

Explorer Clark Denied Release

CANTON, Oct. 10.—(P)—American Explorer Leonard Clark has lost an appeal for release on bail. He is charged with manslaughter in the shooting of two companions at a drinking party which began as a wedding anniversary celebration.

Clark was brought dramatically into Canton district court after the public prosecutor had subjected attractive Maya Freeman to more than three hours of questioning.

She is the widow of Willard Freeman, 41, Bridgewater, Mass., who was wounded fatally at the party at his home Sept. 8. Harboid Harris, 45, a British subject and business associate of Freeman, was shot dead.

The prosecutor tried for a long time to wring an admission from her that she had been intimate with the San Francisco explorer. She consistently declared she had not.

In her presence, the prosecutor asked Clark if he had been her lover.

"No," replied the 42-year-old American who claimed recently he had discovered the world's highest mountain in the Amne Machin range of Western China. He added:

"She was like a sister to me. We were friends and had many things in common but we were not in love with each other."

Clark denied that he shot either Freeman or Harris.

Nation's Idle From Strikes May Increase

May Avert Rail Strike
Leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers who have threatened a nationwide strike which would tie up all rail traffic, plan to meet tomorrow with carriers to talk it over.

The firemen want the railroads to hire extra firemen in multiple unit diesel locomotives. The railroads say it isn't necessary and such practice would be rank "featherbedding."

David B. Robertson, president of the union said "an agreement may be reached then to avert a nationwide strike."

Union officials say that before a strike is called there would be a new poll of the union's 110,000 membership. The union once before authorized a strike, necessitating review of their demands by a presidential fact-finding committee. The committee declared the third diesel crew member wasn't needed. This finding has been rejected by the union.

Auto Future Uncertain
In the auto capital at Detroit most firms are operating on a normal basis but uncertainty prevails regarding future operations.

Packard Motor Car company resumed operations with a two-thirds working force today after a two-day shutdown to look over its steel inventory. So did Briggs Manufacturing company which makes Packard's bodies.

Most of the unemployment resulting from the twin coal and steel strikes to date has been on the railroads where approximately 50,000 men have been idled or are working on reduced schedules.

Ordinary business in the steel and coal centers has been hit heavily. At Gary, Ind., 30,000 of the city's 36,100 payrollers are idle and general business is estimated to be 15 to 25 percent off.

In Pittsburgh retail merchants are appealing to strikers to hold off on credit purchases.

"Steel" magazine said full effects of the steel strike won't be felt for two or three weeks. It predicted at the start of the strike that consumer inventories were large enough for 30 days.

In a suburb of Lincoln, Nebr., a Sunday punch tornado dipped to earth and leveled a house. Mrs. Stella Morris, 78, was killed. Two others in the house were treated for injuries.

The whirling funnel of wind had scythed a path 12 miles long across the Nebraska countryside before it made its deadly strike.

The damaging winds hop-skip-and-jumped over Oklahoma. One woman was injured at Sapulpa, Okla., a small farm community 50 miles northwest of Woodward.

In Russell, Kans., a small tornado ignored the outskirts—it lashed down Main street. One woman was critically injured, but on the edge of town 500 farmers danced on at a V.F.W. hall as the winds by-passed them.

ALL OF A SUDDEN IT COLLAPSED—The wonderful one-hoss shay had nothing on this 50-year-old bridge near Stockton, Calif., except an extra fifty years. The 70-foot steel bridge just collapsed, for no apparent reason, and with no one on it at the time. Evidently it had just used up its allotted span. When the photographer found it, it was being used as a romping ground by a small boy and his dog.

Prowler Discovered in Buckingham Palace

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A prowler was discovered in a Buckingham Palace bedroom a few hours before King George VI returned there today from a vacation in Scotland.

Newspapers gave this account of the incident: a maid, aroused early Sunday by noise, got out of bed and tripped over a man. Police and Palace guards searched the Palace and its grounds for an hour and a half. They finally found the man hiding under bed clothes in a spare room.

Scotland Yard officials said the 26-year-old prowler has been placed under medical observation.

"We have a request to drop the whole matter," the officials said unions abroad and democratic movements since then.

No-Strike Pledge
Meantime, better labor peace in the construction industry was assured with settlement of a long-standing jurisdictional dispute between two key American Federation of Labor unions.

An agreement climaxing several years of negotiations has been reached during sessions of the annual AFL convention here, it was learned.

The agreement contains a no-strike pledge between the AFL carpenters and the AFL laborers union on handling of concrete forms.

This argument may be unknown to a great many people but has tied up millions of dollars of important construction work for months at a time, with strikes occurring frequently over the years.

Election of officers late today was to climax the session of considering resolutions.

William Green, AFL president, and other officers of the big labor organization were expected to be re-elected without opposition.

committee and asked to give his detailed reasons for the cuts which Secretary of the Navy Matthews has said would damage National security.

Chairman Vinson said that "of course we are going to get Johnson up here."

Harrison told the committee that this country even has secret equipment that determines whether aircraft is friendly or enemy. Radar, he said, is only one method for locating and identifying planes.

At the end of the last war, Harrison said, Engineers had the "know how" to build radar effective against big, high-altitude bombers. And this information is in print, he said.
