"Wise" Girl Hit By Deportation

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Gerald "Raffles" Dennis' girl friend left town Friday with some good advice to other girls who come to the big city.

"Be worldly wise when you come to Los Angeles," said ex-school teacher Betty Ritchie, "and if you meet someone you like, take him home to mama."

Miss Ritchie, who admittedly hadn't practiced what she preached, left by plane for Chicago, first leg of a deportation journey to her home in Toronto, Canada.

The good looking 24-year-old schoolmarm was found in Dennis' Beverly Hills apartment when he was arrested in Cleveland. Some $120,000 in loot from society burglaries was found in his apartment.

Dennis, dubbed "Raffles" because of his working resemblance to the fictional society burglar, is serving an 18 years-to-life sentence.

Christian Church Pastor Resigns In Dispute

ASTORIA, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Rev. Clifford Snyder, pastor of the Christian church here for four years, resigned Friday after a disagreement with the church's lay leaders on church administration.

The Rev. Ross J. Griffith, Eugene, will come here Sunday to conduct the services and discuss plans for obtaining a new pastor.

Fullerton School Staff Welcomed

One hundred eighty parents gathered Monday night, Oct. 3, at Fullerton school to meet the teachers, visit school rooms and get acquainted with their neighbors.

Mrs. N. D. Johnson presided at the business meeting and introduced the committee chairman for the coming year. After the meeting adjourned, parents visited in the school rooms and heard a brief talk by the teachers on present day teaching methods.

During the evening, Wendell Johnson, music instructor in the Roseburg schools, played three violin selections and gave a short talk on the benefits of having a school orchestra, as well as a band, in Roseburg. Mr. Johnson offered all possible cooperation to parents who would like to have their children begin string lessons.

Apples, doughnuts and coffee were served during the social hour, and the singing was entertained with the aid of the Roseburg barbershop quartet, which presented several selections and encore numbers.

Military Aid Program Director Nominated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—James Bruce of Maryland was nominated by President Truman Friday to direct the foreign military aid program.

Bruce, former ambassador to Argentina, was designated one day after Mr. Truman signed legislation authorizing $1,314,010,000 to help arm friendly nations. Senate confirmation is required.

American arms will be sent to 14 countries in western Europe, the middle east, and the far Pacific to help them resist communism.

The geographic center of the United States is in North-central Kansas.
