

Yanks Win World Series

Dodgers Lose Fifth Game By 10-To-6 Score

Major Credit For Series Triumph Given Reynolds, Page, Pitching Marvels

By JACK HAND.
BROOKLYN, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The New York Yankees, of Casey Stengel's "Invalids of destiny," won the World Series yesterday from the startled Brooklyn Dodgers for several reasons—but the most important was the Reynold Page bullpen combination.

Because he had the right relief men when he needed them most, Stengel led his assorted cripples to the winner's share of the jackpot—$5,884 for each Yankee.

Pitching usually tells the story of short series. It was no different in the five-game 1949 set. Only this time it was the relief work of Allie Reynolds and Joe Page that stood out after the Yanks and Dodgers swapped 10 shutouts in the first two record-breaking games.

Certainly there were other stars: Bobby Brown for his .509 batting average, Johnny Mize for his 1,000 pinch hitting, Tommy Henrich for the homer that got the opener and little Phil Rizzuto for his superlative shortstop play.

But way out front there were the two "big" men of the Yanks' 12th series triumph in 16 tries—Reynolds and Page.

Page, of course, ran true to form. Hadn't he marched from the bullpen 60 times during the regular season, 20 of them to save Reynolds?

Reynolds' brilliant performance of no runs and only two hits in 12 1/3 innings was a direct right-about-face. "Old Wahoo" completed but four games in 31 starts. He even got the opening assignment on sort of a rain check.

Things ended normally at Ebbets field yesterday afternoon with Page ambulating in to finish what Raschi started. Working with only two days' rest, like Newcombe in Saturday's sad effort, Raschi crumbled in the Dodger seventh. A 10-2 lead melted to 10-6.

There was nobody on when Page walked in. But Gil Hodges had just unloaded a three-run homer as a parting shot to Raschi. The fireman was all alone. Boss Burt Shotton sent up Luis Olmo, a righthanded batter, for Dodger Marv Rackley, a left-hander. Three hopping fast balls and the side was out.

Nobody knew it until Page told it after the game, but Smokey Joe was throwing only fast balls because he injured his hand Friday. It didn't make much difference. The high hard one was plenty hard. Pinch hitter Bruce Edwards singled with one gone in the eighth. The next batter, Pee Wee Reese hit a come-back ball to Page, who started a double play.

Page didn't let up in the ninth. He ended matters with a flourish. Following a menacing pinch double by Eddie Miksis, he whiffed Duke Snider, the most striking man in the series, and fanned Jackie Robinson. He lost Gene Hermanski on a walk. Gil Hodges worked the county to 2-2 and beat the breeze on the next. That was all.

Three California Football Teams Still Undefeated In Coast Conference Schedule

College football in the far west reaches the midseason mark this weekend with three teams still undefeated in the big championship chase.

The coast conference title fight, with the Rose Bowl nomination as the postseason prize, now looms among Southern California, California and the University of California at Los Angeles. These three have unmarred league records.

O. S. C. Uses Old Michigan Tactics To Beat Huskies

SEATTLE, Oct. 10.—(AP) Oregon State college had one victory safely stowed away in the Pacific coast conference football records today because it used an old Michigan strategy Saturday and upset the University of Washington Huskies, 7 to 3.

The battle plan was "a punt, a pass and a prayer," and Coach Rip Taylor, an ex-Michiganer, followed it to triumph.

Pushed, pounded, whacked and walked on for all but about five minutes of the game, State's Beavers kept kicking themselves out of trouble until they got one good break they could turn into a touchdown.

It came at the start of the final quarter, with the Beavers trailing by three points. Washington was starting another of the many members which had carried the Huskies to the tally door time and again. Each time the O.S.C. defense had tightened to fight back the threat.

Then Washington quarterback Don O'Leary sailed a pass over the line and Don Zaroski hauled it down for O.S.C. on the Washington 5 and was dumped on the 30. Ken Carpenter, State's left halfback, whipped a pass to Dick Gray for 14 yards.

Gray then hit the middle for three and Quarter Gene Morrow tossed to end John Thomas for 13 more. Carpenter sliced five and an offside penalty put the ball on the Washington one. Big Ken bowled over and the game was in the bag, with Stan McGuire's placekick tacking on an unnecessary point.

