heald of Omak, Wash. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Roy Nicolson, Mrs. Marvin Lewis, Mrs. Annabel Leisinger, Mrs. Phreda Wahl, Mrs. Maude Moore Mrs. Ida Have, Mrs. Fred Brauning, Mrs. May Montgomery, Mrs. Hallie Martin and Mrs. Walter Woodrow of Endeavor, Wis.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Robert Gleason and Mrs. La Verne Strand both of Cottage Grove. The guest book was in charge of Miss Barbara Gleason of Cottage Grove, Miss Barbara Brauning, Mrs. R. W. Rodgers of Roseburg, Mrs. P. A. Comstock, Mrs. W. P. Graham, Mrs. Orville French and Mrs. Ted Buck poured.

Musical numbers and vocal solos were presented during the reception hours.

Members of the family attending were a daughter and two sons: Mrs. Nellie Swift, Rose-

MRS. LESTER READ TO BE GUEST SPEAKER AT WOMAN'S CLUB TUESDAY

The first fall meeting and guest-day affair of the Roseburg Woman's club will be held Tuesday, October 4, at the Methodist church parlors with Mrs. Lester Read of Eugene as the guest speaker on the subject, "Gardening as a hobby."

Mrs. Read was formerly on the administrative staff at University of Oregon. She has gardened as a hobby for 24 years and has been a licensed nurseryman. She is a member of the Oregon Association of Nurserymen, Eugene Chrysanthemum society, Eugene Garden club, where she is chairman of the herb group, and has been active many years on flower show committees. Her hobby has grown into a fine small business and she specializes in the growing of fine chrysanthemums. Her husband is a railroad man. She has two sons, one of whom is a senior in high school in Eugene. She works in the P.T.A., belongs to several lodges and takes part in numerous civic enterprises.

She recently made a commercial exhibit for a five-day county fair. Mrs. J. M. Boyles, new president of the Woman's club, reports that whether all women care to garden or not, they are one hundred percent in favor of beautifying their homes and gardens, especially fortunate in securing Mrs. Read as the guest speaker for this first fall meeting.

Mrs. Earl Plummer, music chairman, will present Mrs. W. Sherman Plimpton, talented pianist, as guest artist on the program. Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. James Joyce and Mrs. Earl Belle will be chairmen of the hostess committee, assisted by officers and directors of the club. Tea will be served at the close of the program. Yearbooks will be distributed and dues are payable at this meeting. All members are urged to attend and are asked to bring guests.

D. A. V. AUXILIARY HAS INTERESTING MEETING MONDAY

D. A. V. auxiliary, Dean Perrin, unit No. 9, met Monday evening at the Del Rey cafe with Commander Wulf, presiding. It was voted to give $5 to the polio emergency fund. Plans were discussed for a rummage sale to be held at the Ruppelgar parish hall on East Cass street, Saturday, Oct. 8. Members and friends having donations are asked to bring them to the parish hall Friday night or telephone Mrs. Wulf at the Del Rey cafe. A social hour followed the meeting.

The next meeting will be Monday, October 10, in the evening at the Del Rey at Winchester. The Commander requests all members to be present. Refreshments will be served.

PATCH AND CHAT CLUB MEETS AT FINDLAY HOME THURSDAY EVENING

Asters and other fall flowers formed the attractive decorations used by Mrs. Thomas Findlay Thursday evening, when she entertained the Patch and Chat club at her home on the Keassey road. Mrs. Ruby Blood was a guest and members enjoying the evening with Mrs. Findlay were: Mrs. D. W. Keasey, Mrs. C. J. Bradley, Mrs. E. G. Trozelle, Mrs. Verrell, Mrs. Darley Ware, Mrs. Gordon Ware, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. C. R. Bartlett, Mrs. N. Boor and Mrs. Curtis Calkins.

Following the social hour Mrs. Findlay, assisted by Mrs. Bartlett, served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be the evening of October 13 at the home of Mrs. D. W. Keasey.

MISS PRINCEN IS HOSTESS TO SUNSHINE CLUB ON THURSDAY

The Northside Sunshine club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Bernadine Princen at her home on Chadwick street. Mrs. W. O. Patterson, president, conducted the business session and $5 was voted to be given to the polio emergency fund.

Games were played with Mrs. George Frew winning the prize. At the tea hour, Miss Princen, assisted by her mother, served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. Elvira Recla, Mrs. William Stegiva, Mrs. Lucia Ingles, Mrs. W. O. Patterson, Mrs. M. Sory, Mrs. George Frew and Mrs. Phil Hart. The place of the October 13th meeting will be announced later.

SUTHERLIN LADY LIONS IMPRESSIVE CHARTER AT RESUME AFFAIR

Sutherland's Lady Lions Thursday night were presented their charter by State President Dorothy Kuratli during an impressive candlelight ceremony conducted by the Roseburg Lady Lions.

Approximately 80 Sutherland and Roseburg Lions and Lady Lions were in attendance for the charter presentation night held in the Sutherland Grange hall.

