

Indians Facing Tough Battle At Coos Bay

Marshfield Will Put Well-Trained Squad In Field Friday Night

This week's practice for the Roseburg Indians will stress successful offensive tactics against Marshfield's tough defense. The Coos Bay area crowd uses a five-man line which is almost an eight-man line, with three line backers up close.

Due to Marshfield's remarkable pass defense, Roseburg may pass very little Friday night at Coos Bay. The Marshfield Pirates football roster is studied with basketball players that are death on pass attempts by their opponents.

The team is made up of tall, rangy lads who roll up yardage either on the ground or in the air.

Coach Pete Susiek will depend upon a backfield made up of quarterback Barney Holland, left halfback Dave Nasburg, Ron Robbins or Tommy Crabtree; Ken Scott at right half and Wayne Thompson at fullback.

Roseburg's coach Cece Sherwood expects to make considerable use of mixing single wing running attacks with the usual T-formation plays. New single wing strategy will be one of the big items on this week's practice menu.

Bill Van Horn, who scored three touchdowns against Reed sport last weekend, will be featured Thursday night at the Roseburg Lions club meeting as the "most outstanding" offensive back of the week. His name will be engraved on a trophy. At the end of the season, the player

Grid Gossip In Northwest Loop

PULLMAN, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Washington State college will be at top strength for this Saturday's tiff with Idaho, trainer Jack Mooberry informed Coach Phil Sarboe yesterday.

Tackle Landy James, out of the Oregon clash with injuries, was on hand for yesterday's drill.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Maybe it's something special—perhaps it's just psychology, anyway, Coach Dixie Howell locked the gates on his University of Idaho football drill last night.

The reason, of course, is this Saturday's clash with neighboring Washington State college—a foe the Vandals haven't knocked over in more than 20 years.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Scrimmage sessions are on tap today and tomorrow for the Oregon ducks as they prepare for the Saturday game with Colorado. Only a light workout was held yesterday.

SEATTLE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Rapid Rolly Kirkby, expected to be in top shape by this Saturday, will romp from the fullback spot when the University of Washington Huskies tangle with Stanford.

Kirkby's switch to fullback was made necessary when Coach Howie Odell learned yesterday that it was extremely doubtful if either Hugh McElhenry or Hank Tiedeman will have shaken off their hurts by game time.

Stanford Loss Puts Red Neckties In Mothballs

PALO ALTO, Calif., Oct. 11.—(AP)—Charles Moulds, local haberdasher and an enthusiastic Stanford supporter, stored away a large shipment of red neckties today.

They arrived Saturday just after Moulds returned from watching the Indians' 14-7 defeat at the hands of UCLA.

"Maybe they'll sell better next year," he said. On each was a picture of an Indian driving a little car to the Rose Bowl.

Exhibition Bout Series Planned By Joe Louis

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Joe Louis is planning to begin training soon at Pompton Lakes, N.J. for a series of what he calls "ten-round exhibition bouts with ten-ounce gloves."

Following a four-round exhibition with Curtis (Hatchetman) Sheppard here last night, Louis disclosed he would like to engage in about six or eight of the ten-rounders with the rounds of three minutes duration.

Normally, heavyweight exhibition bouts are four two-minute rounds and 16-ounce gloves are used.

The retired heavyweight champion boxed in good style and moved sharply last night although he was carrying considerable excess weight at the midriff.

Louis said he is willing to meet any challengers in the proposed exhibitions.

Asked if he was considering a comeback, Louis said: "I'm not thinking along those lines now."

He planned to fly today to San Francisco, where Ezzard Charles will defend his heavyweight title against Pat Valentino Friday.

Macklin, Famous Grid Coach, Dies

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—(AP)—John Farrell Macklin, who in five years of coaching built up one of the best records in the football record books, died at his home here yesterday. He was 65.

Macklin was the founding father of big time football at Michigan State college, newly elected member of the Big Ten. The school named its stadium Macklin field in his honor.

Macklin coached Michigan State from 1911 through 1915 and lost only three games. He piloted the first Spartan team to defeat a University of Michigan eleven.

That red letter day was in 1913 when Michigan State upset a team coached by the great Fielding (Hurry Up) Yost by a 12-to-7 score.

Michigan came back to win in 1914 on a 60-yard dropkick, 3-0.

But Macklin wound up his collegiate coaching career in 1915 with a 24-0 trouncing of Michigan.

Shotton, Stengel Will Continue Managerial Jobs

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The only guy on the club who hasn't had a doctor all year." Manager Burt Shotton of the Brooklyn Dodgers has received a vote of confidence from his boss and lifelong friend, Branch Rickey.

Shotton, who led the Dodgers to the National league pennant in a stirring drive, hasn't signed a contract for 1950 but that's not odd.

Old Barney has been working for Rickey for 33 years and never operated with a contract until National league rules forced him to sign one.

Rickey gave Burt a vote of confidence during an informal press meeting yesterday.

"I consider Shotton a sound manager. Just as Casey Stengel and Leo Durocher are sound managers," the voice of Brooklyn said. "I will always go along with a sound manager in his front guess."

Meanwhile, Stengel who piloted the New York Yankees to victory over the Dodgers in the World Series, contradicted reports that he would not return because of ill health.

"Nothing to it," said Stengel. "Why, I'm so healthy that I'm