Papooses Post Victory In Scrimmage Session

Roseburg's Papooses came through with a 21-13 win over a Sutherin Junior high team Saturday in a football scrimmage session run in regular game fashion.

Little "Red" Guthrie, Papoose halfback, topped individual scorers with two touchdowns and three perfect conversions. Quarterback Don Stumbo scored the other Roseburg touchdown.

Next Roseburg Junior high school game will be against Ashland next Saturday. The game will begin at 2 p. m., on Finlay field.

Hager-Szasz Duo Defeats Knielson, Weaver On Mat

By CHUCK PLUMMER
Douglas county wrestling fans saw one of the best tag team matches performed in the Roseburg ring for a long time Saturday night at the armory, when Tex Hager and Al Szasz walloped villains Buck Weaver and Stocky Knielson. In the program opener newcomer Dan Dugan decided rough Billy McEuin two-out-of-three falls.

The opening fall in the main event was all Hager and Szasz, as the popular duo climbed all over Weaver and Knielson. Hager started the action off with a series of headlocks that had Weaver so groggy he went to the wrong corner to tag. After Hager became tired, he tagged Szasz who applied the same headlock to Weaver's dome and Weaver could do nothing but walk around in a daze. Finally, Knielson grabbed Weaver's leg, dragged him into the corner and tagged him. Then the bearded wrestler came up behind Szasz and started slugging him around the ring. Szasz finally wandered into his corner and tagged Hager, who retaliated for Szasz by promptly putting the whammy on Knielson. After 13 minutes of wild action, Hager threw Knielson with a series of flying mares and tagged Szasz. Szasz promptly applied his famous arm whips and won the fall with an arm stretch.

The rough duo won the second fall when they started alternately picking Szasz up and throwing him bodily to the mat. Weaver first threw him, then tagged Knielson, who proceeded to pick him up and throw him around some more until finally Weaver won the fall with a body press. Midway in the second fall, Weaver maneuvered Szasz over into the corner with a full-nelson and Knielson promptly smacked him in the face, but when Szasz invited him out to fight it out, the bearded villain seemed to have lost interest.

Odd Tactics in Finale
Hager and Szasz were again all over Weaver and Knielson in the final canto and they won it in a very exciting and queer finish. First the popular duo alternated flying mares on Weaver, but Weaver caught Szasz napping and applied a neck cracker. Hager reached over the ropes and tagged Szasz and referee Elton Owen patted Weaver's back to signify the tag. Weaver thought Szasz had given up and raised his arm in victory but Hager planted a flying dropkick on Weaver's chest and took the fall with a body press. Hager really hit Weaver hard with the dropkick, as fans could hear Weaver's neck pop. Szasz probably ended up with a very sore back after taking punishment on mat smashes in the second and final falls.

In the opener, Dugan took the first fall from McEuin in 11 minutes with a body press. McEuin was busy throwing Dugan with flying mares, when Dugan caught him off guard and hit him with a dropkick and leaped on with a body press.

McEuin retaliated in the second in only three minutes with a half Boston crab. Dugan appeared to have a very sore leg and gave up quickly when the hold was applied.

Fans witnessed a new hold in the final canto, which Dugan calls a "full-nelson swing." First Dugan applied the hold, then twisted McEuin around and threw him with a flying mare and jumped on him with a body press to take the fall in three minutes, 38 seconds.

A poor crowd turned out for the matches and many can be sure they missed a brilliant wrestling exhibition in the two bouts.

Indians Praised By Sherwood For Quality Playing

Coach Cece Sherwood had nothing but praise for the way his Indians performed against Reedsport Friday night in handing the Braves a 38-0 setback.

When asked about the team's performance following the game, Sherwood termed the Friday night contest the best this year's team has played so far this season.

"Sure, we made mistakes, but fewer than usual," Sherwood said. "The boys seemed sure of themselves. They just went out and did the job."

Judging from the way Roseburg players blocked, tackled and ran, Sherwood's comment is pure understatement.

