Tucker Corp. Deprived Of Plant As Officials Go To Trial For Fraud

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Trustees of Tucker corporation Tuesday gave up the firm's lease on the huge $171,000,000 surplus former Dodge-Chrysler plant here.

An order returning the vast plant to the War Assets administration was signed by federal district Judge Michael L. Igoe.

The action was one of three major developments affecting the ill-starred firm which was organized in 1946 to produce rear-engine automobiles, but never got going.

In another courtroom in the same building where the order giving the plant back to the Government was signed, eight present and former Tucker officials, including President Preston Tucker, went on trial charged with mail fraud and security act violations.

The third development was submission to Trustees John Chazy and Aaron Condon of the First Comprehensive Reorganization plan advanced since the firm bogged down last spring.

The plan, advanced by a group of stockholders, would raise $20,000,000 by a new stock issue and sale of existing assets, and call upon the Reconstruction Finance corporation for a $20,000,000 loan "to be used only in the process of manufacturing automobiles."

Mesopotamia is a name applied to Iraq, the areas between the Euphrates and the Tigris rivers.
