

Girl's Love Saves Burglar From Ten-Year Term

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10 (AP)—The love of a girl he met in prison saved a convicted burglar from going back today for 10 years.

The love of Peggy Peterson persuaded the usually stern Judge Robert France to set free her man who had followed across the continent.

But the judge said marriage will have to wait a while.

Up for sentence was 2-year-old William J. Sansbury on charges of forgery amounting to $875. The judge found him guilty and sentenced him to 10 years and suspended sentence saying:

"It is her belief in you that to a large extent is responsible for your receiving a suspended sentence. Do not let her down."

The judge then set unusual probationary terms in addition to the customary regulations which are for three years.

"One, no part of Miss Peggy Peterson's personal funds are to be used to make restitution.

"Two, you and Miss Peterson are not to marry during the period of one year. I have discussed this with Miss Peterson and she agrees."

Miss Peterson met Sansbury in San Quentin prison. He was serving 21 months for burglary and she worked there as an office clerk.

When Sansbury was released recently he was returned to Maryland to face the two-year forgery charges. The 22-year-old girl took her life's savings of $600 and flew from San Francisco after him.

At his trial she offered $200 of her remaining $240 to help Sansbury make restitution.

"Judge, I know he'll go straight," she pleaded.

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Come now Hollywood's AFL not a labor organization but the anti-falsies league.

It's a group of young beautifully proportioned contract actresses who have banded together, with front office approval to combat growing public suspicion that movie lovelies are not what they are but phony.

The league developed quickly after Mrs. Darwin Greenfield, a New Orleans beauty, spluttered loudly about beauty contestants wearing cheaters. (Mrs. Greenfield won the contest but was disqualified because she's a married woman. However she said she won it by golly, naturally and honestly, sans falsies.)

Federal Agent Denied Access To Medicos' Files

SPOKANE, Oct. 8 (AP)—The Washington Medical association, listed by its parent organization as one of 15 affiliates involved in a Justice department anti-trust investigation, barred its files to a department agent last week.

Dr. Donald G. Corbett of Spokane, association president, said that the agent requested access to the files at Seattle headquarters. He was refused on advice of the association's legal counsel. The president said the turn-down will stand until the board of trustees can consider the matter.

The American Medical association trustees announced in Chicago Thursday that it and 15 affiliates, including the Washington association and the King County Medical society, are under investigation by the Justice department.
