was presented the cup by Ross Newcomb.

Announcement was made of the club's district governor's night Thursday, Oct. 20, when District Governor Forrest Losee will make his official visit. Bernard Saar is in charge. A father and son night is scheduled Oct. 27. Frank Von Borstel heads the committee.

A committee, Phil Sutton, George Foster, Robert Browning, Raymond Benston and Dr. Bruce Hetrick, was named to arrange for a ladies' night program in the near future.

Bruce Elliott has been named in charge of a luncheon meeting Nov. 12, when the national governor will stop on his way through the city.

R. R. "Bud" Parsons was inducted as a new member by Elliott.

Speakers of the evening, the guests of M. W. Slankard, were City Councilman George West and Engineer Ben Irving, who talked on plans for the proposed airport.

She is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Clayton Mather, Days Creek; Howard Mather, Prospect; Mrs. Mather, Starbuck, admin.; Mrs. Ida Armit, Sunnyside, Minn.; and Mrs. Eva McIntyre, Eugene. One grandson also survives.

Funeral services in charge of the Long & Orr mortuary will be held in the Methodist church at Canyonville, Sunday, Oct. 16, at 2 p. m. Interment will follow in the Masonic cemetery.

Workers Urged To Check Up On Social Security

Everyone is entitled to a report of the earnings credited to his social security account, according to Paul F. Johnson, manager of the Social Security administration office located in Eugene.

A simple postcard form will bring the information, Johnson said.

The Social Security administration recommends that each worker check on the accuracy of his account at least every four years. As it is difficult to correct any errors after that time. One of the post cards will be sent on request of the Social Security administration, Post Office building, Eugene.

More complete information can be obtained from the representative of that office who will be at the Oregon State Employment service at Roseburg, Oct. 18, from 8:30 a. m. to noon. He will have the post cards with him so that anyone interested may obtain one.

Choice Of Airport For Development Explained

of proposed development plans from an engineering standpoint. He said his primary interest lies in the fact he was retained by the city to make the survey necessary in accordance with recommendations of CAA officials, who have made extensive studies here.

Irving said that, while the CAA appropriation is only $121,000, every assurance has been obtained that any amount raised by the city would be matched on a 50 percent basis for the CAA and 46 percent by the city. He explained in detail the requirements of lengthening the present port from 3,600 feet to 4,700 feet and stated that if future demands require, by the acquisition of property now contemplated, the runway could be lengthened to more than 6,000 feet. The additional length is desirable only as a safety measure with increased use of the port facilities.

City Manager Slankard referred briefly to the city's proposal for the second bond issue for a municipal building. He said he made this recommendation, approved unanimously by the council, because it was not practical to have other city needs overshadowed by the airport issue.

Traffic Code Violators Fined In City Court

City police have been ordered to crack down on cars being operated with defective mufflers, according to Police Chief Calvin Baird.

Two persons were cited to municipal court and assessed $2 fines this week. They were listed by Judge Ira B. Riddle as John Willard Morgan and Melvin D. DeDobbeleere, both of Roseburg. Others cited and fined include: Wilburn Waldo Bunch, Dillard, $10, violation of basic rule; Mrs. Dwight Chesley, Roseburg, $5, no operator's license, and V. J. Anderson, Roseburg, $2, non-stop. Also seven illegal parking tickets were issued and payments of $2 each were received.

Coal Operators Prefer Seizure

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 14—(AP)—Northern and Western mine owners said today they would rather have government seizure than to "cut our own throats" by yielding to John L. Lewis' price demands.

"If it has to go to government, let it go to government," said George H. Love, chief spokesman for the operators negotiating here for two-thirds of the nation's commercial soft coal production.

The average operator is a pretty impoverished fellow," Love told a news conference.

"He is not going to cut his throat by increasing his costs this year. If there is a spontaneous movement in this industry, as Mr. Lewis says there is, it is among the small coal operators. They are unanimous in saying that they can't pay any more."

"There is no more reason to seize the industry than to seize the union," Love continued, hastening to add he was not suggesting that either.

