

Manslaughter Statute For Careless Hunters Urged By F. C. Losee At Toastmasters

(See Picture, Page 8)

Laws to license the users of hunting rifles and to bring deer season killers under the manslaughter statutes were demanded by Forrest C. Losee, in a speech at the Roseburg Toastmasters club Tuesday.

Entitling his speech "The Killing Season," Losee said there are 200,000 hunters in the woods. With the season one-quarter over, there have been six deer season deaths.

"This is a serious situation," he said, "and so uncalculated for." Losee said he has been a hunter "a good many years," and that he knows "something about firearms, something about hunting, something about the woods." He declared that "it's a crime—it's not so on our statutes—but it's a crime nevertheless—to mistake a man for a deer and shoot him."

Losee said persons who use rifles ought to be licensed and to take an examination on the use and care of a rifle, similar to automobile drivers license tests. He said he also believed that deer season killings should be considered as manslaughter.

Other speakers at the Toastmasters meeting included Herman Matsoff, with the topic "Home on the Range," in which he explained the difference between a cook and a chef, and told of man's prowess in the kitchen; Ross Newcomb, who told of the loss of fish life in South Twin lake by importation of live bait ("chubs") in a speech entitled, "Robbed by Good Intentions," and Phil Harth, who described the goals a speaker should achieve in talking before a group.

Toastmaster of the evening was Bob Harvie. Evaluator was Delbert Parker and critics were Mrs. Dallen Jones, Jim Turk,

Parolee Kidnaps Insurance Head

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(AP)—An insurance executive here had a bullet hole in an overcoat sleeve to remind him today of a forced ride to Salem with a federal correction school parolee.

State police held Gordon S. Beck, 18, in the gunpoint abduction of R. M. Dooly, president of Dooly & Company. Beck was captured by state police after he damaged the car and fled near their headquarters at Milwaukie. Dooly was reluctant to talk, but police told this story:

Beck, who admitted being released a few weeks ago from the Federal Correction Institution at Littleton, Colo., had hummed around Portland a few days. Some time Tuesday he hid under a furniture department bed in the Meier & Frank store. After closing hours he stole a revolver and shells and broke out of the store. Later Beck accosted Dooly at his residence garage and forced him to enter Dooly's car and drive to Salem. Beck shoved Dooly out of the car at the state capital early yesterday and then turned the car back toward Portland. Near Milwaukie he hit another car and hid nearby where police found him.

Bridges Says He's Settled Strike

HONOLULU, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union, declared today he had negotiated a settlement of the 159-day-old Hawaiian dock strike, but there was no immediate confirmation from employers.

Bridges said he had negotiated for a 14-cent hourly wage increase now, plus a 7-cent increase next March.

The 2,000 ILWU CIO longshoremen in the territory struck May 1, demanding a 32-cent raise from their old $1.40 wage.

Early Peace in Steel Strike Not in Sight contract demands was announced last night by Murray, president of the Steelworkers.

Kaiser did what big steel refuses to do. It signed an agreement to give four cents per man-hour for insurance and six cents an hour for pensions paid completely by the company. The plan is retroactive to Oct. 1. Thirty-five hundred employees at its Fontana, Calif., plant will benefit. Their contract was due to expire October 15.

The Kaiser agreement, which follows the exact recommendations of the presidential fact finding board, is the first reached since the strike began. And the west coast firm is the second big steel producer to accede to the union's demands.

Other Firms Agree
Pittsburgh (Ohio) Steel, with 4,000 employees, signed before the strike deadline six days ago.

Standard Steel Works of Birmingham, Pa., a division of the Baldwin Locomotive works, also agreed to a pension and insurance program before the strike began.

Lewis met with southern operators at Bluefield, W. Va., yesterday following a session with northern and western operators at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

UMW officials were cool to the government's mediation efforts. UMW Vice-President Thomas Kennedy commented the Mediation service hasn't been very successful. He indicated negotiations—without help of the government—would continue even if the union sends representatives to Friday's meeting.

Pensions Boost Win Approval Of House per cent in 1960; 3 per cent in 1965; and to 31 per cent on each in 1970.

The tax would be collected on the first $3,600 of a person's income. It is now taken on the first $3,000. The tax will go up automatically to 14 per cent in 1950, under present law.