Introduced were the first group of officers, including Mrs. Earl Thatcher, president; Mrs. Goose Marden, vice-president; Mrs. Al Stanley, secretary; Mrs. Frieda Pfander, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Crowell and Mrs. Ralph Thrift, directors and Mrs. Connie Smith, Lion trainer.

Mrs. Phil Harth, Roseburg, serving as toastmistress, introduced the following: State President Dorothy Kuratli and State Secretary John Bowman, both of Hillsboro; Past State President Mrs. Moteschenbacher and Mrs. Moteschenbacher; Past State Secretary Mrs. Don Hellwiel and Mr. Hellwiel; Forrest Losee, District Governor of 36E, and Mrs. Losee.

Also introduced were the Roseburg Lady Lions officers and their husbands.

The welcome was given by the Sutherland Lady Lions president, Mrs. Thatcher, and the response by Mrs. Buckley Bell, Roseburg Lady Lions president.

Remarks were given by Mrs. Kuratli, Mrs. Losee, Sutherland Lions President Bill Crowell and Roseburg Lions President Dr. James E. Campbell.

Mrs. Moteschenbacher conducted the installation ceremony. Each of the new officers, as well as the visiting state and Roseburg lady officers, were presented flame corsages.

The candlelight installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Losee, with Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Bruce Elliott acting. The charter was presented to Mrs. Thatcher by Mrs. Kuratli, and it was signed by each of the charter members.

Mrs. Kuratli said this was the first club chartered since she took office. She announced she was going on to Ashland to conduct a charter night service for the new Lady Lions of Talent.

All plans were provided the new members by the Sutherland Lions club. Mrs. Bell, on behalf of the Roseburg Lady Lions, presented Mrs. Thatcher a gavel.

Purple and gold colors were carried out in the table and room decorations. Autumn leaves and fall flowers were also used. On the decorations committee were Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Juanita Holgate, Mrs. Connie Smith and Mrs. Lockie Thompson.

KRDID DIAL-LOG

Looking forward to a disenchanted evening of staying at home? Take courage when we tell you that the fine entertainment is to be had on your radio—beginning at six with "Quick as a Flash"—when Staats Cotsworth, radio's "Casey, Crime Photographer" is guest-detective during the show's mystery quiz. At 7, we've scheduled an hour-long comedy-hit, "Three Men on a Horse," by John C. Holm and George Abbott. The story involves a Milquetoast character who picks winning horses as a hobby and ends up with every body plugging him. Tune in the "Happy Valley Cowboys" at 8... "Lombardo Land USA" at 8:30... and the "Wrestling Parade" direct from the Roseburg army, beginning at 9:30.

SUNDAY LINEUP: Mystery-mystery-mystery—beginning with "The House of Mystery" at one p. m., when "The Book of the Dead" titles the spook-hunting session. At 1:30, a hypnotist, two murders and an entranced girl background the "Martin Kane" adventure. "True Detective Mysteries" will relate the story of the Chicago Cowboy at 2:30... and at 3:30 "Nick Carter" tackles the "Case of the Obsolete Broker."

The Sunday "Secret Missions" broadcast at six p. m., will be a repeat of a "Secret Missions" broadcast aired last December 12, in which confidential informant Ellis M. Zacharias revealed that he had notified information that the Russians had detonated an atomic bomb behind the iron curtain. In view of the announcement by President Truman last week regarding the detonation of an atomic bomb by the Russians, Admiral Zacharias has decided to repeat last year's broadcast which contained the date of explosion, the scientists involved and the names of high-placed Russian officials who witnessed the event. (Sunday: 6 to 6:30 p. m.)

Mel Parnell, pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, visits "Twenty Questions" at 8 Sunday night... followed by Walter Winchell at 8:30, and Hollywood news-shots provided by columnist Louella Parsons at 8:45.

FRED J. CORNELL CELEBRATES EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY AT DINNER

Fred J. Cornell celebrated his eightieth birthday at a most enjoyable dinner party arranged by his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bowman, at his home on South Main street Saturday evening. Fall flowers and a birthday cake decorated the table. Birthday gifts were presented to Mr. Cornell.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cornell, their son, Carl Cornell; Mrs. Ada Cox of Pontiac, Mich.; Mrs. Louise Napier, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Cluck and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowman.

Mr. Cornell enjoys excellent health and states he is looking forward to many more birthdays. During the evening Mrs. Cox showed motion picture films she had taken.

CLUB MEMBERS SURPRISE MRS. E. E. LYDA JR. WITH GALLOPING BREAKFAST

Members of the newly organized Lady Daisy Sewing club surprised Mrs. E. E. Lyda Jr. with a galloping breakfast, when they called at her attractive home on Sunset Lane Tuesday morning at eight-thirty o'clock.

The fun of these galloping parties is that they are gotten up on the spur of the moment and the guests go in housecoats and house dresses. The person they call on serves the breakfast and is not allowed to serve anything that is not already in the home.

Surprising Mrs. Lyda were Mrs. A. F. Mitchell, Mrs. Leo Wilkerson, Mrs. Floyd Otterson, Mrs. L. W. Pittam, Mrs. Monty Glover and Mrs. M. C. Smith.
