... a "STEAL"

RCA-VICTOR "Globetrotter" . . .

... and we mean just that!

Somebody knew what a wonderful set this is . . . how it plays anywhere, any time. Wonder if he knew its satin finish is anodized aluminum—ideal for rough country, since it's completely weatherized and doesn't give a hoot whether it rains, hails, sleet or snows. (Just the thing for hunters!) Or maybe he's lazy . . . and knew about its marvelous "finger tip" tuning controls . . . so easy they don't even have to be seen. One thing sure he knows . . . it's portable . . . and mighty easily carried!

Anyway, somebody just couldn't keep his hands off it . . . and the salesman from whom it was stolen is so broken-hearted over its loss, he's offering its retail value (57.75) applied to the price of any RCA-Victor set to anyone who can supply information leading to its recovery! So again we say, it's ideal for hunters.

Serial number of the missing set B-120400.

STEEL STRIKE BEGINS—Tim Flynn (right), C. I. O. regional director, gives last-minute instructions to picket captains before they struck the South San Francisco plant of Bethlehem Steel. Basis of the nation-wide strike is the steelworkers' demand for company allotments to meet pension and medical insurance costs. The strike will idle 514,000 employees in the industry.

Loop-Hole In Wet Statute Breeding "Bottle Clubs"

SEATTLE, Oct. 5. — (AP) — The Seattle Times reported today that a new crop of "bottle clubs" — apparently made possible by a loop-hole in the liquor-by-the-drink initiative — have sprung up throughout the state during past weeks.

The Times quoted law enforcement officers as saying that one of the main purposes of the clubs is to qualify legally for the operation of slot machines, except in Seattle where the machines are banned.

A "bottle club" is a place where a customer gives his own bottle of liquor to the bartender who mixes his drinks for a service charge.

Clubs of this type opened in some parts of the state several years ago, but were put out of business by prosecution under the state liquor control act.

Law enforcement officers here said that that section of the state law was repealed with the adoption of initiative 171 by the voters last November.

Evro M. Becket, chairman of the Washington State Liquor Control board, said that the "bottle clubs" do not require licenses from the board, and are not covered by existing laws.

Prosecutor Charles O. Carroll was quoted by the Times as saying: "I've been out and looked around some of the clubs and they are really running wide open. It doesn't take much to become a member of one of them—and in one there are from 20 to 30 slot machines running."

Auto Accident Death Settles Suit Over Child

SALEM, Oct. 5. — (AP) — The State Supreme court Tuesday dismissed a suit for custody of a child after the mother was killed in an auto accident.

The suit, brought in Linn county, was by Mrs. Maxine Mignot against her husband, Ernest Mignot.

In the lower court, Circuit Judge Victor Oliver gave the child to her mother, and the father appealed.

The Supreme Court heard the appeal September 6, but only a week before that, Mrs. Mignot was killed. So now the father gets the child.

MOON'S ECLIPSE DUE

PORTLAND, Oct. 5. — (AP) — Thursday's eclipse of the moon will be visible here, the weather bureau reported today in its forecast of clear skies.

Robert E. Millard, local astronomer, said the moon would be in partial eclipse at its rise at 5:23 p. m. Thursday, and would be in full eclipse from 6:20 to 7:33 p. m.

KDND DIAL-LOG

The Kaydetts take a stroll down the street as they vocalize in "Ain't She Sweet" on the "Sammy Kaye Showroom" tonight at 7:15. Other numbers to be heard are Tony Alamo in "Lucky Old Sun," Chubby Silvers in the "Hucklebuck," the Kaydetts in "Dime a Dozen," and Laura Leslie with Don Cornell in "Snuggle on My Shoulder." At 7:30, "The Cisco Kid" runs into a town composed of a deadly group of cattle rustlers, horse-thieves and murderers, in the episode titled "Devil Town." Tune in Bill Gwinn on "What's the Name of that Song?" at eight . . . and "John Steele, Adventurer" at ten.

The 1949 WORLD SERIES got under way on KRRR this morning in the first most exciting and biggest pitch of the year. 'Twas all very thrilling of course, but we must remind you of a few program changes which are necessary during the "World Series" broadcasts. "The Alka Seltzer Newspaper of the Air" will be heard at 9:30 a. m. . . "Man About Town," "Shopper's Guide," "Say It With Music," and "Ladies First" will immediately follow each game. "Art Baker's Notebook" has been rescheduled this week only in the 3 to 3:15 time period.

It was "Goodnight . . . goodnight . . . parting is such sweet sorrow" when our new manager and former chief engineer Roy Hiatt said "goodbye" to the transmitter and wires and gadgets and things in the KRRR control-room. Roy Hiatt has served as chief engineer for KRRR since 1943 . . . and "it ain't easy" to say goodbye to that end of the radio business—even though you're given top-kick placement as manager of the place. Engineer Ralph Smith, by the way, (from Los Angeles) is KRRR's new Chief Engineer.

Reds' Extortion Of Confessions Rapped By Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 5. — (AP) — Premier Marshal Tito has accused Soviet Russia of using "some monstrous method" to force confessions from political prisoners.

Tito spoke before a group of 600 army officers and guests. The premier's reference to Russian prosecution methods came in connection with the trial in Budapest of Laszlo Rajk, former Hungarian foreign minister, who was accused of plotting with Yugoslavia for the overthrow of Hungary's Communist government. Rajk and all seven co-defendants admitted all the government's charges. He and two others were sentenced to be hanged.

Tito and his government charged from the start the trial was engineered by Russia as part of her propaganda warfare against Yugoslavia, and that Russia was responsible for handling of the case.

The premier told his auditors: "You saw everything went as it should at the trial. I do not know how one gets people to accuse themselves as much as possible, but it is certain there is some monstrous method."

Alaska-Canada Railway Link Plan Goes Forward

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — (AP) — A move to link the Alaskan railroad with the U. S.-Canadian railway systems moved another step forward in congress Tuesday.

The Senate Foreign relations committee approved a resolution authorizing the President to seek an agreement with Canada for the survey looking to the connection. The resolution already has House approval.

This would call for engineers to survey a route across 1,400 miles of wild north country. The major length would be a standard gauge railroad between Prince George, British Columbia, Canada and Fairbanks, Alaska.

U. S. Stands Pat On Defense Plans, Johnson Declares

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — (AP) — Secretary of Defense Johnson told lawmakers Tuesday the U.S. military chiefs are standing pat on their defense plans despite Russia's atomic explosion.

He discussed the military situation with members of the Senate and House Appropriations committee but made no request for more money.

Later, Johnson told reporters: "This is a great tribute to the Joint Chiefs of Staff that we don't have to ask for any more funds." He said he still favors the 48 group Air Force approved by the Senate rather than the 58 group force voted by the House.

One committee member said Johnson quickly corrected senators who spoke of Russia having the atomic bomb. Johnson insisted, he said, that there was an atomic explosion in Russia—but no evidence that Russia has begun developing atomic weapons.
