

Indians Face Reedsport 11 Here Tonight

Roseburg Squad Loses Tackle Glenn Scofield, Out With Broken Ankle

The Roseburg Indians tapered off with light drill last night in preparation for their second home appearance tonight against an upset-minded band of Reedsport Braves.

Roseburg's Finlay field will be the scene of the gridiron battle, with kick-off time set at 8 p. m.

An on-again, off-again Roseburg line will be without the services of big Glenn Scofield, veteran tackle, who was carried from the practice field Wednesday with a broken ankle.

Scofield, a senior this year, will be lost to the squad for the remainder of the season. His absence will leave a big hole in the tackle spots, with only two tackles remaining, Don Parr and Chet Rowe.

Although Reedsport figures to be a weaker team, according to this season's record, Indian Coach Ceece Sherwood is not anticipating an easy victory. New offensive twists to Roseburg's regular T-formation have been devised during practice this week. The new plays add to the repertoire Sherwood will draw from for a game which promises to be played on a very wet field.

Tentative starting lineups:

Dodgers' Reported Sale Of Robinson Is Denied

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Both Brooklyn and Boston baseball officials stoutly denied today a report that Jackie Robinson, the Dodgers' stellar second baseman, had been sold to the Braves for a wad of cash and talent.

The Washington Times Herald, in a dispatch from New York, reported it had learned Robinson would go to the Braves for $250,000 and two unnamed players.

The official announcement of the deal is being held up until after the world series, the paper added.

The most heated denial came from Billy Sullivan, director of the Boston team's public relations. "We have never tried to buy Robinson and you can bet that Brooklyn is not willing to sell him."

Jackie Robinson Draws Warning From Chandler

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn's explosive second baseman, has been given a sharp warning by Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler to "behave himself."

On the carpet as the result of an outburst in the spring and banished for a run-in with an umpire in one of the late season games, the Negro infielder drew another rebuke for criticizing the umpiring in the first world series game.

After the opening series game, won by the New York Yankees 1-0, Robinson beefed about the work of plate umpire Cal Hubbard.

In the dressing room after the Wednesday game, Jackie said, "I've never seen such bad strikes called. He actually called a pitch-out a strike."

Later when he had cooled down the infielder said he was sorry about his remarks and wanted to make a public apology. "I lost my head," he said. "We were beaten legitimately and I thought, all in all, Hubbard called a good game."

In the meantime, Commissioner Chandler had told Manager Burt Shotton of the Dodgers that he expected better behavior from Robinson.

Chandler instructed Robinson, through Shotton, to be more circumspect in dealing with umpires in the future and "act like the big league ball player he is." The commissioner said he wanted Robinson to quit "popping off" about umpires.

Grid Gossip In Northwest Loop

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Oregon State, with four sophomores expected to move into the starting lineup, leaves today for a Saturday game against Washington at Seattle.

Coach Kip Taylor indicated he would promote to the starters Guard Don Zaroski. End John Thomas, Right Halfback Bill Sheffield and Quarterback Gene Morrow.

An air game was expected to result. Morrow, a star passer at The Dalles, Ore., high school, was impressive in passing in the few minutes he played last week when Oregon State was drubbed by California, 41-0.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Coach Phil Sarboe today came out with a cautious prediction his Washington State Cougars stand a better than outside chance of defeating Oregon in their coast conference football game here Saturday.

Prospects were for a soft and squishy turf. Heavy rains have soaked the stadium field all week.

Sarboe probably will have to do without the services of his star sophomore Halfback, Bud Roffler, who has been sidelined by injuries for more than a week.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 7.—(AP)—The 37-man University of Oregon football squad—sound of limb and in good condition—left here by train yesterday for a Coast conference game Saturday against Washington State.

SEATTLE, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Washington's Huskies tapered off their drills today in preparation for their Coast conference football opener against Oregon State here Saturday.

The surprise of yesterday's final heavy scrimmage was the switch of Dev (One-Play) Gossett from end to left halfback. Coach Howie Odell indicated he will rely on the Renton 6-footer for the safety role on defense.

Gossett earned his name by against Stanford in 1946 on the single play he made in the game. With three first string backs benched by injuries, Odell's offensive backfield is expected to consist of Don O'Leary at quarter, Jim Wiley at left half, Kenny Dunn at fullback and Jack Seth at right half.

State Bird Refuge Near Hot Lake Considered

LA GRANDE, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Sportsmen and farmers are mulling the question of whether they want a State Bird refuge near Hot Lake.

Game commission officials said the proposed refuge would take in 5,000 acres, and that about 1,500 of the acres are not arable land.

The Game commission said it would not press for the refuge, however, should farmers think the land should be retained for crop production.

Stanford-UCLA Battle Features Coast Grid Card

By BOB MYERS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Stanford and UCLA occupy the feature spot of the Pacific Coast conference Rose Bowl race tomorrow in a contest that promises to be bruising and close.

Of equal interest is the renewed swing at Big Ten football prestige by the University of Southern California and California's Golden Bears.

Southern Cal engages Ohio State at Los Angeles, California plays Wisconsin at Madison and there is reason to hope that both coast elevens will have better luck than their conference cousins, Stanford and Washington, had against Michigan and Minnesota.

Rounding out the Saturday slate, Oregon should get by Washington State at Pullman, but Oregon State faces no such prospects at Seattle against the University of Washington.

