Coos Bay Tilt Of RHS Held As "Crucial"

Marshfield Loss Would Transfer League Lead To Myrtle Point Eleven

Although three Roseburg leams will tussle this weekend. Doug-las county football fans will be closely watching the Roseburg Indians-Marshfield Pirates tiff.

This game looms as a crucial encounter. A Marshfield win would leave them only one game away from the district championship, while a Roseburg victory would put Myrtle Point in the district lead. Marshfield current-belde ly holds down the number one slot in the league standings.

In other league standings.

In other league tiffs, Myrtle Point plays Reedsport and North Bend travels to Coquille.

Norm West's Junior varsity Warriors travel to Myrtle Creek for a grid clash there at 2 p.m. Saturday, while Hod Turner's ninth grade Papooses are the only Roseburg gridders who battle locally this weekend. The Papooses meet Ashland on Finlay field Saturday at 2 p.m.

Last year the speedy Ashland aggregation beat the Papooses 13-0 but the two clubs played to a tie in an earlier encounter.

Turner, with coacnes Frank Purdy and Ed Wyatt assisting, will throw 40 boys into the fight.

Purdy and Ed Wyatt assistine, will inrow 40 boys into the fight. The Paponses acrimmaged with a heavier Jayvee unit this week, in preparation for the Saturday struggle.

Gordon Working Out In Portland

Fight manager Ernie Nazelrod travels to Portland tonight to be with his sensational boxing pro-tege, Hardrock Gordon, who is presently working out at the Na-tional Boxing club training quarters.

Nazelrod will put Gordon
through some light workouts
prior to his fight with Big Bill Petersen, whom he is challenging for the Northwest heavweight championship in a 12-round ring battle at Portland's civic audito-rium Tuesday night. Petersen's handlers wanted the championship go to travel a scheduled 15-rounds, but Gordon, scheduled 15-rounds, but Gordon, who has never fought that distance, was able to get the Portland boxing commission to O. K. a 12-round tiff.

Nazelrod indicated anything over 10-rounds may be classed a championship battle, provided both parties can agree.

A win over Peteresen would put Gordon in line for a return clash with Joe Kahut, whom Gordon decisioned in a 10-round go at Roseburg several months ago.

Turkey Thompson Beats Murray In Dull Fight

SPOKANE, Oct. 13 — (IP) — A dull heavyweight match between Turkey Thompson and Lee Murray was halted in the sixth round last night when Murray suffered a deep cut over his right eye. It went into the books as a technical knockout.

Thompson, of Los Angeles, weighed 208, one pound less than his New York opponent.
