

Yugoslavia Ready To Defend Itself To Last Breath, Tito Warns Russia In Address

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Premier Maršal Tito, accusing Russia of trying to "endanger a small people," has bluntly warned that Yugoslavia is ready to defend itself to the last breath.

In one of his toughest speeches since Yugoslavia's feud with the Soviet bloc began, Tito told his army officers that Russia "has been forging its irons" against its one-time Communist partner. Unmistakably aiming at Russia, Tito said in a speech made public last night:

"No one has the right, regardless of who he may be, to endanger a small people."

"We are prepared," the Yugoslav chief added, "to defend this country to the last breath, regardless of when the attack comes."

"It pays to live," he added, "but it pays to die as one should."

Tito spoke at the conclusion of Yugoslavia's biggest troop maneuvers this year. Obviously pleased with the showing his soldiers had made, he said he was convinced of the army's ability to defend Yugoslavia.

Then, swinging into an attack on his Cominform neighbors, Tito declared Russia and its satellites "find themselves in a corner" unable to justify their attacks on Yugoslavia.

"Where the Soviet union is in the right," he asserted, "we shall go along with it. If it is not in the right and if its stand is a hypocritical one, we will call that by its right name."

Tito referred to his charges of a week ago that Russia and her followers are "rattling their arms" around Yugoslavia's borders, part of Russia's pressure campaign to oust Tito and his top lieutenants.

As part of this campaign Cominform countries have closed in with virtually complete economic sanctions and have begun to apply diplomatic pressure as well.

Politics Played To Bring About Peace In Balkans

By The Associated Press

Big power politics are being played in the United Nations, frankly and openly, to get peace in the Balkans.

A special peace making group headed by Assembly President Romulo has held its first meetings—in secret and separately—with representatives of the Big Three—Russia, the United States and Britain.

The group, which includes Secretary-general Trygve Lie, Lester Pearson of Canada and Selim Sarper of Turkey, has until October 17 to make good in its mission to end the bitter feuds between Greece and her Balkan neighbors.

Around here they are saying "if Romulo can get the United States and Russia to agree, he'll win his Balkan peace. The others will fall into line."

It was probable that the Big Three might discuss the problem together after Romulo has talked with the Albanians, Yugoslavs

Fleeing Jail Or Cop Now Against Law In Denver

DENVER, Oct. 6.—(AP)—It is against the law now to break out of jail or run from the custody of a policeman in Denver.

Until Monday night there was no punishment for breaking away from officers. City council adopted an ordinance providing a penalty of 90 days in jail and a $300 fine or both for the offense.

and Bulgarians Friday. He talked with the Greek delegate yesterday.

Romulo talked separately yesterday with Ben Cohen, the old Roosevelt brain-truster who is a wheelhorse in the State department, with Hector McNeil, veteran British negotiator, and Alexander S. Panyushkin, the Soviet ambassador to the United States.

Panyushkin said afterward he had been presented with proposals.

Two Arraigned At Pendleton On Shooting Charges

PENDLETON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Ralph E. Ayres, 29, and Henry Earl Kaufman, 32, both of Pendleton were charged with assault while armed with a dangerous weapon, following a shooting on Emigrant hill between 3 and 4 a.m. Wednesday in which Ella Baker, 31, La Grande was shot in the left hip.

Ayres and Kaufman were arraigned in Pendleton Justice of Peace Court. Ayres' bail was set at $2,000 and Kaufman was released on his own recognizance.

Ayres and Kaufman appeared voluntarily at the city police station about a half-hour after the shooting was reported by a La Grande group, consisting of Verma Welton, 27; Thomas L. Robbs, 28, and Donovan P. Beale, 32, in addition to Mrs. Baker.

Deputy District Attorney George H. Corey reported that Beale's story of the occurrence was substantially as follows:

That the four La Granders were accosted by Kaufman short-

Czechs Cut Pact With Yugoslavia

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's Communist government scrapped its friendship pact with Yugoslavia today and demanded that the Yugoslav ambassador to Prague be recalled immediately.

There was no immediate indication that the demand for the recall of Yugoslav Ambassador Stilianovic meant a final break in steadily worsening diplomatic relations between the two countries.

The announcement, read over Prague radio, said the Czech government considered the ambassador's presence in Prague as undesirable, accusing his embassy staff of including spies linked with an unnamed western power.

Previously Russia, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria and Romania had denounced their friendship and mutual aid treaties with Tito but they had stopped short of breaking diplomatic ties.

Compromise On Interior Dept. Money Reached

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—A compromise on Interior department appropriations was agreed upon Wednesday by a committee of senators and representatives.

Conference committee clerks were unable to say at once how much money was agreed upon. The House had voted $536,461,908 for the fiscal year ending next June 30. The Senate upped the amount to $595,262,257.

The compromise is subject to House and Senate acceptance.

The committee refused to tie strings on grants allowed for several disputed public power transmission lines.

An effort had been made to write language into the bill to prevent use of funds for construction of these lines until it was determined whether private utilities would build them and carry government power at satisfactory rates.

In general, the committee accepted increases in funds for reclamation projects over the amounts allowed by the House. Committee recommendations for reclamation projects included:

Deschutes, Ore., $1,313,750; Klamath, Ore.-Calif., $803,460; Yakima, Wash., Roza division, $397,833; Hungry Horse, Mont., $22,093,125; Columbia Basin, Wash., $88,000,000.

Funds for Alaskan Reclamation investigations were fixed at $200,000.

It approved $30,284,500 for the Bonneville Power administration along with $16,239,500 contractual authority.

Silver Salmon Fishing Good On Umpqua River

Silver salmon fishing on the Umpqua river has been good from the forks on down the river, said Ross Newcomb, resident biologist for the State Game commission.

The winter angling season for the Umpqua permits fishing below the narrows at Rock Creek hole in the North Umpqua, below Jackson creek in the South Umpqua, below the highway 99 crossing in both the Chispooia and Elk creeks, in Mill creek, and in tide-water, as well as in the main Umpqua below the forks.

All other waters not mentioned are closed to all angling, said Newcomb.

The bag limit is two fish over 12 inches in length a day, but not more than four such fish in any seven consecutive days.

Newcomb requested that any trout tags not yet returned be sent to him in care of Game Commission, Roseburg, Ore.