Stamp Book Use Likely
Among new groups wrapped into the program are self-employed persons, domestic servants and employees of state and local governments. This might mean the institution of a stamp book plan for 750,000 servants and their housewife employers, to collect the security tax.

The smashing house vote was a partial victory for a major point in what President Truman calls his "fair deal" program.

Before the House passed the bill it rejected, 232 to 113, a republican substitute measure for slower payroll tax increases.

President Truman asked congress to put 20,000,000 more persons under old age insurance. But the bill does not include millions of farm operators and farm hands. Some of its sponsors said farmers did not appear especially anxious to get in.

Moon Eclipse Tonight Will Not Be Very Plain

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(AP)—There'll be an eclipse of the moon tonight, but the weatherman thinks hardly anybody will see it.

He explained that clouds and showers will probably eclipse the moon all the time. An off chance exists that the skies might clear for long enough to witness a few minutes of the manifestation.

The eclipse will start at 6:19 p.m. and end about 7:33 p.m. The approach of winter continued in Oregon today. The forecast was for rain in lower levels, and snow in the mountains.

Irishman To Lead March Of Jewish War Vets

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Oct. 6.—(AP)—An Irishman, Thomas J. Kelly, today was appointed honorary grand marshal of the parade to be staged at the National Convention of Jewish War Veterans on Oct. 30.

Last spring, the huge St. Patrick's Day parade here was led by Marcie Liberman, a Jew, at that time Miami Beach mayor.

State CIO Convention Opens Friday At Bend

BEND, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The executive board of the Oregon CIO council convened today to prepare for the two-day state convention meeting here Friday and Saturday.

Neil Griffin, presiding officer of the board, said about 200 delegates were due tomorrow. They will represent 68 affiliated unions and eight boards and councils.

Arms Aid Money OK'd By Truman

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—(AP)—President Truman today signed the $1,314,010,000 Arms Aid bill, calling it "a notable contribution to the collective security of the free nations of the world."

The legislation authorizes American arms for 14 countries in Western Europe, the Middle East and the Far Pacific to help them resist communism.

In a statement at the signing ceremony at the White House, Mr. Truman said:

"This act is necessary only because of the unsettled conditions of the world today which we, in concert with many other nations, are striving to overcome."

"It is my belief that we shall be successful in these efforts to achieve international understanding and to establish, in accordance with our national policy, effective international control and reduction of armaments, through the United Nations."

Eight of the countries authorized to get American weapons and military supplies are European partners in the North Atlantic pact, whose defense committee last night set up machinery to draft strategy for any future attack.

Escaped Convict Surrenders Self

SALEM, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Escaped convict William John Perkins surrendered himself last night at his parents' home near Silverton after two weeks of hiding in Marion County brushlands.

"I was too cool and hungry," the Linn county rapist said when state police and a state prison deputy warden clapped handcuffs on his wrists. Perkins had telephoned authorities to come and get him.

The 24-year-old convict broke out of the prison Sept. 22 with two other men. The others, Earl Rallsback, 19, and Leo Williams, 21, were captured earlier. Perkins said they broke up soon after fleeing under the walls through a dry flume.

Perkins, under two 20-year sentences for the sadistic torture and rape of a number of girls and young women, said he had lived mostly on apples since the escape. He said he had never left Marion county, hiding in brush and timber around Silverton and Aumsville.

Navy "Leak" Culprit Draws Suspension

Office of the Inspector General will make an investigation and recommend action to the navy high command, Rear Admiral H. R. McCann is inspector general.

If the inspector general's office finds that Crommelin has violated navy regulations it could recommend court-martial.

Only last night, Crommelin had acknowledged that it was he who "leaked" to the press on Monday the correspondence in which three admirals noted concern about navy morale under the existing defense set-up.

The 46-year-old captain noted in a statement that it was a violation of regulations but said that he acted for what he believed to be the good of his country.

Crommelin told reporters he did not know what the navy department would do about it but that he was ready to take the consequences.

On Capitol hill, one result of Crommelin's action was to spur a congressional airing of deep-seated differences, particularly between the navy and the air force, over military policy. The House Armed Services committee ordered it.