An error in Saturday's game write-up credited Van Horn with the touchdown which followed Weber's run and lateral on a punt return. Ronnie Strickling, Roseburg quarterback, was the boy who received Weber's lateral and ran. Sherwood's comment is pure understatement.

Sherwood said the major stress in this week's practice sessions would be placed on tactics designed to stop a talented Marshfield team, rated the best in District 3 competition. The Indians meet Marshfield there Friday night.

Warriors Lose To Grants Pass In Lop-Sided Game

The Roseburg J.V. Warriors lost another football game by a lopsided score Saturday afternoon, as Coach Norm West continued the new policy of stressing experience first, in an effort to provide future varsity teams with well-trained players.

Grants Pass ran up a 34-12 win over the Warriors by sticking fairly close to a two-team combination. In contrast, every Roseburg Junior Varsity candidate earned playing time during the contest.

The local boys held their own against a more experienced opponent for the first part of the game, with Grants Pass holding only 7-6 edge when the first half ended. However, the Junior Cavemen scored almost at will during the final half as West sent reserves into the contest.

Jerry Sconce scored the initial Roseburg touchdown, plunging over from the one-yard line after Grants Pass drew first blood with a successful end run.

Lloyd Stumbo accounted for the other J.V. score late in the fourth quarter, scoring on a tackle "trap" play from the five.

All Grants Pass scores came on end runs and rushing plays over the tackle positions.

Interesting sidelight on Roseburg's second touchdown came after West discovered the Warriors scored with only ten men on the field. The rules state that both teams must start the contest with eleven men, but that fewer than that number may be used "if desired." Other members of the Roseburg coaching staff are not likely to let West forget that one-half of the Warriors' points came with less than a full team in action.

PORTLAND U. LOSES
LODI, Calif., Oct. 10.—(AP)—A three-touchdown spurge in the second half gave Santa Clara a 26-13 win over a stubborn Portland University eleven yesterday. The Pilots led the Californians 7-6 at halftime.

CORRECTION IN SCORE
Saturday's News-Review incorrectly stated "Canyonville mauled a Lorane team from Lane county, 6-0." Correct score of that game was 46-6.

Governor's Cup Won By Hollywood Stars

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 10.—(AP)—They're finally through playing baseball in the Pacific Coast league, and the Hollywood stars are in possession of the Governor's cup along with the pennant.

The final playoff series in the final playoff edge in the final playoff series. Knuckleballer Willie Ramsdell was the winner and Lyman Linde shelled from the mound in the fifth inning, was charged with the setback.

The Hollywoods are the fourth team in as many years to cop both the flag and the playoff. Each player will get $550 as his share of the $15,000 prize money. The San Diego players will receive $356 apiece.

Gordon To Fight Bill Petersen For Northwest Title

Hardrock Gordon who recently decided Baby Dutch Culbertson in Portland, is back in Roseburg training for another battle in the Oregon metropolis, this time for a shot at the Pacific Northwest heavyweight championship, currently held by Big Bill Petersen. The titular battle is scheduled for October 18.

Petersen won the championship more than a year ago with a 15-round verdict over Joe Kahut. He later defended the title in two bouts with Roy Hawkins, subsequently lost a decision to Joey Manim and drew with Jess Hall.

Although Petersen and Gordon have fought in Northwest rings many times, neither has seen the other in action. Gordon emerged from his bout with Culbertson in good shape with only a few minor bruises. He was a 3-to-1 underdog in that fight. His sensational victory was described by a Portland sports writer as "the most auspicious introduction of any newcomer to Portland rings in many years."

Oregon Easy Winner Over Washington State

PULLMAN, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A stout Oregon line smothered the Washington State college ground and aerial attack Saturday as the ducks got back in the coast conference win parade with a resounding 21-0 triumph.

Bob Sanders, 209-pound fullback, cracked over for two of the Oregon tallies in the final period after Darrell Robinson marked up the first in the second period by hauling in Quarterback Earl Stelle's forward from the 18-yard line.

So completely did the ducks bottle up the "vaunted Cougar passing attack that Oregon intercepted four of WSC's 14 tosses and ran them back for 69 yards—two yards more than the Cougars made on the six passes they completed.