Lewis yesterday said the 400,000 striking coal miners would go back to the pits under a "bona fide" seizure by the government.

las county budget committee report was discussed and approved, and Vice-President Mrs. Margaret McGee of Canyonville gave a report on her attendance at the National Education association meeting held in Boston during July.

E. W. Warrington, head of the religion and philosophy department, Oregon State college, gave the morning address at 10:30, speaking on the subject, "Teaching Enriched by Adventure."

The afternoon session opened at 1 p. m. with Roseburg Superintendent of Schools Paul Elliott presiding. Following musical selections by the sonhomore girls chorus, directed by Wendell Johnson, and senior high mixed chorus, directed by R. Lloyd Riffe, the program included:

Talks by Jerry S. Sayler, executive secretary, Oregon Public Employees association, speaking on the "Public Employees Retirement Law"; Lester A. Wilcox, assistant superintendent of public instruction, speaking on "Recent School Legislation," and Rev. W. A. MacArthur, "Can We Win Europe's Children?"

A meeting for nomination of officers to be elected Nov. 8 will take place at a special meeting of Canyonville citizens in the city hall of that town tonight at 8 o'clock.

Nominations will be received for the following offices; mayor, recorder and treasurer, each for one-year terms; three councilmen for two-year terms, and a fourth councilman for one year to fill the unexpired term of Joe Walker, who resigned.

Communist Leaders Convicted At N. Y. City

because of a heart condition.

A dead, shocked silence greeted the verdict. There was no demonstration. The defendants and their lawyers leaned forward eagerly, then sat back, impassive, when the word "guilty" was pronounced.

Defense Attorney Harry Sachse demanded and got a poll of the jury for the verdict against each defendant.

The federal courtroom, scene of many a jangling outburst since the trial began last Jan. 17, was crowded and tense when the eight women and four men on the stand filed in at 11:28 a. m.

Speaking firmly, the foreman—Mrs. Thelma Dial, a Negro—announced: "We find each and every one of the defendants guilty."

The five attorneys convicted of contempt were Harry Sachse of New York, Richard F. Gladstein of San Francisco, Louis F. McCabe of Philadelphia, George W. Crockett, Jr., Negro, of Detroit, and Abraham J. Isserman of New York.

Judge Medina accused them of "working in shifts, accompanied by shouting, snickering and sneering." The lawyers, he declared, "urged each other on to badger the court."

Their contempt was so great, Medina said, "as to make the imposing of fines a futile gesture."

In the historic trial the government charged that the communist party was reorganized on orders from Moscow in 1945 as a conspiracy secretly devoted to violent overthrow of the American government.

The defense contended that the party is a legitimate political organization working for the establishment of socialism by legal means.

List of Defendants

Besides Dennis the defendants in the trial were:

Jacob Stachel, 8, director of the propaganda and education division.

Gilbert Green, 43, Illinois chairman.

John Gates, 36, editor of the Daily Worker.

Benjamin Davis Jr., 46, New York City councilman.

Gus Hall, 39, Ohio chairman.

Irving Potash, 46, CIO fur workers union officials.

Robert Thompson, 34, New York state chairman.

John Williamson, 45, labor secretary.

Henry Williamson, 45, labor secretary.

Henry Winston, 38, organizational secretary.

Carl Winter, 43, Michigan chairman.

Gates, Hall, Thompson and Winston all served with the U. S. Armed Forces during the war.

Stachel, Potash and Williamson are foreign-born.

Medina thanked the jurors, eight women and four men.

"I have already thanked you in my charge," he said. "You have performed a service here and deserve thanks for your careful attention to your duties."

"Before I discharge you," the judge said, "I would like to tell

Corvallis Auto Agent Near Death From Crash

Carl Horton, 40, Corvallis automobile salesman, is near death in Good Samaritan hospital here from injuries received in an auto accident early this morning.

He is unconscious and suffering a fractured skull and other injuries. Attending physicians said his condition is poor.

Horton was riding alone when his car went out of control about three miles north of here on the highway from Albany, sideswiped a large walnut tree in front of a farm house and crashed head-on into another.

In the early part of the 20's all vacuum tube radio receivers operated on batteries. "Plug-in" sets didn't begin to appear until 1926.
