SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—(P) is your cat listless, grouchy, bored with life? If so, you might try on your kitty the diet Daniel A. Sattler feeds his pet. Sattler's c joined his family as a kitten. That was 20 years ago. And she has amazed the family by remaining frisky despite her old age.

The venerable feline, a centenarian by human standards, "never comes into the house," Sattler says. "She's restless, almost wild. Spends most of her time roaming the neighborhood looking for excitement," Sattler thinks maybe the rugged diet she gets might explain her spryness and longevity. He feeds her regularly; raw beef, raw fish, raw liver, cottage cheese and occasionally floats an egg or two in her milk bowl.

For a simple fall supper, try
this easy on the budget and easy
to make dish—quick hamwiches.
A prepared biscult mix plus Dijon-style mustard makes for a filling meal. Hamwiches go well with practically any side dish or vegetable. They are very good with a simple French dressing.

Beat 1 minute. Stir in rolled oats,
chocolate pieces and Brazil nuts.
Dron by teaspoonfuls on baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes.

(Serves 6)
Two cups prepared biscuit mix,
1.2 cup milk, 6 slices boiled ham,
Dijon-style mustard.
Mix biscuit mix and milk, Roll

One and three-quarters cups sifted all-purpose flour, i teaspoon baking powder, i teaspoon salt, i cup fat, 3/4 cup sugar, i cup ground Brazil nuts, 2 eggs, well beaten, 3/4 teaspoon vanilla. inch thick. Cut into 12 pie-shaped pieces. Cut ham slices in half diagonally to form two wedges. Place slice of ham on wedge of dough. Spread ham thinly with mustard. Roll, starting at wide end and press tip firmly to fasten. Place on greased pan with tip on bottom. Bake 20 minutes in 425 degrees F. oven. Note: These may be served with mushroom sauce if desired. Tiny "hamwiches" make unusual hot hors decuyes. Sift together flour, baking pow-der and salt. Cream fat. Gradual-ly add sugar; cream until lig t hors d'oeuvres

Bullets Continue To Fly In Feud In Tennessee Town

DAISY, Tenn., Oct. 4— (A)—
Two more houses, a restaurant
and an automobile were raked
by bullets Monday as tension growing out of family feuds continued its hold over this mountain town.
One house was peppered for the second time since Saturday.

the second time since Saturday, morning. Three others have re-ceived one volley each since Sa-ceived one volley each since Saturday.

No injuries have been reported in the latest outbreak of the feud, which in the past has been blamed for two deaths and numerous bullet wounds.

The slayings took place last year. The last of several court trials growing out of the feud ended last week with no convictions. Violence was at a stand-still during the trial, which has been pending since the slaying of restaurant operator George Tursley last November.

Court testimony given during the trials indicated that the feud started over the making of mountain whisky.