Idaho takes a rest after an unhappy experience with the Texas Longhorns, and Montana goes against Colorado A M at Ft. Collins.

The surprising thing about the conference campaign is that the Stanford-UCLA game at Palo Alto may be billed as a crucial affair.

Stanford rates a slim margin of favoritism although proving last week that one of the better teams in the west still is not quite prepared to cope with a Michigan or a Notre Dame.

Oregon, a splendid team, none the less got a convincing 35-27 whacking from UCLA. The Webfoots should prevail over a stout but pitifully undermanned Washington State squad.

Personal prediction dept: UCLA over Stanford in a rip roaring game; USC over Ohio State; California over Wisconsin; Washington over Oregon State; Oregon over WSC, and Montana over the Colorado Aggies.

Reedsport Boys Football Prospects At O. C. E.

Two Douglas county boys, both from Reedsport, are rated highly by Bill McArthur, head football coach at Oregon College of Education.

Expecting somewhat of a breather this Saturday against the George Fox College Quakers, McArthur indicated the two ex-Reedsport high players, Chuck Pinion and Jack Banta, will see plenty of action in the coming game.

The two Reedsport boys were listed as possible starters for the Monmouth Wolves, despite the fact they are both freshmen. Pinion, OCE frosh quarterback, is definitely in line for a starting berth against the Quakers. Banta, frosh halfback, will also see action when Coach McArthur starts an all-freshman eleven against the George Fox College team.

Oregon-Cougar Game To Be Aired Over KRNR

A play-by-play account of the Oregon-Washington State game to be played at Pullman, Wash., Saturday will be aired locally over KRNR.

Broadcast time is 1:45 p.m. The game will be narrated by Associated Sportscaster Loyd Salt and Commentator Bob Curtis.

Oregon's High School Grid Teams Slated This Weekend For Featureless Contests

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Unbeaten Hood River and Astoria run into their first stiff competition of the year tonight, but the rest of the state's high school football leaders just laze along.

Hood River, high-score winner of three straight games, will travel to Gresham, a team that has been downed only by Franklin of Portland. It will be the top encounter of the District 5 chase. Astoria, unbeaten in District 7, will be host to Central Catholic of Portland, perennial contender for the district title.

Salem, downed by Klamath Falls, but still in the running in District 4, also will face a severe test, playing host to Bend. Eugene, unbeaten in the same district, is expected to romp over Cottage Grove.

The Southern and Eastern Oregon leaders got a respite. Grants Pass will be idle. Medford will play an inter-state game, meeting Eureka, Calif. Milton-Freewater will tangle with Walla Walla.

Tag-Team Bout Promises Lots Of Rough Action

Buck Weaver retained his Pacific coast wrestling title here last week over Georges Dusette but fans know that if time hadn't run out on the strong French-Canadian, he might have thrown Weaver for a long loss. The rules state that a championship battle must be won on 2-out-of-3 falls and Dusette only collected one before time ran out on him. He is crying for a return match, but won't fight unless there is no time limit. Since Matchmaker Elton Owen couldn't get it cleared in time for this week's card, he lined up a spectacular tag-team match instead.

And it should be a red-hot fracas. On the meanie's side are Weaver and Stocky Kneilson, as smooth a pair at the rough and dirty as you can find. On the cleanie side are, Tex Hager and Al Szasz, as fine a pair of scientific grapplers as you would want to see in action. But don't think they can't get rough when the going gets tough.

Szasz is riding a long winning streak and doesn't intend to let these two ruin it for him, and Hager has a standing feud with Weaver that is likely to break out in open warfare at any time. Railbirds are predicting one red-hot mat engagement that should send the fans home completely satisfied.

In the one-hour opener, Dan Dugan, newcomer from California, will take on Billy McEuin. Dugan is a cleanie, well versed in ring lore even if he is still classed as a youngster. He fights along the order of Jack Kiser and that makes him a grappler to watch out for.

Seven Games On Local Grid Card This Weekend

Local football fans will see football aplenty this weekend, with a total of seven home contests to be played, all involving Roseburg teams.

Beginning with the Indian-Reedsport Braves tilt at Finlay field tonight at 8, other games include four grade school contests Saturday morning, a Junior high-Papoose-Sutherlin scrimmage at 12:30 Saturday, and the Junior Varsity Warriors-Grants Pass J.V. contest looks to be the game of the day. Coach Norm West brought his boys back from a 41-14 defeat last weekend, inflated by this same band of Grants Pass players. The J.V.s figure to be a tougher opponent on their home field and will have the added advantage of more experience—plus a few new offensive tricks.

Coaches Hod Turner and Frank Purdy will send their inexperienced Junior high boys against a rugged group of Sutherlin eighth and ninth graders in a return scrimmage session. These two teams arranged to meet again, following a scrimmage Wednesday that saw both teams score and gave coaches a chance to point out errors and make suggestions for needed improvement.

Grade Schools Slated
Grade school youngsters come in for their share of football glory this weekend with four games scheduled for Saturday, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The two Rose school teams will be trying to keep the slate clean and continue to ride at the top of both Heavyweight and Pee-wee divisions. Rose Heavies will meet the Fullerton Heavies which tied 12-12 with Benson last week. The Rose Pee-wees will meet Riverside, beaten in their first encounter by Fullerton.

In other games scheduled for Saturday morning, the Riverside and Benson Heavyweights tangle and Fullerton and Benson will meet.
